LUXURIANT HAIR.

Bosta's Hypericus Fluir.—One bottle of this truly valuable liquid is worth more than its weight in gold. There is no quackery in its composition; but healthy more effections ingredients, calculated to effect all that its not effections ingredients, calculated to effect all that its not effect and its places. Grey hair will retained to proceed the process. Badiness will at once depart, and a luzarinate growth of bair take its places. Grey hair will retain to the pristine brilliance—week hair becomes strongard crocome, and the shin take a proper and healthy settion by the other than the instrumble Hypericus. As an article for two uns of the instrumble Hypericus. As an article for two ing softness to the hair, and a brilliant gloon, it cannot by any compound be equalised.
