WOUNDED AT FRONT

Among the players with the Galt golfers who were in Brantford yesterday was Lieut. R. R. Brown, who in the sanguinary fight at Givenchy on June 15th in France, was shot right through the lungs. Lieut. Brown was invalided home, but has completely recovered, although he will always carry the mark of the bullet, which went clean through him, for life. Lieut. Brown was formerly accountant in the Brantford branch of the Imperial Bank, but was in Galt when he went to the front with the first contingent. He expects to leave this week to report at the war office in London for duty again. Incidentally the returned hero won his golf match yesterday by three points.

Frank Nagle didn't appear, so a warrant was issued for his arrest.

LEADERS' CORPS.

The Senior, Intermediate and Junior Leader's Corps met last evening for the first time this year in their clubrooms at the Y. M. Plans for the season were discussed and the policy of the corps was outlined by Physical Director Snow. The corps will be more active than ever this year, and will most probably give exhibitions in the basements of several city churches.

ACTIVITIES AT THE ARMORIES DURING EVENING

Subalterns' and Non-Coms' Classes Held Workout as Usual.

At the Armories last night two classes were under way for instruction, the subalterns and the non-commissioned officers classes. The subalterns, under Lt. J. R. Cornelius, were severely gruelled, and the non-coms. were most admirably handled. Both squads at the end of two hours were considerably in advance of their earlier ideas of squad and platoon drill.

A recruit class was on the floor and is there continuously for any patriotic youth caring to play his part at this time. The 38th Regiment for home defence can absorb quite a lot of youth and talent and not be over strength. It looks as though the battalion might reach strength this winter if recruits keep coming steadily in as they have been doing.

Capt. W. F. Newman took the subs. for platoon drill after 9 o'clock, and a vigorous work-out of the principles of battalion movements took place. Some non-commissioned officers were tested for their efficiency certificates by Capt. George Sager during the evening.

PRESENTATION MADE

Last evening a happy event took place at 18 Leonard street, the home of Mr. David L. Webster, the Assistant Superintendent of the City Waterworks Dept. when Mr. Webster was taken by surprise and presented with a wrist watch by the workmen who are in his employ on the construction work at the pumping station.

The event was spent in games and music. The gathering was called to order by Mr. Doyle and Mr. Robt. Paterson on behalf of the fellow workmen presented Mr. Webster with the gift as token of the esteem and goodwill which exists between Mr. Webster and the workmen.

The gathering dispersed at an early hour after refreshments being served by Mrs. Webster.

Music and Drama

BRANT THEATRE

Another good bill is being shown at the Brant. The Hendrix Belle Isle Company in "The Schoolmaster" is good and the set kept the audience continually amused. The Honolulu Duo in novelty singing and music, were also good. The feature of the programme, however, is the thrilling war drama, "The Ordeal," featuring Miss Anna Laughlin and Harry Springler. This masterpiece of five parts depicts how ruthlessly the Germans make war, and should be one of the best stimulants for recruiting ever shown or adopted here.

The coming attraction is "Threads of Destiny," presenting Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and Russell Thaw.

PROTEST FILED ON THE LOAN

New York, Sept. 24.—A protest against the proposed Anglo-French loan was sent to President Wilson: the treasurer of the State of New York; the State Banking Department; the Mayor, Comptroller and Chamberlain of New York City to-day by the American Truth Society. The protest was expressed by resolutions adopted last night at the first of a series of mass meetings held for the avowed purpose of blocking the loan.

The meeting was under the auspices of the American Truth Society. Alphonse G. Koellie, president of the German-American Alliance of New York, was one of the speakers. The resolutions characterize the proposed loan as "unsound, hazardous and imprudent, subversive to the interests of depositors and corruptive of the purpose of our federal banking laws."

Many Charming New Things in the Millinery Store

For the woman who looks best in plain tailored styles there are smart little high-crowned derbys of velvet with narrow brims. They have straight band trimmings and a tailored bow; with perhaps a large buckle of steel beads.

Here, too, are the new small velvet turbans, some of them shirred, chic little tricorns, and the softly becoming and youthful mushroom shapes, gathered into a band of fur and touched off with an exquisite beaded rose.

Also there are larger hats of velvet, for more dressy occasions, and these are very lovely.

Prices are conveniently arranged to start as far down as $4.50.

RETURNED SOLDIER

pect—Col. A. P. Birchall, of Gloucester, Eng., and of Toronto. "The day of the St. Julien battle the co. came to us and said—'Boys, we are going to be—Those of you who don't want to come can stay.'"

"We all went. We went so far in, in the three days' battle that it took seven British regiments to come and dig us out. And Col. Birchall, instead of being back of the lines, was right with us, elbow to elbow, cheering us, waiting us on into the very heart of the Germans. Lord, how we loved that man. He was a king. When he said 'Rush it!' we took it. And if he wept and looked broken, as he saw us becoming ragged and ragged each hour, we cheered him and yelled him, and he would spruce up smile, and say 'God help us, boys! Now for another jab!'

CANADA NO GOOD.

"The Germans stuck up a sign over their trenches—'Canada no good'—burned on it. We charged and took it for kindling. And when the Germans would come at us we'd shoot until they reached us, then we gave them the knife, and all the time we watched our colonel!"

"Then he fell! Dead! In a furious attack, and by all the living powers, we men, we who loved the very dirt on his boots, had to fall back, weeping, cursing, praying and leave our colonel dead out on the field! But there are only ninety of us now! We did our best."

UNTIL THREE WEEKS AGO

"His body lay out there on the field until three weeks ago. The Germans, as you know, keep a machine gun trained on a fallen officer, knowing we'll try to get him. We tried and tried. His little wife, a brave little woman, came right into the first line trenches, and we showed her the beloved body lying out there, through a periscope. She didn't cry. She just looked at us—"

"Well, three weeks ago, just before I came away, four of us who are left of the Fourth, went out one night. We took our colonel's watch, wallet, and binoculars. Then we saluted him, as we knelt there, and we covered him with earth by our hands."

"When we gave the relics to the little woman, she simply thanked us, and said, sort of strangely: 'Men, you will be rewarded for this.'"

"She did not cry."

SHELLEY TO HANG AT SIMCOE FOR SCHOUPE MURDER

Simcoe, Sept. 24.—Emmerson De Witt Shelly, aged 22, was yesterday found guilty of the murder in May of Christian Schoupe, an aged Walsingham farmer, and was sentenced by Justice Lennox to be hanged on Saturday, December 18.

"It was the second time that Shelley had faced a charge of murder. In 1909 he was before a magistrate here for shooting to death Michael Hall, an aged farmer, who lived near where the Schoupe murder was committed. At that time there was not considered sufficient evidence to send the lad of 15 for trial, though he admitted shooting in the neighborhood of the tragedy. Since that time he has served prison terms for arson and rape."

THE CRIME.

The lifeless body of Christian Schoupe was found in a field near his home on May 11 by his wife. A bullet hole was found in the jaw. Emmerson Shelley was known by many crown witnesses to have been in the neighborhood the day previous to the murder, and there were others who saw him on the day of the tragedy near Walsingham.
