MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 8, 1873

Town and County News.

A Trio of youthful itinerant musicians, consisting of two violinists and a harpist, were playing on Wyndham street today. The boys played well.

INGERSOLL, $10, was inadvertently omitted from our list of Y. M. C. A. subscriptions to the expenses of the Executive Committee.

HORTICULTURAL SHOW.—The fall show of the Guelph Horticultural Society comes off in the Drill Shed to-morrow. A fine display of plants and flowers is expected.

THE TRIP.—From what we hear the trip up the W. G. & B. to Southampton and Port Elgin to-morrow will be well patronized. It promises to be a thoroughly successful and enjoyable excursion.

BARNUM.—The G. W. R. Co. announce the issue of single fare tickets to Hamilton and back on Wednesday, with the view of enabling persons from this vicinity to visit Barnum's Great Show.

LECTURES.—There are two lectures announced for to-night. One is at St. Bartholomew's Church, at 7.30, by the Rev. Father Langcake, S. J., on "The Catholic Church and Her Charities;" the other is at the Good Templars' Hall, by Mr. T. V. Casey, upon the Temperance question.

ORIO FORCE.—There was a very poor attendance at the Town Hall on Saturday evening. Mr. Adams delivered some remarks, and Mr. Mackenzie made experiments upon a person from the audience, which resembled those made by mesmerist exhibitors. The admission was free.

LARGE POTATOES.—Mr. J. L. Dodds, of Caledon, sold a load of potatoes on Friday to Mr. B. J. McNichol, of Orangeville, several of which weighed 1 lb. 8 oz., and one of which brought down the scales at 2 lbs. They were of the Early Rose variety.

SALE OF STOCK.—Lazarus Parkinson, Esq., of Orchard Home, Erasmus, will offer for sale on the 8th October, a number of pure bred short horn cattle, and well bred Leicester sheep. Mr. Parkinson has long been known as a successful breeder of first-class stock, and no doubt his sale will attract many of the leading agriculturists throughout the country who are desirous of improving their stock.

MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.—Mr. Hoskins, the librarian, requests us to state that the Institute will be closed to-morrow (Tuesday) as he intends to take "leave of absence," for one day, in order to have a trip up country. We are persuaded that the members will find no fault with Mr. Hoskins in having some slight relaxation from his arduous and responsible duties, which he has so long and so faithfully discharged to the entire satisfaction of all.

SUNDAY TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The first of a series of Sabbath afternoon meetings for the purpose of promoting the cause of Temperance was held in the Good Templars' Hall yesterday afternoon, commencing at four o'clock. The hall was nearly filled, many ladies being present. Mr. Ryan acted as chairman. Addresses were delivered by the chairman, Rev. Mr. Howie, Rev. Mr. Manchie, and Rev. Dr. Davidson, all strongly in favour of prohibitory legislation. A similar meeting will be held next Sunday afternoon, at the same time and place.

ACCIDENT.—This morning about eight o'clock, a young man in the employ of Messrs. Massie, Paterson & Co., drove a spirited animal, attached to a buggy, down Wyndham street as far as Mr. Metcalf's shop, where he procured a strap for the purpose of preventing the horse from injuring himself by interfering. While in the act of putting on the strap the horse kicked, striking the young man on the right cheek and cutting it slightly, making the blood flow freely. The young man being in such close proximity to the horse's heels no doubt prevented a more serious accident.

A GUELPH MAN FOUND DEAD.—The St. Catharines Journal has the following from its Smithville correspondent:—Early on Sunday morning G. Hines, a blacksmith in the employ of Mr. J. Bates, was found dead in bed. For the last ten days of his life he had been, to use a common term "on a spree," a habit which he at times indulged in, a habit, alas, too common with really good workmen, of which class, we believe, he may fairly be classed. The temporary absence of his wife from home, perhaps, left him more freedom to indulge, with a less chance of getting his meals regularly. Neglecting them, and from day to day indulging freely in liquor, it preyed too much on his already enfeebled frame. His wife had returned on Saturday, and in the evening retired to bed. Before daylight on Sunday morning he requested his wife to rise and get him something to eat, which she did, and of which he partook. She did not go to bed again, but on going to his bed-room some two hours later, found him quite dead. His remains were conveyed per rail to Guelph, where he has friends and relatives, and where they were interred.

Assassins Executed.

Demonstration in London.

The Transatlantic Balloon.

Elevator Burned.

$50,000 Recovered.

Ku-Klux.

London, Sept. 8, 6 a.m.—A special from Berlin to the London Hour says the Prussian Government has decided to recognize Bishop Reikens, and Baden and Bavaria will follow the example.

Madrid, Sept. 7.—The Cortes to-day elected Castelar President by 113 votes against 67 for Piy Margal.

Tenard has arrived in Madrid.

The leaders of the insurrection at Carthage have sent a communication to Admiral Velverton, protesting against the sending Spanish frigates to Gibraltar.

A demonstration in favor of the rights of laboring men was made in South London on Sunday. Large procession. Six thousand present.

The Spanish correspondent of the Standard states that five men, said to have been sent from Madrid to assassinate Don Carlos, have been executed at Evalla. The Republicans are casting guns for the defence of San Sebastian.

New York, Sept. 8.—Morris Perpil was arrested in London for setting fire to Fashion Stud Farm Stables. He has made a full confession.

The transatlantic balloon exhibited last night. It is ready to start on Wednesday.

Madrid, Sept. 6.—In the session of the Cortes to-day Senor Castelar further demanded, as conditions upon which he would accept office, that he be empowered to increase the army, purchase 500,000 rifles, organize militia, and impose a forced loan, or be furnished means by which he can obtain five hundred million notes to meet the expense of the war against the Carlist and Intransigent Insurgents; he also demanded authority to suspend the constitutional guarantees, and deprive the Ayuntamiento of the powers they now exercise when, in his judgment, such measures become necessary. The Cortes unanimously voted to confer all the powers demanded.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 7.—A correspondent of the Courier Journal states that he, assisted by several citizens of Owen County, on Saturday captured two men charged with being concerned in the murder of Geo. Wilson, on Brown's plantation. One of the parties arrested today that ten more were arrested in Owen and Henry Counties, charged with belonging to the Ku Klux organization.

St. Louis, Sept. 7.—Governor Woodson has written a letter to the Sheriff of Calhoun County, in which he accuses the people of that County as not having done their duty in failing to bring to justice the Lynchers of Kessler and the murderers of Sheriff Law and William H. Dunden. He threatens if those implicated in the crimes, and also those who are known to have participated in the mob, are not speedily arrested and brought to trial, he will carry out the law, which authorizes him to send militia into the County to make arrests, and quarter them upon the people.

Boston, Sept. 7.—The Springfield Republican estimates Washburn's majority in Convention at from 150 to 200.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The Fulton Elevator in the city was burned this morning. It was owned by Jesse Hoyt & Co., New York. Loss, $75,000; insurance, $20,000. It contained $50,000 worth of grain, which was fully insured.

The messenger of the American Express Company was arrested at Davenport, Iowa, with about $50,000, entrusted to him, which he had appropriated.

Baltimore, Sept. 7.—George Chase and Elijah Miller, colored, while intoxicated on Saturday, quarreled about seven miles from the city. Chase stabbed Miller, who died in half an hour.

McMullen and his Evidence.

We append a further extract from the report of McMullen's interview with the Chicago reporter, a summary of which we gave on Saturday:

Reporter.—Can you prove that Sir John A. Macdonald knew of this bargain between Sir Hugh Allan and Sir Geo. E. Cartier?

McMullen.—I can. I will even show his telegrams, one admonishing Allan to "shell out," because he had a big thing; another declaring in the most positive manner that he indorsed the arrangement made by Cartier with Sir Hugh, and would hold himself bound by it. He confirmed the bargain unreservedly.

R.—Can you prove it?

McM. I will put witnesses on the stand who saw the telegram: one of them a very prominent man, a friend of Cartier. I will name the man who wrote the record of these transactions.

R.—How much did Sir Hugh pay out to set these honest men back to power?

McM. About $350,000. For Cartier alone $200,000 was spent. But Sir Hugh's campaign against him prior to the bargain had so fired the popular heart against Cartier that he could not be. He was beaten by 1,800 votes.

R.—For every fresh outlay of money Allan compelled him to sign a new contract, and to give a new receipt?

McM. As soon as Allan had Cartier bought and the Government in his power had you not?

McM. Yes. He did not see that he needed us then. He thought that he might as well have the charter and its millions of gold and its millions of farms to himself.

R.—When did you suspect his defection?

McM. Throughout the whole summer. He never gave any intimation of it until the 24th of October, but all my letters to him were calculated to draw him out. He is cunning but not deep.

R.—What awakened your suspicion?

McM. Yes. His misrepresentation concerning money. He stated that he had paid $15,000 of the first $40,000 to four French newspapers. I found that he had simply put that in his pocket, gave them loans and secured himself against loss.

R.—When did he break off with you?

McM. The first intimation was Oct. 24th.

R.—What? Does not this memorial submitted by him and accepted by the Government say he broke off in April, the beginning of the season?

McM. Yes, but it is all brazen lying. Here are all his letters and telegrams, dated all along from April to November. Here are the paid checks, with his name. Here are his letters to Smith covering the same period, and there are copies of his letters to—, in New York, on the same subject. He intended to sell us out to get his $400,000 before we could catch him.

R.—What did he do?

McM. I went to Ottawa, submitted to Sir John A. Macdonald the history of the business in authentic shape. He seemed afraid to move. On the 23rd of January of this year I saw him again accompanied by his friends. I gave him copies of all the documents of the receipts for the expenses of Canada improvement, and Canada Pacific bills paid by me, and he could not deny anything.

R.—What did he do?

McM. Sir Hugh had him. They went on to Ottawa. I gave the charter, prescribing that certificates of deposit to the amount of $1,000,000 be furnished, as guarantee for building the road.

R.—Did Sir Hugh deposit?

McM. Oh, the Receiver-General stated that it was not the intention of the Government to pay for the removal of the money from the banks.

R.—Then there is not the guarantee of a cent that the road will ever be built?

McM. That a cent.

R.—Have you any further proof that the Government were aware of Sir Hugh Allan's bargain with Cartier?

McM. I do not feel at liberty to submit it all for publication. I will give you a single item that will probably be sufficient. Shortly after the elections were over and while Allan was pressing for a fulfilment of his bargain, he began to think that the Government intended to stop Billy's pitching. Sunley took his old position, and with Tommy Smith on 1st, and Charley on 2nd, we were treated to some of the old style of delivery, which it was thought at one time the Londoners would take advantage of and run up a score, but the sharp fielding of our boys was too much for them, and they retired in one, two, three order the same as before. After the conclusion of the game the T. C. MEXICANS packed up, and left for home, with the intention, no doubt, of leaving base ball tours alone for another year. No doubt many of our readers, along with ourselves, have wondered very much why the T. C. MEXICANS were so badly defeated in Kingston; but the fact that the Sr. LAWRENCE were determined to win the game by means both unfair and ungentlemanly, settles the matter. In the first place we are told by an eye-witness that there was no such thing as putting a Kingston man out on a base—they must all be put out on "flys" so clear that nobody could doubt; and in the next place if the umpire did decide against the Kingston nine on a close point he was hooked and yelled at by the crowd until he reversed his decision. In our opinion those Kingston people ought to give up all claim to playing base ball and study up "rounders."

The Game on Saturday.

TECUMSEH VS. MAPLE LEAF.

A very thin crowd of spectators assembled on the MAPLE LEAF ground on Saturday afternoon to witness the above game. The play itself was very good, and deserved far greater encouragement from the people than it received. No doubt the interest in the TECUMSEH nine was considerably diminished by the so-called defeat they received at the hands of that third-rate club—the KINGSTONS; but all who saw the TECUMSEH playing here—both at the bat and on the field—will endorse our opinion when we say that we have not seen a finer game played on the ground this season. The playing of Southam on 2nd base was admirable, and elicited many marks of approval, and Jury on 1st was not one whit behind—the playing of both these men being equal to any that we have seen on the field. On the whole the London TECUMSEH nine are composed of a fine lot of young fellows, and we should be glad to see them often on our ground, as we believe they would make as good a score against our boys as any club in the country. The game commenced about half-past two, and from the time the first ball was struck to the end of the game—a little after four—great interest was taken in the result. The "LEAFS" were sent first to the bat, but soon retired with a goose-egg—Cameron knocking a high ball to left, which was beautifully taken by Love; and Tommy Smith and Maddock retired on 1st; Jones being left on 2nd. Love then took the bat, knocked a liner to Cameron, which he held in fine style; Emalie got out on strikes, and Southam hitting to Jackson at right short retired on first—goose-egg each. In the second innings Jackson got his base on called balls, but retired on a sharp throw from catcher to 2nd; and Billy Smith got out on a fly; Spence then hit to 3rd, which was muffed, and he made his three bases; Sunley next got his base on called balls; Goldie hit to left, which was muffed, and Spence came in—one run. In London's 2nd innings Eldridge retired on a fly; Jury on 1st; and Browne on strikes—another goose-egg. Johnny Goldie then took the bat, and retired on strikes also; Jones got his base on bad balls, but retired by another sharp throw to 2nd, and Cameron got out on 1st—nothing this time. In London 4th inning, Eldridge came home by a muff; Hunter got out on strikes; Emalie on 1st; and Smith on a fly. All the other innings for London, except the 6th and 7th, were goose-eggs, whilst our boys began to pick up pretty well until the 9th, when the score was announced London 4, Guelph 11. The playing of the MAPLE LEAF nine was hardly up to their usual style, accounted for, perhaps, by the fact that the evenings are now too short for practice; but nevertheless, some fine fielding was shown by all. In credit to Spence we must not omit to mention his fine play on the last innings, when the bases were full—as a passer on 1st, part at that time would have raised London's figures somewhat—the stopping a hot liner from the bat, and causing the side to be put out for the sixth time with a goose-egg. Mr. Sales acted as umpire, and though an error in his decisions crept in once or twice, he was, on the whole quite satisfactory. The only incident that marred the pleasure of the game was Charley's big black eye, which Billy's swift pitching gave him. Charley is a plucky fellow behind the bat, and adds much to the success of the Championship nine, although he showed a dog determination to be "up and at 'em again," we are glad to see that he accepted the advice of his comrades, and retired to the field. We hope to see his now ugly-looking optic soon restored whole as the other. Cameron not being able to stop Billy's pitching, Sunley took his old position, and with Tommy Smith on 1st, and Charley on 2nd, we were treated to some of the old style of delivery, which it was thought at one time the Londoners would take advantage of and run up a score, but the sharp fielding of our boys was too much for them, and they retired in one, two, three order the same as before. After the conclusion of the game the T. C. MEXICANS packed up, and left for home, with the intention, no doubt, of leaving base ball tours alone for another year. No doubt many of our readers, along with ourselves, have wondered very much why the T. C. MEXICANS were so badly defeated in Kingston; but the fact that the Sr. LAWRENCE were determined to win the game by means both unfair and ungentlemanly, settles the matter. In the first place we are told by an eye-witness that there was no such thing as putting a Kingston man out on a base—they must all be put out on "flys" so clear that nobody could doubt; and in the next place if the umpire did decide against the Kingston nine on a close point he was hooked and yelled at by the crowd until he reversed his decision.
