The Government Responsible.

When Mr. Coaker addressed the Licensed Fish Exporters in the Seamen's Institute in the month of September last, he spoke, in part, as follows:

"When the Government (Squires-Coaker) came into power in November, 1919, they passed rules and regulations dealing with the export of fish. Two bye-elections have since taken place and these fishery rules have been the sole issue.

On each occasion the policy of the Government was sustained. We therefore consider them as part of our policy, and there must be no looking back. If, after giving them a fair trial, it can be shown that they are injurious or not beneficial we shall say that we have tried and failed, and will forego any further attempt to control the price of fish. Our policy has been laid down and from it there will be no departure."

Well, the policy has been tried and all the rules and regulations have been repealed by the Government, and the logical conclusion therefore is, that in the opinion of the Government they have been repealed because they have failed. No bye-election has reversed the verdict given by St. John's West and Bay de Verde, according to Mr. Coaker. No mandate has been given by the electors to the Government to abandon their avowed and considered policy of control, wherefore the conclusion cannot be escaped that failure—stark, complete, overwhelming and undeniable failure—has attended upon the policy of control by the Government whose policy it was.

And now comes the Advocate, the organ of Coaker, the prophet of Control (with a capital C) which exists on Government patronage, the same Advocate, which never tires of hypocritically posing as the mouthpiece and champion of the fishermen, and declares that repeal of the Rules and Regulations will be attended by the most disastrous consequences to the Colony at large and to the fishermen in particular, and that for all this the Fish Exporters will be to blame, because they have asked for this repeal. But—and let fishermen note carefully—if the Exporters asked, it was the Government which concurred in their request; if the merchants said "repeal," it was the Government which did repeal, and the whole responsibility for all the ill that happens to the Colony in consequence, is on the Government. What is our present shuffling Government for if not to lay down and enforce the fishery policy of control. What right has it to set up a policy to-day and pull it down to-morrow, because some other body of men wish it? What sense of dignity can the Government have or what respect can be paid to it, if its subsidised organs seek to shift responsibility from its shoulders to those of any class in the Colony? If a policy be good for the fishermen why abandon it at the request of merchants?

But of course the Advocate seeks to dig a hole through which Coaker can crawl when he comes home. No self-respecting man who proclaims a policy in the dictatorial way assumed by the Minister of Marine and Fisheries could remain in a Government which had abandoned that policy. No man with an atom of consistency or any sense of shame who has raged as Mr. Coaker has done since going abroad, could consent to sit with colleagues who had so decisively turned him down, as the present Ministry has turned down Mr. Coaker and Mr. Coaker's policy. His pet scheme has been overthrown; his pet policy occupies a place in the Executive waste basket. He comes home defeated and disgraced by his colleagues in the Cabinet, and the Advocate is preparing the way for him to swallow the noxious dose, and hold on to his seat in the Government. The Advocate abuses the merchants for repealing the Rules and Regulations, to hide the fact that the colleagues of Coaker themselves have done the repealing. The Government's policy was Control—that of the Exporters—No Control. And not a single member of the Government has the courage or independence to resign his seat, and the paid scribes defend them all in their shame, as strongly as when they possessed, at least, the merit of standing by their colors.

No News From Sealers.

TELEGRAPH LINES INTERRUPTED.

Owing to the telegraph lines between here and Fogo being interrupted, there has been no word received from the Northern Sealing Fleet since Sunday. Last night Messrs. Bowering Bros. received the following from Captain Bartlett of the Viking: "Crew killed and panned 3,000 to-day; weather thick and foggy which greatly retards work; all well." The Viking's crew have now 11,000 seals killed and panned, 3,000 of which were stowed down up to Sunday last.

Getting After Stolen Cash.

The police have recovered quite a quantity of the cloth stolen some few days ago from the Furness Withy premises. Some of the parties who purchased lengths of the goods have voluntarily handed it in. The names of most of those with the stolen property in their possession have been given to the police, who will likely make some arrests, if the parties do not quickly make returns. Over $500 worth of cloth was recovered yesterday.

"Irresistible Marmaduke."

On Easter Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, the great play entitled the "Irresistible Marmaduke" will be staged at the Casino, by some of the cleverest performers in the city. It will be the "Annual Entertainment in aid of Mt. Cashel" and the cast will include Mrs. H. Outerbridge, Misses Mary Doyle, Mary Ryan, Joyce Dunfield and Edith Cleary, Messrs. F. J. King, Cabot Fitzgerald, Hugh Anderson, Ernest Fox and Gordon Muir. The time, the object, the players and the play will be certain to attract capacity houses. Tickets may be had at the Royal Stationers.

To Be An April Bride.

Miss Constance Ames has set Wednesday, April 28 for the date of her marriage to William Laird Orr. The ceremony will be at Emmanuel Church, of which Miss Ames is a member, at 8 o'clock. The evening ceremony is because of the many guests who will come from distances. The wedding is to be large—but the reception later at the Chestnut street house, small. The engagement was announced at a tea the first of December. Miss Ames is the older daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Lincoln Ames. Mr. Orr is the son of Mr. J. B. Orr of St. John's, Newfoundland—Society Column "Boston Observer."

Police Court.

A young man named Skeans was summoned for assault on Constable Warren, while the latter was on duty. The evidence of Constable Evans showed that three members of the force were at the Parade Rink on Friday last and whilst Warren was putting on his skates, Evans kicked him in the face, the outcome of an exchange of words. Evans then took up a bar of iron and struck Warren on the shoulders. The latter grabbed the iron bar, whereupon the accused shouted for a knife with which to rip the policeman up. The accused admitted hitting the policeman with a bar of iron and cutting his face, but denied that he threatened to murder the policeman with a knife. His Worship commented strongly on the conduct of the accused and fined him $30 or two months imprisonment. Mr. G. J. Fox appeared for the prosecution.

Saved His Belongings.

A message received from Mr. Fred Ellis yesterday, stated that he had arrived at St. Pierre Sunday afternoon, and that he had saved all his personal belongings. The message did not give particulars as to exactly where the Stadium had been lost, except to say that she was a total wreck at Miquelon, and fully insured. The tug Stadium was a splendid ship, having passenger accommodation, electric light fitted, automatic jowling machines and heavy winch. She was 8 years old and registered 118 tons gross. The smaller tug Hero which Mr. Ellis is also getting down is not expected to leave Halifax until some time in April.

Sugar Stocks.

The stock of 25 cent sugar in the hands of the Food Control Board is given as 5,400 barrels according to their latest statement to the trade. For the fortnight ending March 18th the sales were 975 barrels. Efforts have been made to induce the Board to reduce the selling price of sugar to candy and syrup manufacturers. At present the factories here have to remain idle. Imported candy of good quality is being sold in the stores cheaper than the price at which the Food Control Board sells sugar.

Coastal Boats.

GOVERNMENT. S.S. Clyde left Harbor Breton at 4 a.m., doing this way. The S.S. Fort and Genet are leaving St. John's this afternoon for the Port coming on here and the Genet taking the former passengers up the coast.

GOVT. RAILWAY COMMISSION.

S.S. Clyde is leaving Burlington to-day for here. S.S. Kyle left St. John's at 2 p.m. for Lunenburg via Port aux Basques. S.S. Meigs arrived at Port aux Basques at 6.15 p.m. Sunday, leaving to-day.

Train Notes.

All the branch lines are now open except Trepassay. A local express to Port aux Basques, taking mails and passengers, left this afternoon. Rotary No. 3, with a number of laborers, left at noon to-day to make an attempt to open up the Trepassay Branch line. The west bound express, which left here on Thursday last, was at Curling last night. The slow and engine ahead of the east bound express, which left Port aux Basques on Sunday, was derailed on Sunday night in the vicinity of Spruce Brook. The engine has been since placed on the track and the train is due here to-morrow morning.

Coal Operations.

SOUTH BRANCH AND ST. GEORGE'S. Operations at the South Branch coal mine are being continued, some 50 men being engaged at the work of getting the coal mined during last fall and the winter, to the railway track. Some 30 tons per day are being transferred by motor trucks. It is authoritatively stated that the quantity of coal at South Branch is limited. This means that after an expenditure of some $350,000 the country will have nothing to show but a deep hole. On the other hand the same authority states that at St. George's the known quantity of coal there runs into millions of tons. Why the Government did not develop this latter property is somewhat puzzling. It may be stated here that the authority quoted had no connection or interest in the St. George's Coal Fields.

Personal.

Commissioner Mullaly is now acting Chief Magistrate in the absence of Mayor Gosling from the city. Mrs. W. Comerford, wife of W. F. Comerford, manager of Garneau Ltd., who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the General Hospital last week, is improving rapidly. Capt. John Lewis, M.H.A. for Harbor Main district, who came in to the city by yesterday's train, returns home this afternoon. Capt. Lewis looks fine after the strenuous election campaign, in which he put up so successful a fight.

TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

AUSPICIOUS OPENING. WASHINGTON, Mar. 21.

AGREE TO CONSOLIDATION. MONTREAL, Mar. 21.

Directors of the Dominion Steel Corporation and Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co. met here to-day to discuss the proposed amalgamation of the two companies with Halifax shipyards, in the British Empire Steel Corporation. GERMANY REJOICES. BERLIN, March 21.

Dr. Walter Simons, Foreign Minister, to-day announced that returns from the plebiscite held yesterday in Upper Silesia showed a complete German victory. Government buildings already have been flagged in honor of the event, the colors of the German Republic and of Prussia being hoisted. President Ebert this afternoon wired the German representatives in Upper Silesia an expression of his joy over the result, adding, "Even if according to reports our success is one or two directions has been prejudiced by resort to unjust and violent methods, it remains an indisputable fact that an overwhelming majority of Upper Silesian people has decided in favor of Germany."

HARD UP. VICTORIA, B.C., March 21.

Unless they are given immediate financial relief, many of the larger cities and towns of British Columbia will be in the hands of receivers before they can receive their share of liquor profits, the Municipal College of the Legislature was told to-day by the Executive of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities. The Municipal delegation urged that a tax of five cents a day on all workers, fifteen dollars a year on all others, and fifteen dollars a year on all corporations, which it is believed will pay for cost of schools and hospitals.

FRANCE DISAPPOINTED. PARIS, March 21.

In French official circles keen disappointment was expressed over the report received this afternoon from Upper Silesia, saying that Germany will retain the district as a result of Sunday's plebiscite, but officials do not yet admit the area is lost to Poland. They pointed out that reports of plebiscite were unofficial, and came mostly from Berlin. It was said that in the event of a majority of the vote being German, the territory probably would be divided, leaving to Poland those places which voted Polish. Stress was placed by French officials on the agricultural vote, which it hoped will prove to be largely Polish, but it was conceded the towns had voted German.

ANGLO-RUSSIAN AGREEMENT. LONDON, March 21.

The despatch of the British Trade delegations to Russia this spring may be expected as the first tangible result of the recently concluded Anglo-Russian trade agreement, according to official circles. Upon the investigations and reports of these agents will be based attempts to rebuild Anglo-Russian commerce, starting in a small way and increasing as the volume of goods from Russia becomes increasingly available. No eventually, not even a ruling by British courts that creditors have the right to seize Bolshevik gold, brought into Britain, will make the agreement operative, say officials, who have dominated the six months' negotiations with Leonid Krassin.

BOYCOTTING ULSTER. BELFAST, March 21.

Tightening of the Ulster boycott "until the British war of aggression on the Irish people ceases," was considered at a meeting of available members of the Daily Eireann to-day. From time to time it was decided the Sinn Fein "Ministry" through a department of trade will issue decrees naming prohibited articles. Fair notice will be given before their enforcement.

GREETED WITH CHEERS. LONDON, March 21.

J. Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, newly elected Leader of the House of Commons, and Leader of the Unionist Party in the House, was received with loud cheers, when he entered the House this afternoon. His first duty as Leader of the House was to answer "Yes" to a question as to whether the Government would hold and maintain a controlling interest in the Anglo-Persian Oil Co., after issues of new capital were completed. In reply to congratulations on his new position, Chamberlain said he would do his best to maintain the traditions of the House.
