

TO THE FRESHMAN YEAR.

*C*hildren, we may say with truth
That you often show your youth,
And, perhaps, your worst offence
Is your lack of reverence.
By this work that we've provided
Let your future life be guided,
And you soon will know the features
Of your kind and thoughtful teachers.
Make a good impression NOW,
Never grudge a graceful bow,
And, your days of freshness o'er,
Each MAY be a sophomore.
