Drummer Robin Langdon and pianist Robert Ashley make up the duo and provide both good music and vocals. They will be joined on New Year's Eve by Rita Hall who is well known as a Pub singer and vocalist of all the old favourites.

The always popular trio, Critic's Choice, move back into the Horse and Groom Pub at the Heritage on Monday and will be moving into the La Terraza on New Year's Eve, to provide continuous entertainment in that lounge.

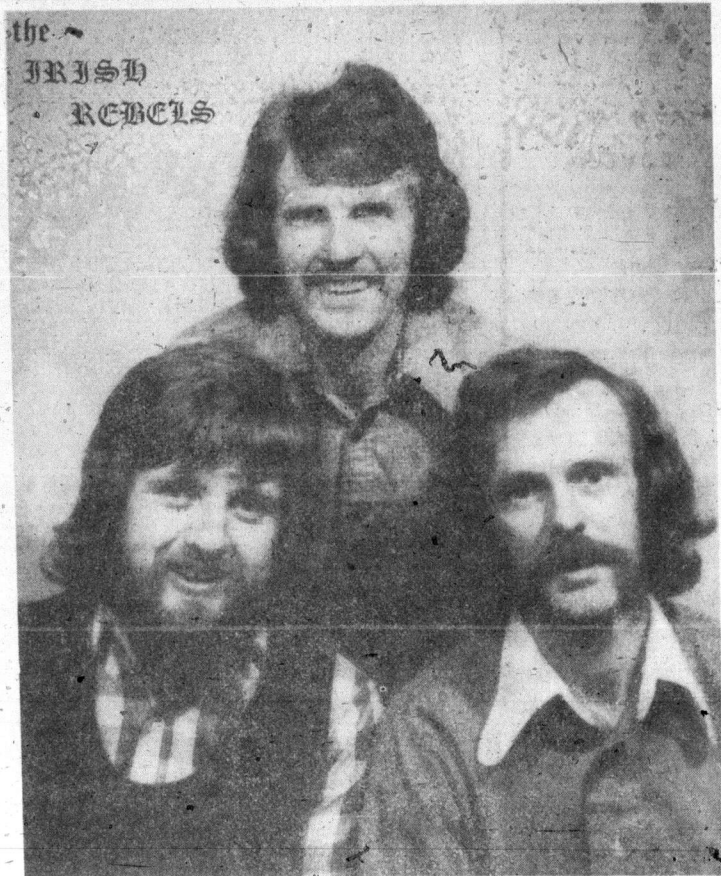

If you should be in the Heritage Inn, have a look in their recently renovated banquet-rooms. This has to be one of the nicest decorating jobs that I have ever seen. The rooms are so bright and cheerful, that it is a pleasure to be in them.

With all the festivities and celebrations taking place in the lounges these days, there are many foolish statements being made.

Some of these are "have one more for the road" and "I have to drive, I'm too drunk to walk" and "you can't fly on one wing, so have another" and "if you are drinking and driving, remember to take a car."

But there is ONLY ONE SENSIBLE STATEMENT, and that is "if you drink,

The Irish Rebels have moved into the Dial Tavern at Horner Avenue and Browns Line. This is the name of this trio of Irish musicians and singers that have made a fine name for themselves in the entertainment world since arriving in Canada. Harry, Kevin and Bennie will lead the patrons in song and laughter nightly from 9 pm til 1 am, including New Year's Eve.
