McMASTER HALL.

This is one of the most complete and commodious educational buildings in the country. Built of brown stone, with red brick facings, it is both unique and beautiful in its architecture. The dimensions are 149 feet by 54, and there are four stories above the basement. An extension in the rear contains the servants' apartments, together with the kitchen and the heating apparatus. In the basement are the dining-rooms and a thoroughly furnished gymnasium ; while on the first floor are the chapel, library, reading-room, parlor, and four lecture-rooms. Above, besides apartments for the resident professor, there are accommodations for 54 students. The whole building is heated by steam, and every room has independent ventilation at floor and ceiling. On each floor are bath rooms and other conveniences. No expense has been spared to secure a College building at once substantial and convenient. The Hall is
