That Twenty Persons Reported to Have Been Killed

Attempts Suicide

Tired of life, and brooding over is infirmities, James Ferguson, aged 85 years, and an inmate of the House of Refuge, attempted suicide in the Thames River in front of the in before he had swallowed any great quantity of water. A party composed of Wm. Crackle Art Leach and John Morrison were going down the river in Wm. Leith's launch this afternoon, when they saw the unfortunate old man strug gling in the water. They hurriedly went to his assistance and soon had him on dry land. Ferguson had been an inmate of the House of Refuge since 1889. He was brought in from the Township of Harwich, but was assumed as County charge some time ago. He had been in had health for the past year and had become tired of life.

He had not been in the water lon nough to be greatly injured, and was able to walk back to the institution shortly after he was pulled out. He said that he was not trying to committ suicide, but that he had just waiked into the water accidentally. It is supposed that the man's age and sickness had weakened his mind.
