POOR DOCUMENT THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 19, 1901. Tubular Scarch Light Lanterns. PARKS' MILLS BOUGHT IN THE COURTS THREE LIVES JOCAL AND PROVINCIAL. E. Rickard, of St. Mary's, mason, signed to Sheriff Sterling. rownell, of Sackville, has shipped This is just the Lamp you Interesting Cases in Equity Tues-LOST IN BANGOR want where a strong light is reday. quired, as in stables, mills, warethe couple stood was prettily trimmed with flowers and ferns, autumn leaves and potted plants. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by over 50 invited guests, the party sat down to a wedding repast. The bride will be very much missed among her large circle of friends, she being a valued member of the church and choir. The happy couple will take up their residence in St. John: The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and valuable presents. The following is a list: Bride's father and brother, Silas, fancy clock; bride's mother, pair pillows: Properties Pass to Control of oads of beef cattle to Halifax and EXPLOSION The regular sitting of the equity court n since spring. houses, etc. James F. Robertson, Who was held Tuesday, Judge Barker pre-I. C. R. will run an excursion to siding. The new clerk in equity, Thomas As it is not effected by the on the 18th inst., tickets good to up to the 21st. The rate is $4. Hopes to Operate. P. Regan, was sworn in and entered on wind or strong drafts it burns as his duties. In the estate of Evelyn L. Estey Amor 5. John J. McManus, of No. 27 Johns well outdoors as indoors street, is a sister to the man, John ', who was killed Wednesday in a Women Caught in a Death A. Wilson presented a petition for the appointment of a committee to look after We have a full stock of Lanterns o PRICE WAS $145,000. one explosion at Bangor. Trap and Two Could list: Bride's father and brother, Silas, fancy clock; bride's mother, pair pillows; Ray' Gregg, dinner castor; Charlie Gregg, silver fruit spoons; Mr. and Mrs. Ver-non Patterson, silver fruit receiver; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKoggin, silver fruit re-ceiver; Rev. J. S. Gregg and Mrs. Case, silver cake basket; Mr. and Mrs. J. Schofield, parlor lamp; Rev. M. L. Gregg and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gregg, center table; Mrs. W. Fenwick, towels; Miss Lida Schofield, fancy picture frame; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Norther, fruit dish; Mrs. John Spicer, Bible; Mr. and Mrs. J. Gregg, berry set; Mr. and Mrs. J. Gregg, barry set; Mr. and Mrs. George Ganong, fancy berry set; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McFarlin, gold edged berry set; E. W. Brown, silver napkin ring; Miss Sadie the estate, Mrs. Estey being of unsound all kinds. Send for prices. iver Hurd, who used to be charged mind, and confined in a hospital in Mon sionally with passing counterfeits in berland and Colchester counties, N. S., Not Escape. In the case of James Brown, a suppose o 20 years ago, was again arrested on same charge at Londonderry, on Mon-- ST. JOHN, N. B. A. H. Hanington Associated With T. MCAVITY & SONS. unatic, A. I. Trueman, K. C., moved for the confirmation of the report of the re-feree in equity, recommending that James Robertson and Margaret' Adams be ap-pointed a committee to look after the estate. An order was made concurrent with the report. The estate consists of $3,000 real and $26,250 personal property. In the case of Sarah B. Smith vs. Mary B. Gould et al, A: P. Bathhill, on behalf of the plaintiff, moved to have the bill taken pro confesso for want of appear-ance against all the defendants except Ephriam Gould, and against him for want of plea, answer or demuner. The motion was granted, and a decree was made for foreolosure and sale. Mr. Robertson--The Latter Tells the confirmation of the report of We Have a Large Stock of Shooting Supplies: MAN THE THIRD VICTIM. wing to an unfortunate mistake Ald. lidge and Armstrong and Hon. R. J. chie and James F. Robertson, ap-nted the citizens' representatives at depot on the arrival, were not pres-t at the reception at the depot. His Plans--Intends to Organize a Pocket Flasks. Air Rifles. Winchester and Dominion Cart-English and American Single and Double Barrel Breech and Muzzle Company--Taxes and Water Rates ridges Loading Guns. Affect the Matter. X. L. and Automatic Revolvers. His Life Forfeited in Effort to Save Winchester and Marlin Rifles. Davenport Guns and Rifles. Gun Implements. Decoyses Woman -- Gasolene Caused the the annual exhibition of the Cambridge, Game Bags. Cartridge Belts. Dog Collars. Game Traps, etc. We like to show goods. Hazard's Black and Smokeless eens county, agricultural society, was d at Lower Jemseg Tuesday. There s a large exhibit of cattle and the Disaster -- Terrible Scene Pre-The Parks cotton mills were sold by auction at Chubb's corner Tuesday. They were bid in by A. H. Hanington for $145,000. The sale was by an order issued Powders. W. Brown, silver napkin ring; Miss Sadie Kierstead,silver pickel dish; Mr. and Mrs. Eley's Cartridge Cases, Caps, sented as the Flames Cut Off w of Ayrshires was extra good. The st crops were excellent and there was Wads, etc. A meeting of the creditors of Merritt A meeting of the creditors of Merritt A meeting of the creditors of Merritt P. R. Gregg, parlor lamp; Older Scho-field, one-half dozen silver teaspoons; Miss was granted, and a decree was made for foreolosure and sale. In the case of Calder vs. W. H. Murray and William Wilson, an order was made for the foreclosure and for the sale of the mortgaged premises and leave was given to bid. A. J. Gregory appeared for the plaintiff out of the equity court. James F. Rob-ertson, of Manchester, Robertson & Alli-Retreat. 331 Main Street, N. E., St. John, N. B. A. M. ROWAN, son, is the purchaser and Mr. Hanington is associated with him. The first bid was $100,000, made by Mr. The first old was $100,000, made by Mr. Mitchell, who represented Ontario capi-talists. C. N. Skinner bid with another $1,000; after a second bid of $1,000, Mr. Skinner raised the bidding to $130,000. Then A. George Blair and A. H. Haz-ington bid and the offers rose by $1,000 each. A hull followed and a couple of Bangor, Me., Oct. 16 .- At 3.40 o'clock this afternoon a terrific explosion of gaso plaintiff. In the matter of William B. Lech and Eliza C. Lech, Scott E. Morrell moved to have Eleanor Lech appointed guardian of the two infants, and also for the sale of lands in which they have an interest. plaintiff. Vm. Pugsley Tuesday afternoon. After he report of the committee appointed at me other equally powerful exreceiver losive occurred on the second floor of he previous meeting was received, the neeting decided to sell the total assets of VISITING CLANSMEN. the building at 16 Harlow street, in the Strachan's Gilt Edge Soap won't ington bid and the offers rose by $1,000 each. A hull followed and a couple of $500 bids were made. Mr. Mitchell drop-ped out and the other three men held on until the figures were up to $143,000. Then it narrowed down between Mr. Skinner and Mr. Hanington. The latter bid $145,-000 and the properties were declared sold. It was the impression that Mr. Han apartments of Miss Nellie Haney. The neeting decided to sell the total assets of the firm to a trustee for $25,000 and, after paying the taxes and other expenses, to divide the balance, estimated at $20,000, among the creditors, which would be equal to about 10 cents on the dollar. Arthur I. Trueman was appointed trustee and A. P. Barnhill and J. Willard Smith an advice committee The motion was granted. In the case of Cassidy vs. McCullough, W. Watson Allan moved for the con-firmation of the report of the refree in explosion completely wrecked the first wash away as readily as other soaps, and second floors and caused a fire in Took Part in Interesting Events which Miss Haney and Mrs. Mary F. and does the work more thoroughly. Thursday. firmation of the report of the refree in equity on the sale of the lands in ques-tion. The motion was granted. In the case of Alonzo Wilson vs. Albert J. Wilson et al, the bill was taken pro-confesso against Albert J. Wilson and Roy Wilson, and leave was given to prove the case against the other defendants. Amon A. Wilson appeared for the plain-tiff Carrigan were burned to death, and John with less labor. Barry was frightfully burned, and died The visiting clansmen from Massachusett It was the impression that Mr. Hanat 9.45 tonight in the hospital. an advisory committee. ad a busy time Thursday. In the morning Use Strachan's Gilt Edge Soap and ngton represented the cotton combine Tuesday morning Detective John Ring, after over 26 years of service on the police force in this city, handed in his resignation to Chief (Clark, having accept ed a position on the I. C. R. Detective Ring has been a most vigilant officer. In handing in his resignation, he had a long interview with the chief, and at roll call Chief Clark addressed the men regarding the departure of Detective Ring. He said he was pleased that the detective was bettering his position. His departure from the force would be regretted. His The explosion so wrecked the walls of her apartments that Miss Haney was unyou'll have the best Soap. able to force her way out and expired before the firemen could reach her. The Save the wrappers and you can get force of the explosion threw a heavy In the afternoon in the case of Frank bureau from one room into, and half way

M. Humphrey vs. Thomas Robinson, Stuart Fairweather moved for the confirmation of the report of the referee in equity and also for the payment of money out of court. The motion was granted and an order was made for the payment of the balance of the money in court to first floor of the building, as assistant cook, and worked in the kitchen which apartment. At the time of the expl across, another. Mrs. Carrigan was employed in the res-taurant of Nathaniel Ladd, located on the was located at the rear of Miss Haney's Denence should make him an ide officer for the position which he was going to fill, and he wished that the officers on the force would aid and work in unison with the detective.

Charlotte County Wedding.

St. James, Charlotte Co., Oct. 9 .- Sel dom has there been seen here a prettier wedding and witnessed by as many people as that which occurred at the Pre ian church, St. James, Charlotte Co., on September 25, when Miss Lucy A. Mac-

September 20, when Miss Licy A. Mac-kenzie was united in marriage to Mr. B. A. Marter, of St. John. At 3 p. m. the groom took his place at the altar under festoons of autumn leaves and cedars artistically, blended by the lady and gentlemen members of the church

Almost immediately following the groom the bride entered the church with her brother and took her place beside the groom, unattended.

The bride presented a charming picture, gowned in an elegant costume of white Lansdowne silk entrain, richly ornamented with pearl trimmings and carrying a magnificent bouquet of white roses and maidenhair fern. Her appearance was creatly enhanced by a veil that was fasened in place by a beautiful pin of nique design set with pearls and dia-

At the gift of the groom. At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party, left the church to the strains of the wedding march beautifully rendered by Mrs. J. B. Sutherland, of Milltown, N. B. The bridal party then assembled at the ton, are in the city. F. Murchie, of St. Stephen, home of the bride, where luncheon was served by five lady friends of the bride to over 70 guests. The hour or two spent was pleasantly interspersed by vocal and instrumental music.

The bride's presents were nume valuable, among them being a beautiful piece of silver from the Methodist church, where she was the popular organist for

The happy couple left for their future home in British Columbia on Tuesday, October 1.

Wedding at Mountain Dale.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Gregg, of Mountain Dale. Kings Co., was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday, 2nd inst., when their eldest daughter, Mabel B., and John A. Chown, the city. of the same place, were married by the bride's cousin, Rev. J. S. Gregg, of Andover. Victoria Co., assisted by Rev. C. W. Hamilton, of Berwick, K. Co., and Rev. M. L. Gregg, of Bath, Carleton Co., also a cousin of the bride. The bride was also a consin of the bride. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Gregg, while the groom was supported by Eldon workeld, of Fairville, St. John. The bride was becomingly attired in white organdie trimmed with lace. She carried a hand-trimmed with lace and white carna-trimmed with lace. She carried a hand-trimmed with lace she carned a band-trimmed with lace. She carried a hand-trimmed with lace she carned a band-trimmed with lace. She carried a band-trimmed with lace she carned a band-trimmed with lace she carned a band-trimmed with lace. She carried a band-trimmed with lace she carned by the carned by the she car

Manufacturer. some bouquet of pink and white carna-tions, ferns and smilax. The bridesmaid was tastefully gowned in white lawn trimmed with ribbon and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's travel-es the which is fre buildings and machinery, comprising the two mills-Wall street and Courtenay Mr. Robertson added that A. ... Han from the force would be regretted. His Nicol, of Clan MacKenzie No. 2, Boston, is for home or foreign trade. The purchase

H. A. Powell, of Sackville,

David Keswick, of Bucton

. C. R., is in the city

stock, are in the city

J. E. Ganong, of St. Stephen, is i

are in the city

in the city

city

Highlander in Massachusetts. A delegation of the voterans and visiting clansman visited the Chipman House in the morning and examined the apartments which were occupied by the present King when here. Among the party was Sergt. D. J. Janey, of the Victoria Rifles, who was one of the guards to the Prince of Wales in Halifax. Private Janey is a colored man and a most enthusiastic Britisher. Capt. A. F. Baker, Capt. Coxewain, of the Royal Alifred Clan Kennedy Alexander Wilson and several others wore also there. The party are all loud in their praise of the St. John decorations, which they all declare surpasses ianything they ever saw in Boston. ington was associated with him in the enterprise. He felt that it was an undertaking which, because of its close aliance with the interests of the city, appealed strongly for general support and, as in-timated, the matter of action by the city council in the question of taxes and water rates, would have effect to help or retard the starting of the mills. He had taken no steps as yet, he said, towards organi-zation of a company but looked to prac-PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE. George W. Robertson, of Richibucto, i tical interest among the business m the project. Judge Wells, of Moneton, is in th

ST. JOHN PRESBYTERY. Mr. and Mrs. George V. McInerney, o Richibucto, are in the city. N. W. Brown, wife and child, of South ampton, N. B., are in the city taking in the royal reception; after which they will go to Mrs. Brown's old home in Atbert Allocations of Sum for Augmentation

Fund Asked by Synod. boundy to enjoy a month's visiting. Miss Dick, of St. George, is visiting the city. Mr. and Mrs. John Farley, Bristol, are guests at the Ottawa Hotel. Mr. Farley is attending a meeting of the high stand-ing committee of the I. O. F. At the meeting of the St. John Presbyter Tuesday, the clerk, Rev. A. H. Foster, read the correspondence with the provincial sec retary regarding the refusal to J. J. McCas ng committee of the I. O. F. Mrs Black, of Baie Verte, intends kill of a license to solemnize marriages. The spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Wilson, of St. John. Justice and Mrs. Gregory, of Fredericapplication was refused on the ground that he did not reside in the province. It was decided it was not worth while to press the matter. A letter was read from Rev. C. D. MoIn-osh, giving as his reason for not accepting the call to Grand Bay the illness of his lather and brother. It was moved the con-gregation be notified that Mr. McIntosh has regation be notified that Mr. Melnicosh has declined the call. Revs. F. W. Murray, A. S. Morton and Judge Stevens were chosen to visit War-wick in the interest of the Twentieth Century Fund; that Mr. White, Rev. Frank Baird and Mr. J. F. Polly go to Hampton; and that Rev. Dr. Fraser, Dr. Morison and Mr. John Willett be a committee to visit Pisar-ince. Senator and Mrs. Gillmor, of St. George Sheriff McQueen and Mrs. McQueen are E. Tiffin, general traffic manager of the John whitet be a committee was submitted inco. The home mission report was submitted by Rev. James Ross, and received. The fol-lowing recommendations were made: 1. That Rev. A. M. Hill be appointed as ordained missionary to Fairville, and that his designation take place on Thursday, Oc-tober 31, at 7.30 in the evening, Rev. J. Bur-gess to preside, Rev. A. H. Foster to preach, and Rev. Dr. Morison to address the peo-nle. W. Ebbett, of Gagetown, is in the Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Carvill, of Wood ple. 2. Rev. M. S. McKay be appointed to Springfield and English Settlement, appoint-ment to date from Oct. 27th. 3. That the Home Mission Board be rec-ommended to pay Rev. J. C. Robertson for the month of May at the usual rate. 4. That the application of Thomas H. Mur-ray, student, be referred to the superintend-ent. Rev. T. W. Street, of Bathurst, is Loyalty vs. Commercialism in Canada. A correspondent of the Toronto World, writing about the new issue of postage stamps which our change of monarchs has

ent. Rev. D. J. Fraser, convenor of the aug mentation committee, submitted a reporter recommendation that the following alloca tions be made to raise the $1,575 asked from the presbytery by the synod of the mari time provinces: rendered necessary, makes a suggestion which is a good one, that scenes typifyin the industrial resources of Canada take the place of the monarch's head, as here-St. David's, St. John

ide and Alma

In the case of Charles Fawcett vs. Francis J. McPeake, an order was made for the foreclosure and sale of the mortgaged premises, and leave was given to bid. Stuart Fairweather appeared for the mises, and leave was given to plaintiff. plaintiff. In the case of John T. Sutherland vs. Walter Sutherland et al, an application was made to take the hill pro confesso against. Walter Sutherland for want of an answer. The application was dismissed on payment of $10 costs by the defend-out and lasts was given to the defendant 1 on payment of $10 costs by the defendant, and, and leave was given to the defendant to put in an answer within ten days. Mr. Chandler, K. C., appeared for the plain-tiff and A. I. Trueman, K. C., for the defendant, Walter Sutherland. In this case also, or the motion of Mr. Chandler, the bill was taken pro confesso against all the other defendants. In the case of the executors of Alex-ander Moffatt vs. Elizabeth T. Johnson et al, A. I. Trueman, K. C., moved to have the bill taken pro confesso against Robert Sumner, one of the defendants, for non appearance. The motion was granted and this case was set down for Friday, Oct. 25. In the case of the Service Railway Tide-

Friday, Oct. 25. In the case of the Service Railway Tide-way Company of Canada, Ltd., vs. Frank E. Kame, the bill was taken pro con-fesso by consent, and an order made for accounts to be taken between the parties. The order of reference was made as was prayed for in the bill. Dr. A. A. Stockton, K. C., and Mr. Harris appeared for the plaintiff company, and A. Geo. Blair, jr., for the defendant.

In the Probate Court.

The will of Robert Fair was admitted to probate Wednesday and letters testa-mentary were granted to the executors named in the will, George F. Fair and Jame Maud Fair. The state consists of $5,400 real and $4,700 personal property, and is about equally divided among the children of the deceased; Barnhill & Sanford proctors. Letters of guardianship of the person and estate of John Adams and Herber L. Adams, infant children of Margare Adams, deceased, and legatees to the ex-tent of $1,000 under the last will and testament of Marmaduke Knowles, were granted to Thomas Knowles; Geo. H. V

Belyea, proctor.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The St. John and Yarmouth Trade. To the Editor of The Telegraph:

Sir,-Your recent editorial contrasting the steamship business done by the Do ninion Atlantic Railway Co. between Boston and Yarmouth with what has been done and what might be done by them was much appreciated by the business men of St. John. We are not unmindful of the fact intimated in the last sentence of the fact intimated in the last sentence of your article that this company, by neglect-ing the opportunity for business between St. John and Yarmouth and more distant Nova Scotia ports, a line which was ca-tered to with satisfaction by the company which was this year absorbed by the D. A. R., is discriminating against St. John and in favor of Halifax. It is useless to say that the steamer connection between Royal Visit to Newfoundland Shortened. St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 16.—The Duke of Cornwall and York, by a telegram from Canada, makes large alterations in the programme for his reception in St. John's and in favor of Halitax. It is useless to say that the steamer connection between St. John and Digby covers the ground, for the long haul by rail from Digby to Yar-mouth, trans-shipment to rail at Digby and trans-shipment additionally at Yar-mouth to steamer of goods going beyond that point, must make the cost out of all monttime to that of direct water transnext week, virtually compressing the whole affair into a few hours. The state banquet will be given in the evening and the Ophir will sail for England Friday morning.

proportion to that of direct water trans-portation, to say nothing of the extra danger to fragile freight in so much ad-ditional handling by the trans-shipment. There is a fine opportunity for the es-tablishment of business from St. John in tablishment of business from St. John in this direction and if the D. A. R. much longer neglect it they may rest assured that New Brunswick enterprise and capita is competent to supply this desirable steamship route with a satisfactory ser ice. Our merchants in general only need to be awakened to the quantity of busi-ness they are losing through neglect of this route to speedily club together and May Eng steamer for it.

DRUMMER. St. John, Oct. 15.

John Barry, the cook, Mrs. Emma Sprague, another assistant, and the cook's wife and Mrs. John Cannon, of Bangor. When the shock came, Mrs. Carrigan made a dash for the attic, thinking to out on the model and the the shock the A Splendid Combination ! made a dash for the attic, thinking to get on the roof, the others started for the stairs leading to the street, but Mr. Barry rushed after his assistant to bring her back, knowing that it was impossible to reach the roof from the attic. He was unable to reach her and the blaze cut him off from again descending to the second floor, and he was finally forced to jump from a third floor window. When the other three women reached THE MARITIME HOMESTEAD

When the other taree women reaches the stairway they found it blocked by for one year free to all subscribers remitting ONE the starway they found it blocked by a fallen partition, thus preventing then reaching the street by that way, whih the flames behind them formed a barrie, that had them in a veritable trap. William McAllister, a waiter, was struck on the head by a piece of the stee ceiling that fell when the explosion came receiving a severe out but he least com DOLLAR for a year's subscription in advance to the SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH. This applies ceiling that fell when the explosion came receiving a severe cut, but he kept con trol of his faculties and rushed to the res cue of the women upstairs. He suc ceeded in clearing the wreckage so that they could escape but, though he could hear the cries of Miss Haney, was unable to reach her.

to reach her. The building was owned by the Still-well estate and is damaged about $1,500. There is an insurance of $2,000. The dam-age to Ladd's restaurant is about $1,500, insured for $500. Elgin Greenleaf, who has a soloon in the building, has an in-warence of $200 and a loss of about $900. has a saloon in the building, has at in surance of $300 and a loss of about $800. The fire also got into the store room of the Bangor Bicycle Company and did about $800 damage, fully instruct.

Albert Vail, Brother of the Oarsman, Dies in His Boat.

The sudden death of Albert Vail, of Gage town, will be learned with the deepest gret by a very large number of friends a the circumstances of the death are sad. Mr. Vail has for years acted as ferrym art, van has for years acced as ferry at Gagetown, taking passengers and m to and from the Star hae steamers, and, ing a man of the kindest disposition, was beloved by all who knew him and t were many. Thursday, Mr.Vail's sister, with whom pecided was in this site attention the Thursday, Mr.Vail's sister, with whom resided, was in this city attending the c obration in honor of the arrival of the ro party and was visiting a sister here. Vail was on his way to meet the steen David Weston and had a passenger in boat, which he was rowing. Suddenly dropped his oars and fell over off the s The passenger, whose name could not learned last night, did all he could for ferryman, but without avail, for he was yond all earthly aid before the boat co be brought to the shore. The body taken to his home and word sent to t city to his sisters who were grief-stric on receiving the sad news. Word was a telegraphed to deceased's brother, Ha Vail, the oarsman, who is coach for Harv College at Cambridge, Mass. Deceased a man of sterling habits and a stau church member. He was about 45 years age and his sudden death has caused gloom over Gagetown.

the best premiums.

Readers of THE MARITIME HOMESTEAD get all the benefits of

An Agricultural Experience Meeting

TWICE EACH MONTH.

This is the new Maritime Farm and Home paper, published twice each month, at St. John and Halifax, and full of information upon all maritime farm topics. It is contributed to by leading farmers from all parts of the three provinces, and is under the editorial supervision of W. W. Hubbard. Prof. F. C. Sears, director of the Nova Scotia School of Horticulture, edits the Horticulturist department by special arrangement.

All subscribers to THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH will get THE MARITIME HOMESTEAD for one year free.

Wedded at the Royal.

Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock a wedling was quietly solemnized at the Royal cotia but is established comfortably

Wedding at the West End.

Wedding at the West Lnd. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colwell, of West End, was the scene of a very inter-esting event on Wednesday evening, when their daughter. Bessie Louise, was united in marriage to Harry Alward Palmer. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. B. N. Nobles in the presence of friends and relatives. The bride was attended by her sister Pearl, and C. O. Anthony was groomsman. Many beau-tiful presents attested the esteem in which the bride is held. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will reside in Carleton.

Hens Came With the Hay.

Wednesday night, at Sand Point, when the truckers opened a car containing hay which arrived from Quebec, they were surprised to find in a vacant space 18, hens, 12 of which were alive. There was a lively scram-ble for a time among the truckers to cap-ture the birds.

Matthew's, St. John and Bay rand Falls It was decided to make the alloca and the second states of the second second

Wedded at Petersville.

At Petersville, Queens county, We vening, Rev. J. McDermott united i iage Mr. John Keating, of Westfi evening, Rev. J. McDermott united in mar-riage Mr. John Keating, of Westfield, to Miss Annie McGovern, of the same place. The bride was attended by Miss Maggie Tra-vis, of Westfield, and Mr. David McGovern

Men's Suits and Overcoats.

We have been tremendously busy all week selling · Clothing to men who want style, merit and good fit at minimum price. Extravagance of prices is unknown here. We can sell you a Suit or Overcoat as good as any merchant tailor can make you, but we don't charge his price. It isn't necessary.

MEN'S OVERCOATS, $4.00, 4.75, 5 25 6.00, 8.00, 10.00, 12.50, 14.50 and 15.00, MEN'S SUITS, $3.00, 4.75. 5.00, 6.00, 6.50, 7.50, 8 75, 9.00, 10.00, 11.00, 12.00 to 14.00.

Thousands of loyal hearts that fear; Thousands of loyal hearts that fear; Thousands of ready hands for sword or spear Should foes assail. -N. Y. CROSS. Truth must prevail;— nds of loyal hearts beat for nds of loyal hearts that Hotel. The bride was Mise Henrietta Calhoun, nicce of Capt. H. A. Calhoun, of Albert Mines, Albert county, and the groom Mr. Frank C. Bogart, of Savannah, Ga. The ceremony was performed by Kev. L. G. Macneill. Mr. and Mrs. Bogart left by train for New York, whence they will will in the steamer Lucania for a trin to sail in the steamer Lucania for a trip to Europe. The groom is a native of Nova the lumber business in Savannah.

Among the charters at New York on Tues-day was the schooner Anna, 465 tons, Hills-boro to Newark, plaster, $1.75.

