Ottawa, 19th April, 1911.

Sir,

I am sending to you two pairs of trousers, one with oval one piece, which have been manufactured by Messrs.
J. H. Garland, Son & Company under an order given them.
The standard sample is also sent you and I have to request that you will compare those submitted by Messrs. Garland & Company with the standard sample and report whether they are equal or not in every respect thereto as regards quality of material, finish etc.

You will be required to inspect the trousers when the order is completed, viz:- 595 pairs men's and 201 pairs of boys'.

Your obedient servant,

Sgd S. Stewart.
