The beindicap trotting race at Kentville driving park took place Saturday afternoon. Nine horses were entered for the race, which was decided in two heats. Dr Frahklyn, owned by G. A. Polley, of Lancelug, took first money; Laxeville Pride, owned by Wells Rockwell, of Billtown, came second.

Next Sunday, July 3d, the services in St John's church, Wolfville, will be as follows: Eight A. M. the holy communion; eleven A. M., morning prayer, sermon, and the holy communion; seven P. M., evening prayer and sermon. These services will be taken by the Rev. Canon Brock, Rector. The seats in St John's church are free.

We would suggest to the street commissioners that it would be a great improvement to have the grass and weeds clipped from the gutters. Next week there will be a large number of visitors in Wolfville, and it would be well to have the grass and weeds clipped from the gutters.
