UNCLE TON'S CABIN.

(Chup. 18, concluded.) It must be observed that, among other appro-priations from like master's stock, Adolphus was in the habit of adopting its same and address; and that the style under which he moved among the coloured erroles of New Oriesaus, was that of Mr. 8; Clave. "I'm caretainly of your opinion, Miss Benoir," mid Adolph. Benoir was the name of Marie St. Clare's family, and Jane was one of Marie St. Clare's family, and Jane was one of Marie St. Clare's

Benoir was the name of Marie St. Clare's family, and Jane was one of her servants. "Pray, Miss Benoir, may I be allowed to ask if those drops are for the ball to-morrow night ! They are certainly bewitching !" "I wonder, now, Mr. St. Clare, what the imputence of your men will come to " said Jane, tossing her pretty head till the ear-drops twinkled again. " I shan't dance with you for a whole evening; if you go asking me any more questions."

questions." "Oh, you could'nt be so cruel, now ! I was just dying to know whether you would appear in your pink tarletane, " said Adolph. "What is it !" said Rosa, a bright, piquant little quadroon, who came tripping down stairs at this moment. "Whether the file charles a bright !!"

"" Why, Mr. St. Claro's so impudent "" "On my honour," said Adolph, "I'll leav it to Miss Ross, now."

it to Miss Rosa, now." "I know he's always a savey creature," said Rosa, poising herself on her little feet, and looking maliciously at Adolph. "He's always getting me so angry with him." "O ladies, ladies, you will certainly break my baart between you," said Adolph. "I shall be found dead in my bed, some morning, and you'll have it to answer for." "Do hear the horrid creature talk !" said both ladies, langhing immoderately. "Come, clar out, you ! I can't have you clut-tering up the kitchen," said Dinah, "in my way, foolin' round here." "Aunt Dinah's glum because she can't go to the ball," said Rosa. M. D. Agent-E. L. Lydiard, Georgetown-Medical Adviser-David Kaye, M. D. "And it will be wool, after all," said Rosa, malicioualy shaking down her long, ailky curls. "Well, in the Lord's sight, an't wool as good as har, any time!" said Dinah. "I'd like to have missis say, which is worth the most—a couple such as you or one like me. Get out wid ye, ye strumpery—I won't have ye round!" Here the conversation was interrupted in a two-fold manner. St. Clare's voice was heard at the top of the stairs, asking Adolph, if he meant to stay all night with his shaving-water; and Miss Ophelia, coming out of the dining-room, said— Fire! Fire! Fire!!
