Mae Murray in Picture Ibanez Wrote for Her

AUTHOR OF "THE FOUR HORSEMEN" DOES STORY DIRECT FOR SCREEN.

A novelist of world standing has at last written a story directly for the screen. Vicente Ibanez, author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," inspired by the chic personality of Mae Murray, has done a photoplay entitled, "Circe the Enchantress." This picture, produced by Tiffany Productions and released by Metro-Goldwyn, will be seen at the Nickel Theatre to-day.

The cast supporting Miss Murray includes the veteran star, James Kirkwood, and William Haines, Tom Ricketts, Charles Gerard, Lillian Langdon and Gene Cameron. Miss Murray's part is unusual. As Circe, she appears as the mythical goddess of Greece, and her modern prototype, a dregs of New Orleans and New York. In the latter role, she is given an opportunity of wearing more than thirty complete changes of gowns and dresses. She performs two dances in the picture which are different from anything she has previously done before the camera.

"Circe the Enchantress" is a Tiffany production released by Metro-Goldwyn.

What Madame Plourde Says of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec lady suffered for years with Dropsy, Gravel and Sugar Diabetes, and benefited by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Danville, Que., April 15.—(Special) One more tribute to the great work Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing for women of Canada comes from Madame Gerard Plourde, well-known and highly respected here.

"I have used several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and have been greatly benefited," Madame Plourde states. "I have suffered many years from Dropsy, Gravel and Sugar Diabetes. My head used to ache and my appetite was fitful. My sleep was broken and I was nervous and irritable.

"I have taken ten boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and feel much better, especially my kidneys.

"I give you the right to publish this testimonial because your Dodd's Kidney Pills merit the honour."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely a kidney remedy. They strengthen the kidneys so that they do their full work of straining all the impurities out of the blood.

Pure blood coursing through the body means new health all over the body.

"SINGLE WIVES" AT THE POPULAR STAR.

The last census shows a world of Single Wives—a new type of woman; the story of a youthful beauty—a girl who found happiness in the romance of courtship but who lost it in one short year of marriage. Her pitiful struggle to find a substitute for happiness will win the heart; the narrow escape from folly will thrill you with its dramatic intensity; her ultimate salvation through a genuine love will make you smile with happiness.

Come and see how this one girl solves her problem, one that might easily confront any girl or wife. A picture that will hold you fascinated.

In this wonderful production, the two stars—Milton Sills and Corinne Griffith bring drama here—reveal the married life some people lead—and give the hint that will make you think. Too late he had forgotten her—while business called to him another man called to her. Here is the only story of married life with all its happiness, misery and the evils which bring such about. By no means miss it Monday next at the popular Star.

Textile Resolutions Withdrawn

The prospect of the establishment of the proposed Knitting Mills in the West End of the city, appears to have vanished for the time being at least. The company of which Mr. W. R. Gossie is President, and Mr. C. C. Pratt, Secretary, proposed to engage in the manufacturing and trading in woolen and cotton goods, applied to the Government for concessions to aid them in their operations. The Government, desirous of having labor giving industries established, was prepared to grant free customs entry for twenty years on the following articles:

All construction material and machinery for the original installation and the further extension of the company's factory and plant, but not for the replacement or substitution of new for old.

Flannel, flannellette, cotton, fleecy cotton, threads, woolen and cotton yarns dyed or undyed, wool oils, buttons, tapes, labels, soda ash, bleaching and dyeing materials, and wrapping materials.

The company, in addition, asked for free entry for cotton webbing. Resolutions to give effect to this agreement were introduced in the House by the Prime Minister. The advisability of admitting free the fabric known as cotton webbing, was the subject of some debate, as it was suggested that the making up of this material would afford but little employment. The concession was also disputed by the clothing factories and the resolutions were stricken on from the order paper as the company insisted on having the material included in the list of free entry material.

Obituary

JAMES PATRICK CAREW.

The death occurred at his residence, 54 Field Street at 1 p.m. yesterday of James P. Carew, who succumbed to an illness of six months' duration. The deceased, who was in his 33rd year, was well and favorably known in the city, and was a veteran of the World War. Having had an ambition to enter the Canadian Service, he proceeded to the Dominion shortly after the outbreak of hostilities, and on reaching Ontario was enrolled with the Canadian Railway troops. Being a young man of imposing stature and splendid physique he was employed as a fitter in the Forces, and saw a great deal of active service mustering out at the close of the conflict with an honorable record. Suffering from shell shock he also contracted a severe cold before leaving the other side, and developed Consumption which culminated in his death. Deceased, who was of a retiring and quiet disposition, is survived by a widowed mother and one sister, to whom the Telegram extends its sincere sympathy in their sad bereavement.
