under the auspices of the Ontario Live Stock Association. There were three Stock Association. There were three aged and four young Crydesdale stallions and one filly, shipped by such breeders as Sorby of Guelph, Charlton of Dunchief, Henderson of Becton, Forrest of Port Hope and Greig of Claremont, and were about evenly distributed between Manitoba and Six fine Shorthorn bulls and one cow Six hine Shorthorn bulls and one cow and bull calf were in the shipment. These came from the herds of Robert Miller, Tisdale of Concord, Charles Porter of Appleby, J. Gardhouse, and A. W. Smith. John Wallace of Cart-wright got a fine Hereford bull from W. H. Hunter and it is good news to Mamitoba that Wallace is going back to breeding whitefaces, as it was a matter of real regret when he sold out his fine herd some time ago and declared his intention of abandoning breeding.

The shipment also included a number of Yorkshire and Berkshire hogs and about 80 fowls. The stock came through in fine shape, and by the 10th of through in tine shape, and by the 19th of May had all reached its final destination in the West.

Farm) has recently purchased from Jno. Dryden & Son the fine young Shorthorn bull Bertie's Pride, as a stock bull. None but the best is Mr. Allim's motto. Mr. R. J. Mackie, Oshawa, Ont., has sold two time young Hereford bulls, Shamrock —6331—, to W. W. Crozier. Utica, Ont., and Belswardyne —6330— to Samuel Freeman, Salem Corners, Ont., receiving top prices for both. Mr. Mackie has about sold out and has had week enuries; this season thus for a week enuries; this season thus for a number of years.

Mr. F. A. Gardner, Britannia, Ont., is offering for sale in this issue a couple of Scotch Shorthorn bulls that are worth inquiring about.
