Edmonton, Alta.	25th Sept./44	(Cont'd)	Investigation. P/O J. Haerber (J29649)(W.A.G.)(G.L.) has been posted to No. 2 F.I.S., Pearce, Alta., P/O Haerber was on useful employment pending resumption of aircrew training and was employed as Signals Officer. The first part of Signals final examination was held for Course 110. No students failed.
	26 Sept./44	Tuesday	The final examination in Aircraft Recognition for Course 110 was held. One airman failed. Today saw the inauguration of the scheme whereby Headquarters personnel will be released for a half day a week. The zest with which various personnel cleaned up their duties in the morning gives every indication that the plan will be a complete success.
	27 Sept./44	Wednesday	The final Signals examination for Course 110 was completed today, there being no failures. W/C J.G. Sparling (C4230)(Chaplain)(P) of the Command Chaplain reported on a routine visit. F/O C.A. Jenkins (C23680)(Arm. Exam.) reported on temporary duty on a routine visit. F/O D.G. Masson (CAN C7402) (Flying Control) reported on temporary duty from No. 13 S.F.T.S., North Battleford, for duty as a witness in a Court Martial to be convened on the 28th Sept./44. The Station Band played for a dance at the American Red Cross. The Commanding Officer's Parade was held as usual and due to the extremely cold weather the inspection was brief and a long brisk route march was enjoyed by all.
	28 Sept./44	Thursday	A District Court-Martial to try R274340 AC2 H.J. Sherewick, was convened at 1000 hours with two officers from this Unit acting in an official capacity as follows: F/L R.D. Henderson (C11673)(Admin.) as Prosecutor and F/L R.K. Purdy (C2769)(Admin.) as member. S/L A.A. Cattanach (C8471)(J.J.U.) and S/L H.A. Webster (CAN C2466)(Admin.) reported on temporary duty for duty in connection with the District Court-Martial. The final Navigation examination was held for Course 110. One airman failed. Commencing at 2100 hours a dance was held in the Normal School Gymnasium for trainees, sponsored by the No. 4 I.T.S. Women's Auxiliary. Several staff officers were guests.
	29 Sept./44	Friday	S/L F.C. Manning (C2664)(W&B) (GEN.) and F/O K.B. Freiklejohn (C7161) (Admin.) reported on temporary duty from No. 4 C.M.U. Committees are being organized to organize the closing dance for Friday, October 6th, for which the expenditure of $1,000.00 has been authorized by Command. The entertainment planned will consist of the cocktail hour, dinner and a dance.
