

The Westminster Review for July, issued by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company of New York contains:—"Butler's Analogy—its strength and weakness," "Emigration," "Goethe and Mill," "A Contrast," "The Admiralty and the Navy," "Mr. Lewes and Metaphysics," "The Emancipation of Women," "Lamarck," "The Nationalization of the Established Church." In the review of the "Analogy," the writer, after briefly noting the religious characteristics of the times in which it was written, and the general design of the work, offers some observations on the method and the argument, especially with reference to Revelation and the Atonement. The article on "Goethe and Mill" is of unusual interest. The manner in which the natural capacities of both were developed, and their modes of thought and action as developed by those circumstances, are represented in much detail. Article V. is a review of "Problems of Life and Mind," by G. H. Lewes. The plan and object of the work are described at some length, and the reviewer enters into a long examination of Mr. Lewes's treatment of metaphysical questions. The writer of the article on "The Emancipation of Women" takes the position that women, if not actually in a state of slavery at the present time, are not very far removed from it. He then proceeds to state their real or fancied grievances, and advocates female suffrage as the first step toward their liberation. The writings of Lamarck, especially those on biology, are of undoubted interest. His "Philosophie Zoologique," and "Histoire Naturelle des Animaux sans Vertebres," are reviewed in Article VII. The notices under the head of "Contemporary Literature" are as full as usual.

Special Notices.

St. Ann's, Bond de l'ete. I WAS FOR SEVERAL YEARS SUFFERING FROM Cough, Expectoration and Night Sweats, attended with extreme nervous and physical prostration. My body was greatly emaciated, and the general impression was that I had long to live. I began taking Dr. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR OF PHOSPHATES AND CALSAYA, and improvement took place immediately. I gained in weight and strength. My Cough and Night Sweats disappeared, and I am now in the enjoyment of excellent health. Many of my friends to whom I have recommended the Elixir have experienced equally remarkable results. W. W. SIMON, Agent, G. T. R.

THE OSBORN, THE RAYMOND, THE GARDNER, THE ROYAL, THE SINGER, THE HOWE, WHEELER & WILSON, General dealers in Sewing Machines, would draw the attention of the people to the fact that they sell Sewing Machines at prices from $5 to $12 cheaper than what is charged by peddlers.
