

Powers & function of for gen - his authority is set out in his commission and also in the 18th ce. act. We may lay down the rule that the exec. power is commensurate with the legis power. If pret has right to imprison a subj, corresponding exec. authority ^{for gen} is in question as to responsibility of Govt.
 Masgrave vs Peleido
 Queen vs. Eyre. (Phillips vs Eyre) ~~Mosby vs. Fabrigas~~
 Hill vs. Bigge
 Devine vs. Halloway.

In some of these cases question of martial law in colonies came up.
Martial law is law which governs men in army or navy. ~~The~~ ^{for the} Govt of people at large we have civil law. Martial law is no law at all. When other law cannot be enforced then martial law comes in. It is the will of the commander for the time being. eg, Duke of Wellington's act of defeat of Napoleon
