

Steel Joists and Metal Railings

are now used almost exclusively, and we strongly recommend their use in place of perishable timber joists and wooden guards.

We have a catalogue illustrating Highway Bridges and giving a lot of useful information relating to same and including price list of various lengths and widths of spans. If you want one, send your address to us and we will be pleased to mail you one.

1917-1918