

declared that the Province had stood nobig by the Grand Trunk and all its railways as far, but he went for now shatting the public purse and let them now work their own way, showed he was above the Grand Trunk honestly and fairly. The Dr, said he (Mr. Whitehead) would be shore the Grand Trunk before he would be brought out as a member that he dare say is all true, but that he might just say that he (the Dr.) has been a long time in Canada and has not yot been brought out, and he was sure that it was not the Dr's. fault as he had tried the conventions and neither would have him, besides having tried other sources. He ended by saying it be-came the duty of the electors to send the best men they could gave this important triss of our history.
