

Bestline team a generous one

Christmas came six months early, but it wasn't the season to be jolly Sunday for members of the Bestline Pools Mississauga Sportsmen's Softball League team.

Bestline blew a 1-0 seventh inning lead and a 2-1 extra inning lead to bow 3-2 to Huron Park Chrysler in nine innings.

Don McGilvary drove in the tying run and winning pitcher. Bob McKenzie scored the winning run on Fred Kotani's ninth inning single for Huron Park. Ken Hagan took the loss for Bestline.

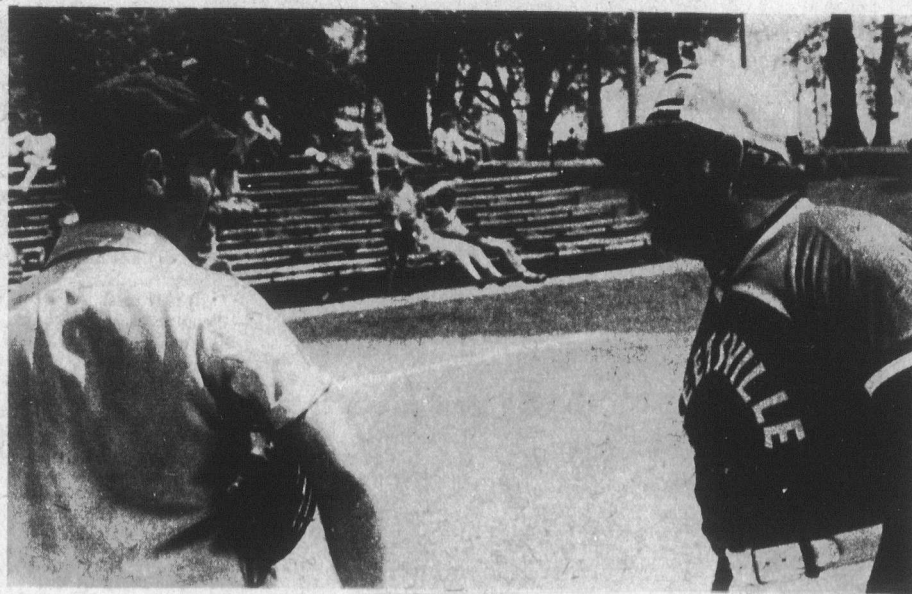

Bestline had a 1-0 lead with the bases empty and two out in the seventh. But Frank Bonomo reached base and advanced to second on a throwing error. Tom Adams then delivered a clutch single to produce a tie and force extra innings.

In another game, Dale McQueen headed a no-hitter to lead A and A Radiator to a 6-0 win over Richview Garden Service.

Streetsville Businessmen manager Stan Kalapaca gives last week's Labatt's fastball tournament at Kew Park. Streetsville lost the game 1-0 to Oshawa.

Kalapaca continues war with Beaches' umpires

By TOM MALONEY
Times Staff Writer
Streetsville Businessmen manager Stan Kalapaca gets along with umpires as well as a cat battling a dog for a bowl of food. He scratches and claws, but in the end he loses.

Kalapaca howled in protest over a call made by home plate umpire Richard Griggs that gave Oshawa Chubb Security a 1-0 victory over Businessmen in the Labatt's Invitational Beaches Major Fastball Tournament on Saturday at Kew Park.

Streetsville beat John Oliver 2-1 in the first round of consolation, but bowed out Sunday morning with a 2-0 loss to Village.

In Oshawa's sixth inning, Brian Meyers hit into a fielder's choice for the second out, and advanced to third when Bob Baird singled off Streetsville hurler Mike Leslie.

Meyers came racing home when Oshawa batter Dave Stewart swung and missed at a pitch that went to the backstop.

Kalapaca claimed repeatedly that the ball had been tipped, as two Oshawa players admitted after the game. However, Griggs stated after the game that the "catcher stood up and I couldn't see anything. I can't call it a foul tip if I didn't see it." Base umpire Herb Cope said that he did not see a foul tip on the play.

Kalapaca was livid. "The umpires have been doing this to us all year. You make sure you put that in your paper."

Leslie had a perfect game ruined with one out in the fifth inning when opposing pitcher Bob Domik singled. Baird's hit was the only other for Oshawa, which stands third in regular season play in the Beaches circuit.

Ralph McFeeters, Andy Trencs and Charlie Miller had the lone hits off Domik, who fanned seven. Dave McDowell led two Businessmen with two doubles and a single in the 2-1 win over John Oliver. McFeeters had two singles as did Al Strachan, who Streetsville borrowed from the Mississauga

Sportsmen's League for the tournament. Miller and winning pitcher Rod Stuart also had a single. McFeeters with two singles, Strachan and Trencs comprised the four hits in the loss to Village. Leslie, suffering hard luck of late, took the loss. Friday's regular season game against Beaches A.C. Karass was postponed until Tuesday, July 25 at Streetsville. Businessmen host Richmond Hill Dynes Jewellers Friday at 8 p.m. and Newmarket Tuesday

Cameron buries leaders

Doug Cameron ensured that the first place battle in the Malton Fastball League between Ronnie's Mens Wear - Vern Pedersen Auto Collision and the Merchants did not go too well for the former. Cameron belted a solo homerun and drove in two runs with a single to lead Merchants and pitcher Brian Gardiner to a 5-2 win last week.

OTHER GAMES
Shea's Texaco 12 (Bruce Yorke, winning pitcher; Randy Pagana, 3-run HR; Dennis Bruce, triple, 2 singles, 3 RBI) Airline Limousine 3 (Kari Sihvonen, pitcher; Casey Jasiunes, 2 singles, 3 RBI)

Thorn Lighting 8 (Rick Douglas, winning pitcher; Bob Hall, double, 2 RBI) Ultramar - Hydro Line 4 (Rob Fortino, pitcher; Ernie Armstrong, 2 singles, sacrifice, 4 RBI)

Merchants 7 (Pat Antonucci, 1-hitter, 9 strikeouts; Doug Cameron, HR, single, 3 RBI) Thorn Lighting 0 (Vic Kelly, pitcher; George McQuay, double)

Airline Limousine 11 (Kari Sihvonen, winning pitcher, triple, double, single, 2 RBI; Norm Losau, 2 singles, 2 triples, 3 RBI; Morris McNally, 2-run single) Ultramar - Hydro Line 4 (George Edwards, pitcher; Bob Luhtala, 2-run single)

Malton players pick the winner

When the Malton Fastball Tournament wound down to the final game last weekend, a vital decision had to be made by five players. Which team should they play for?

The players play for both KCR of the Brampton Softball League, and Ronnie's Mens Wear - Vern Pedersen Auto Collision of the Malton Fastball League, finalists at the tournament. Displaying the logic of Solomon, the teams split the players evenly—at least as best they could give the odd number.

Greg Edwards dazzled Ronnie's hitters as KCR took an easy 8-1 victory. Ronnie's was forced to play with injured regulars Gary Timmons and Dave Manson.

Rick Demayer continued his hot hitting in the final for KCR with five hits in five trips to the plate. In the semi-final he blasted two triples off the centre field fence and casually stroked a triple and single off CCM's Terry Ward, a pitcher who demoralized opposition in the Sportsmen's league tournament two weeks ago.

Jim Armstrong took the loss in the final. The Merchants bowed 5-0 to KCR in the semi-final after defeating Canadian Memorial Chiropractors College and pitcher Steve Chapman 6-4 in the first round.

CMCC won the consolation championship. Ultramar - Hydro Line of the Malton League had a rough time, losing 8-1 to Moose Lodge and 11-1 to OMCC.

Clarkson blanked

Coach Geoff Whitehead hopes to move a striker through the Clarkson soccer club's ranks this weekend and thereby solve the offensive trouble the team has been experiencing in the junior division of the Intercities Soccer League.

Clarkson couldn't find the net in a 3-0 loss to Waterloo Saturday.

"We've got a good team from one goal mouth to the next," said Whitehead. "But we have trouble finishing."
