

The Evening Tri-une.

VOL. III.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 22, 1874

No 128

MAPLE HILL.

TOO LATE.
With burning brow on fevered head,
Saw falling with the falling day,
I sat before the dying star,
While morning's light and land-wind say:
"Thy wife would die by land and sea,
With the great heart that died for thee."
The sighs of his wasted breast,
Were breathed to cold, unhearing night—
Alone, forsaken, and ungod,
And now the land-wind bears me cry:
To die above of seaward sky.
