R. YOUNG, B. A.

The results of the labors of the teaching staff of the Athens high school, during the past year, as shown below, are very satisfactory to the ratepayers of the district, and must be highly gratifying to the teachers themselves. A comparison with the number of successful candidates attending other school and collegiate institutes in the East will serve to show the excellent relative standing of this school. For several years, both in attendance and work accomplished, it has made rapid advancement and now ranks among the it has made rapid advancement and now ranks among the very first. The liberal, intelligent policy pursued by the trustees and the faithful work of the teachers have secured for the school its research to the school its research. for the school its present prosperity, and we extend to themour congratulations on their bountiful harvest of Primaries, ASHWOOD HALL, Aug. 20, 1891. The meeting of this date seems to have been looked forward to by salesmen and shippers with more than average interest, due to the fact that there is in the market an element of speculation of more than ordinary magnitude; as a result business was not satisfactory to the officers in magnitude; as a result business was not satisfactory to the officers in charge of the board. It took a lot bidding and many calls to sell a few hundred boxes of the "stuff."

The wildcat nature of the market had a bewildering effect on the "oute salesmen" many of them refused good for the thor suld nok get again.

salesmen' many of them refused good offers that they could not get again.

The offering was light. About 5, 200 boxes, 2709 white, the bal. colored, of these only 2,290 were sold by the officials. The prices paid were better than on any other market in the country, 9½0 was ruling, with 9 9/16 is the high point made, while only a few of the other markets had 9½ as the high point. Special cable reported the high point. Special cable reported 46 shillings for Liverpool market of cheese.

Cable report for corresponding date of latt season was 41 shillings. Prices paid ran from 8½ to 8½, with 8½ as ruling.

For the first time in many weeks white cheese lead the market. It is to be hoped that salesmen will accept
