

Cross-Country

September 26, Toronto
 •In a crosstown meet with U of T at Sunnybrook, the Yeowomen placed sixth out of nine teams. Top performer for the Yeowomen in the 5000m event was Clare Haregreace who placed sixth.
September 26, Toronto Open
 •The Yeomen finished seventh out of 10 teams at the weekend meet. Albert Dell'Apa had the highest Yeomen placing of sixth in the 10,000m event.

Tennis

September 26, Toronto
 •The Yeowomen defeated the Toronto team and the McMaster team nine matches to zero. It was an excellent team effort by all players as they only lost two sets. New players Judy

McCormack, Jane Kravchenko and Laurin Ziv have added strength to returning players Christine Smith,

Kathy Evans and Natasha Lissos. These six were responsible for the successful weekend.

Volleyball

September 25-26 at Syracuse Invitational
 •The Yeowomen finished in second place at the weekend tournament. They defeated Memphis State 3-2 (16-14, 12-15, 15-12, 13-15, 16-14) and Syracuse University 3-1 (15-5, 15-3, 13-15, 15-11). Their only defeat was to first place finisher Bowling Green University 0-3 (9-15, 13-15, 13-15).

Football

Although the Yeomen are having problems winning games, one Yeoman is on his way to having an all-star season.
 York's wideout P.J. Edgeworth, who caught a 31 yard touchdown pass, had seven catches for 111 yards.
 In the past two games Edgeworth has 13 receptions and 185 yards.

Soccer

In spite of a couple of good scoring opportunities, the Yeomen were defeated in Ontario University Athletic Association action 2-0. The soccer team plays Carleton at York on Saturday. Game time is at 3pm.
