St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Under the most favourable conditions the Benevolent Irish Society held their anniversary parade on Sunday morning. The members met at the Hall at 9.30 and headed by the C. C. C. and City Bands the procession wended its way via Theatre Hill, New Gower and Hamilton Streets to Patrick Street. A halt was made at the Deanery where cheers were given for the clergy of St. Patrick's. From there the Society proceeded by way of Water Street and Cochrane Street to Government House; here the Society's greetings were tendered by Vice-President Mr. J. M. Kent, K.C., to His Excellency the Governor, who made a particular happy reply. The body then marched to the R. C. Cathedral and attended High Mass which was celebrated by His Grace the Archbishop with Rev. Frs. O'Callaghan and Sheehan as Deacon and Sub-Deacon, respectively. Following the ceremony of the Mass Rev. Dr. Kitchen ascended the pulpit and delivered a powerful and eloquent panegyric on the Gospel of the Day, after which the Society reformed ranks and visited the Archiepiscopal Library when V.P. Kent in a brief address presented the compliments of the body which elicited a fitting response from the Archbishop. Fluent and appropriate speeches were also made by Monsignor Roche and Rev. Bro. Kennedy. On leaving there the Society returned to their Hall where votes of thanks were passed to Hon. John Harvey and Mr. M. W. Myrich for supplying their horses; also to Mrs. Higgins who furnished handsome and artistically made rosettes.

Makes Stomach Trouble Vanish.

No Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas or Dyspepsia in five minutes.

Why not get some now—this moment, and forever rid yourself of Stomach trouble and indigestion? A distended stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapiesin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of Gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and Dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and, besides, and one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapiesin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapiesin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapiesin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time. Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now, you can get relief in five minutes.

Sent Home.

The bodies of the late Sebastian and William Farrell who were killed in the Sydney Mines last week arrived here on the S. S. Bruce, Sunday evening. Both were enclosed in very neat caskets protected with cases, and were sent home to Kelligrews by the shore train at 8.45 a.m. yesterday. Mr. J. Conway representing the owners of the Mine, the N. S. Steel and Coal Co., came here with the remains. A sad scene was enacted at the residence of the widowed mother when the bodies arrived at home. Both were well liked at Kelligrews and were also popular with people who every summer visited that place from St. John's.

NIEHHEIN, Germany, March 17.
Sentries surprised three men attempting to break into the fortress. They attempted escape. Sentries fired and killed two.

BOSTON, March 18.
Wage increases amounting to over $10,000,000 for the New England textile workers during the next twelve months are expected.

LONDON, March 17.
The Daily Mail says the Government's Wage Bill will empower it to reopen work in mines whose owners decline to operate them under the minimum wage scale.

HAVANA, March 18.
On Saturday the Maine, to the accompaniment of minute guns fired by North Carolina batteries and from Cuba's fortress, was towed into the Gulf and sunk 600 fathoms deep—at rest after 14 years.

HALIFAX, March 17.
The American fishing schooner Patricia was wrecked near the entrance of Jordan Bay on the Shelburne Coast, Saturday. Capt. Harding and ten of his crew were drowned. Ten were saved.

HALIFAX, March 17.
Dominion Coal Co.'s steamer Bonavista, from St. John to Louisburg to load coal, went ashore at Bear Cove on Friday, and drove inside Brier Island on Saturday. Total loss. Crew saved.

PHILADELPHIA, March 18.
With two members of the crew dead and six others suffering from beriberi, the British barque Brilliant 3½ months from Bombay, has reached Marcus Hook Quarantine Station below this city.

NANKING, March 18.
The outlook in China is more hopeful now than at any time since the outbreak of the revolution. Whilst unrest is general, disorders have decreased, and increased confidence is manifest. Alarmist predictions as to general uprisings have not been fulfilled.

LONDON, March 17.
Seven passengers of the P. and O. steamer Oceania were drowned while being rescued after a collision in the English Channel with the German barque Pisagua, which was later taken to Dover in a sinking condition. Several lascars were also drowned; number unknown. They capsized in a small boat.

LONDON, March 18.
The Minimum Wage Bill will be introduced to-morrow. The Premier will ask that it be read a second time on Wednesday, and go through the remaining stages on Thursday. Opinion is that it is imperative, and it should then pass, so that the Lords may consider it on Friday and Royal assent be given on Saturday.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, March 18.
Negotiations between the local government and American capitalists for the building of a dry dock and improving shipping facilities in order to meet the Panama Canal trade have been discontinued. Guarantees against competition were asked, and when the Americans were requested to define them, they declined further correspondence. The company proposed to expend $1,500,000.

LONDON, March 17.
Despite the efforts of the Press to work up an interest in the strike, declared Ambassador Reid in an interview, the public seems to regard it with indifference, although an air of oppressiveness may be debited. It has been trying to recall conditions in Paris as described in history just previous to the overthrow of the Government, and a similar state of apathy existed then. Conditions here are grave, and are made worse by the intertwining of industrial and political situations.

LONDON, March 17.
Realizing that no settlement of the coal strike is possible for another week, the Nation is facing with extraordinary calmness the prospect of swiftly increasing industrial paralysis, accompanied by hunger and destitution. To frame a measure to be acceptable to both parties will tax the powers of the Government to the utmost. The chief difficulty will be in Asquith's pledge to provide adequate safeguards for the protection of employers. Compulsory arbitration, and the rendering of trades unions responsible for breaches of contract, will probably be features. The Labour Party will oppose this. Even when the Minimum Wage Bill is passed the strike will not terminate immediately. The situation is shown in the utterance of Harshbarger, the Welsh miners' leader, who has said that "the workers are the masters of the situation. They have all the power. It is simply a question as to how they will use it."

Uncle Walt THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

Oh, it sort o' seems to me, as I face eternity, and consider how much work I have in view, that the biggest earthly crime is this thing of killing time, which so many idle fellows seem to do. I am evermore in KILLING haste; I have not an hour to waste; I've a million things to do TIME before I die; and the minutes as they flee are as precious unto me as the diamonds that an actress wants to buy. Now he comes, with nerve sublime, some tired bore who's killing time, and he has a grist of stories he would tell; by my writing desk he stops, and he gurgles and he yawns, till I take an axe and kill him, with a yell. People partial to this crime of annihilating time might be pardoned if they'd only kill their own; but they murder yours and mine—kill our moments as they shine, butcher minutes which are rightly ours alone. Which is why I say in rhyme that the men who kill our time should be banished to an island in the sea, where, among the leafy bow'rs they can kill a string of hours and not have a chance to bother you and me.

The Durango's Rough Trip. Steamed Through Seals.

The Furness Liner Durango, Capt. Chambers, arrived in port at 9 p.m. on Sunday after an exceptionally stormy trip of over fifteen days. She left Liverpool on the 2nd inst. and at the outset encountered a strong westerly and south westerly gale accompanied by heavy seas. The third day out the wind blew with increased violence, tremendous waves came over the smokestack of the ship and her decks were constantly awash. About 200 miles off St. John's the vessel struck the skirt of the ice and together with the bad weather hampered the progress of the ship considerably. Capt. Chambers did not bring any news of the Erma, which is overdue, but reported seeing two vessels in the vicinity of Cape Race, evidently the Karona and Caladonta. Capt. Chambers said he never remembered experiencing worse weather. The Durango brought 1,500 tons of cargo, 15 bags of mail and three passengers.
