A Christmas number of the Canadian Churchman is usually attractive, and that of the present season is no exception. The inside covers are resplendent in two colors, and the many illustrations, especially that on page 815, very well brought out. Indeed its 40 quarto pages render it a desirable present to send to friends abroad or at home. The illuminated cover in three colors, a Christmas Carol scene, containing a recognizable likeness of a well known Toronto musician, does credit to the presses of the Monetary Times, at which establishment the Churchman is printed.

TO any one eager to secure a most strategical position, from an advertising standpoint, in the most widely read and leading financial and commercial paper in Canada, this space should appeal. Rates on request.

GUARANTEE BONDS

The securing of a Bond in a reputable Company often opens the way to a lucrative position and is itself a recommendation. THE RAILWAY PASSENGERS ASSURANCE COMPANY OF LONDON, ENGLAND, supplies this requirement.

Liability and Workman's Insurance

Employers should bear in mind that accidents to employees may occur, the outcome of which will not be reached until long after the expiration of the insurance term, hence in the selection of a Company too much stress cannot be laid upon the question of its financial strength, experience and lasting character. THE RAILWAY PASSENGERS ASSURANCE COMPANY meets these requirements. No higher degree of security can be furnished—experience of over half a century.
