Defeat and Resignation of the Gladstone Ministry.

The people of the Dominion have been surprised to learn of the defeat and resignation of the Gladstone Ministry. The government bill, proposing radical changes in the organization of the University in Dublin, seems to have been a very unpopular measure, and Protestants and Catholics alike condemned it.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Cauchon presented a petition from Col. Gundy against Chief Justice Duval of Quebec, calling for his removal from the Bench. Several petitions were presented for the Prohibition of Liquor Law.

Mr. J. H. Cameron all the terms of the petition made it such that it ought to be tried under the controverted election law, and the returning officer was entitled under that law to be present at the trial of such cases, and have his objections in writing sent to the court.

there was very little work and that of no great importance in the Executive Council Office.

After some further discussion that and other items passed, and the Committee rose. Mr. Hodgins moved the third reading of Bill to amend the several Acts relating to the Credit Valley Railway.

Mr. Boulbee strongly opposed the confirmation of the Peel By-law, which he claimed had been obtained by fraud. Attorney-General Mowat said he did not hesitate to say as head of the Government that he strongly disapproved of this species of legislation, and in future, he was prepared to state, he would set his face against it; but he did not think it was right to lay down such a rule arbitrarily during the present session.

The Cloven Foot.

The Manitoba Free Press of the 22nd February says that Attorney-General Clarke made his debut in Manitoba "breathing out threatenings and slaughter" against all principles of right and justice, and therefore, attained a celebrity little less enviable than the most superlatively despised man that ever trod God's footstool.

Mr. Rogers, Point St. Charles has been scandalized by a scandalously planned experiment, which took place on Monday last. The parties concerned were both married, and enjoyed the character of being respectable and well respected.

Mr. J. H. Cameron all the terms of the petition made it such that it ought to be tried under the controverted election law, and the returning officer was entitled under that law to be present at the trial of such cases, and have his objections in writing sent to the court.
