

Amount limited.

shall be appropriated in such manner as may be deemed most advisable for the benefit of the indigent person: no sum, however, exceeding Two pounds shall be drawn from the funds for the benefit of any individual, or family, during one quarter; nor during the same period shall more than Ten pounds be expended in the whole;— nevertheless, the Society may at any regular Meeting vote a larger sum than the former to any indigent person, or family, on sufficient cause being shewn.

Surplus funds to be lodged in Savings' Bank.

XVII. If at any time there shall be more Money in the funds than the ordinary demands on the Society require, the Treasurer shall open an account with the Fredericton Savings' Bank, in the name of the Society, in which he shall, from time to time, deposit the surplus funds.

Duty of the Secretary.

XVIII. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify to the Members all Meetings of the Society, in such manner as shall be directed; faithfully to record all the proceedings and transactions of the Society, and file and carefully preserve all documents belonging to his department: he shall keep an exact account of all arrears for Quarterly dues and fines, and furnish the Treasurer at each Quarterly Meeting with a statement thereof, and generally perform all the duties appertaining to the office of Secretary.
