German Warships Bombarded
British Coast.

London, April 26—Yarmouth was bombarded, as well as Lowestoft, by the German warships which attacked the eastern coast yesterday. Four persons were killed and twelve wounded.
The following official account of the raid was given out today:

"The bombardment of Lowestoft and Yarmouth yesterday morning began at 4.10 o'clock and lasted about half an hour.
Despite the heavy guns employed by the enemy ships the damage was relatively slight. A convalescent home, a swimming bath, and the pier and 40 dwelling houses were extensively damaged. Some 200 dwelling houses were slightly damaged.
"Two men, one woman and one child were killed. Three persons were seriously wounded and nine slightly wounded.
"Fire was opened on Great Yarmouth at the same time.
Here the damage was one large building seriously damaged by fire, and another building slightly damaged by shell fire.
