

OBITUARY

MRS. MICHAEL ENRIGHT

The death occurred July 15th at London of a well-known and very highly respected Ingersoll resident in the person of Mrs. Michael Enright, widow of the late Michael Enright, in her eighty-seventh year. Deceased had been seriously ill but for about four days, although she had not been in good health for some time. The late Mrs. Enright was born at Newmarket and at the age of seven years moved with her family to Arthur, where she lived for six-fifty years. From Arthur she came to Ingersoll with her husband about fifteen years ago, since which time she had made a host of warm friends and acquaintances. She was a devoted member of the congregation of the Church of the Sacred Heart, and while her health permitted, she was most regular attendant at all its services. The following family survives: James and T. H. Enright, also Mrs. A. H. McDermott, Ingersoll; J. J., Waterloo, Iowa; L. A., Des Moines, Iowa; W. J. and Mary, Chicago; Sister Madelon of St. Joseph's Community, Hamilton; Mrs. Peter Hessler, Seattle, Wash.

The funeral was held from the residence of her son, James Enright, King street west, at 8:45 Saturday morning to the Church of the Sacred Heart, where service was conducted at 9 o'clock by Rev. Father Gnam, Interment at the Catholic cemetery.

NOTICE TO PRIESTS CONCERNING THE NOVENA OF MASSES FOR ISRAEL

This year again the Novena of Masses for the conversion of the Jews, will be celebrated in America by priests who are zealous and charitable enough to offer a Mass in this holy intention. Any priest who can dispose of a Mass on any of the days from September 29th, to October 7th, inclusive, will kindly communicate the date and the place where the Holy Sacrifice is to be offered, to the address given below. Last year many a Mass was said, and we gratefully acknowledged each letter that was so promptly sent us. We, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Sion, beg that God Himself will reward the zeal shown for His own chosen people, who stand in need of spiritual assistance.

NO LACK OF WELCOME

If, as the newspapers predict, entrance to England is to be denied him, Archbishop Mannix of Melbourne may find some consolation in remembering the generous hospitality which has been accorded him on this side of the Atlantic. He has been free to travel with his family in the United States, and nowhere was there a welcome lacking. New York gave him the freedom of the city, and paid him the honors that were given Cardinal Mercier, the King of Belgium, General Pershing and the Prince of Wales. "I doubt if I ever had a prouder moment," acknowledged His Grace, in accepting the proffered distinction. "By birth an Irishman, by adoption an Australian, I find the Chief Magistrate empowered by the Board of Aldermen to confer upon me the freedom of the greatest city in the world." Old employees of Madison Square Garden declare that never in the history of the famous building has anybody received such a reception as was given the Archbishop when he and President de Valera appeared there. The press has had little to say of the Australian prelate, save what British policy has dictated. The people of America seem to have been able to form their own opinion of him, however, and have shown what that is in the magnificent greeting that has met him everywhere.—Catholic Transcript.
