Mr. and Mrs. George F.
Burpee and Mr. Black, of Centreville, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Palmer, left yesterday afternoon, for their home, making the trip by automobile. Between Woodstock and Centreville they ran into the worst electrical storm of the season, which lasted for hours. The rain came down irr torrents and when they reached Centreville, about 12 o'clock, the storm was at its height. The Church of England was struck and the spire fell to the roadside. No one was injured in the storm, but Mrs.
Burpee suffered considerably from the nervous shock. LOST THEIR JOB.

S., June 27.—One of the most outstanding social events of the season was the wedding here last lambert O. and Mrs. Neiley, of this place, to Dr. R. J. Collins, newly appointed medical superintendent of River Glade Sanatorium, New Brunswick, son of Hr. and Mrs. A. C. Collins, of Conneaut, Ohio.

The bridesmaid was Miss Alice Fairn, of Aylesford, and the best man was Dr. T. M. Sieniewicz, of Halifax. The ushers were R. Roop, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and Elmos Selfridge. Cecil Selfridge sang "Oh! Promise Me," and Mrs. J. D. Clark, Kentville, was at the organ, assisted by Miss Joyce Clark, violinist.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins left at once for Annapolis on the first stage of their journey to River Glade, where Dr. Collins will take over his duties mediately.

Dr. Collins was for several years assistant medical superintendent at the Nova Scotia Sanatorium, Kentville, and, has recently been associated with Dr. Parfitt at Calador Sanatorium, Gravenhurst, Ontarie.
