The Senate of Canada

Dear Mr. Carroll:

I have your letter of 21st.
Am exceedingly sorry but really I cannot accept
the kind invitation with which you honour me.
It is very seldom I speak, just because of pressure of time, my own business occupying my energies constantly.

Senator Graham was kind enough to convey and press upon me earnestly your invitation
this morning, but I had to say to him that it would be impossible.

Am sorry not to be able to send you
a more favourable reply.

Yours very truly,

Arthur Meighen.
