JOSEPH RODGERS & SONS,

CUTLERS TO HER MAJESTY.

want your trade, and are ed to give you special on Fine Watches We king a specialty of the

IPDEN WATCH

has the best record in the for a railway watch. Call us have a talk.

IORPHY & CO. JEWELERS.

JOHN FOX YAH, COAL, Platform, Counter, StandardScales oduce and stock scales and durability cannot be

or a circular to JOHN FOX

BLOOD PURIFIER

COUGHS

COLDS

I say CURE I do not mean merely to for a time, and then have the MEAN A RADICAL CURE. S, EPILEPSY or

LLING SICKNESS study. I WARRANT my remedy to corst cases. Because others have falled in for not nowreceiving a cure. Send a treatise and a FREE BOTLE of my LE REMEDY. Give Express and Post costs you nothing for a trial, and it out. Address: H. G. ROOT, M.C., office, 164 West Adelaide Street, nadian Office and School ture Company (Limited), street, Toronto, Ont., Canada (sug o Wm. Stahlschmidt & Co. and F. Bostwick), manufacturers of School, Church and Lodge Furniture.

No. 51 Office Desk. nd have a large sale in the old work. SEND FOR CIRCULARS TORIES AT PRESTON, ONT.

work attended to promptly.
t fit and perfect satisfaction guaran oderate. Call and examine my work, O. WYATT lo. 2 Market Square.

ONDON ADVERTISEMENTS LEADING GROCERY equisites for house cleaning—Soaps Crystals, Soap Powders, Pearline all kinds, very cheap. Brooms—An for carpets at 25c. Furniture Polish rticle, highly recommended, and our nily Groceries mplete. Call and leave your orders.

H. Sanborn 04 DUNDAS STREET.

THE REWARD.

After our time of toiling After our stormy voyage At last a port appears.

After our time of anguish,
After our love and loss,
After our test by fire,
The gold eschews the dross.

LOVE'S ONION COMPACT.

There are many curious phases of amatory conditions which are peculiar to individual cases. It may be that love, in its essential qualities, is the same in every instance, but there are wide variations in the phenomena. Its manifestations are infinite in their variety, and many are unique and interesting. A specimen or two of some forms or symptoms developed by the lovelora may be worth assentation.

One day in summer time, when the June One day in summer time, when the June roses were radiant with bloom and the air was heavy with the scent of flowers, I was stopping at a hotel in Madison. It is a place whose romantic beauty, rolling site, innumerable lakes, and horizon, low in the distance and, thinly veiled in mystery and blue, are designed expressly, as it were, for the development of the sesthetic and the growth and expansion of certic holds and blossoms.

expansion of erotic buds and the growth and expansion of erotic buds and blossoms. There was a languor distilled through the flower scented atmosphere which permeated the veins and produced that ardent, passion-ate, yearning characteristic of the presence of love.

One morning I went, a little after the usual one morning I went, a little after the tastal hour for breakfast, into the dining room and found, as I anticipated, that the majority of the guests had been served and had gone the guests had been served and had gone away. It was a superb morning, bright, inspiriting, with an air that stimulated like old wine. The park of the capitol grounds was a great mass of green, bathed in sunlight, and filled in its depths with cool shadows; in the distance the lake shone under the glances of the ardent sun, and beyond a tender haze purpled the landscape up to the sky line.

But two people remained at the table.
They were seated near one of the spacious windows that overlooked the glorious view of the scenery without, but their gaze was of the scenery without, but their gaze was fixed not on the externals, but on each other fixed not on the externals, but on each other.

It was a charming young girl and a manly,
handsome young man; she about eighteen, he about twenty-one. They were admirable contrasts—she, blonde, slender, with tender blue eyes, delicate features and an air of refinement; he, strong, dark, masculine, with dark brown hair and eyes of deep black.

That they write, emproped of leach, other

That they were enamored of each other, that they were fascinated, enchanted, was evident at sight. They only threw a look around when I entered, so absorbed were they in gazing at each other, and in a low conversation, with intervals like the rests in musical notation.

musical notation.

I seated myself in close vicinity to them at I seated myself in close vicinity to them at another table. They were munching slowly on something in a dish between them, and my eyes took them in. I wondered what am-prosts furnished their nutriment, what deli-cate nectar would quench their thirst. Surely these two so palpably adoring each other would require food purged of all grossness; something attenuated, ethereal, suitable to the strict rather than the flesh the spirit rather than the flesh.

the spirit rather than the flesh.

While thus wondering there crept into my nostrils a familiar aroma, pungent, penetrating, unmistakable. I glanced at the dish between them, and in the milk white material, with its well known curves and surface striations, I recognized—onions, raw and odorous. It was with a shock that this revelation presented itself, and for a moment I rejected it as a base slander on the fastidious appearing and elegrant cound. I accused my vision ing and elegant couple. I accused my vision of treacherous deception in the spectacle which it offered me, and my sense of smell of idiotic stupidity in conveying so coarse a suggestion. I tried to throw off the frightful conviction that it was onlone as an unwarranted and hideau small to their refinement. conviction that it was onions as an unwar-ranted and hideous insult to their refinement, and especially to the young girl, who was as pure in her gentle eyes as an infant.

But I could not entirely throw out the evidence of eye and nostril; it was at length clearly revealed as a dish of raw onions, which they were nibbling and swallowing as they gazed lovingly at each other and cooed

Most observers, in view of the fact that the hotel was filled with guests of wealth and culture, who had come here from the heated regions to spend the summer months, would have concluded that the onion eating was the outgrowth of a coarse appetite and a flagrant defiance of the sensitiveness of those with whom they would come in gutact. At the first I was inclined to take to raise, who time of a profound attachment; they are the genuine language of the enamored couples that haunt twilight recesses, who frequent dusky retreats, who seek isolation, and who, in gentle murmurs, exchange their mutual adoration of a liking for this alliaceous edible, close of kin to the disreputable leek and garlic.

For sometime I studied the exchange their single over garlic.

For some time I studied the problem offered by the spectacle, and tried to discover why the myrtle had been discarded for the onion. The former, sacred to Venus, would have seemed more appropriate than the plebeian onion for these enraptured lovers. It was only after a long time of thought that I reached a satisfactory answer, one that reconciled the refinement of the charming and devoted pair to their appropriable feast. devoted pair to their abominable feast

To convey my conclusion to the reader, I beg to be permitted to draw on my imagination for a conversation between the youth and the maiden as they met by appointment in the parlor of the hotel in order to breakfast together.

The night before they had spent with some company and were unable to manifest their supreme attachment save by swift glances freighted with love, and an instant exchange of hot hand pressure when they accidentally were thrown together. They separated at bettime without an opportunity to say more than a best to the reservoir in the same of the same and the same and the same areas of the same areas.

lips came to gether in a long, clinging kiss. A great sigh, as they fell apart, borq evidence of their deep souled satisfaction.

"Do you see what a beautiful morning this is?" he asked. "See how the sun lights up the earth and sky, just as you smile splendors over my soul, dear, dear sweetheart." over my soul, dear, dear sweetheart.'

guests are out on the porch or are off to the hills and down to the lakes. As they go down the stairs he gives a slight pull to her skirt as hint of his presence and his supreme devo-tion. A swift flash in her eye and a quick movement of her lips reveal her recognition of his caressing touch.

movement of her lips reveal her recognition of his caressing touch.

"Thank heaven, there is no one here!" they exclaim as they enter the dining room. They seat themselves side by side at a table in the furthest corner.

The waiter is temporarily out of the room, and the couple avail themselves of the opportunity to converse.

"Who's my precious darling?" she asks, with an intonation as if she were uncertain and wished information whatever on the point.

"I don't know; who is it?" he responds, as if he had no knowledge on the subject.
"Don't you know! Well, this is my precious darling." And she reaches under the tablecloth and clasps his hand, while from her eyes there flows a melting tenderness as she gazes into his face.
"Am II Oh, you sweet, sweet, sweet little darling!" and there is a convulsive pressure of their clasped hands underneath the end of the table.

Meanwhile the water has placed their breakfast before them.

"I ain't a bit hungry," she says with a charming air of languor.

"Aren't you? You poor little sweetheart! Try and eat just a little, just to oblige your ownest own."

She delicately necks like a slender hird at

She delicately pecks like a slender bird at

She delicately pecks like a slender bird at the food and then drops her fork.

"Oh, I can't eat anything. Let's talk." She looks pleadingly into his face and continues: "Tell me again if you love me, darling. Do you, do you?"

"Yes, my beautiful queen; you know I do, don't you, little sweetheart?"

"Whose splendid darling are you? Whose noble boy are you, can you guess?" she queries, with a tone full of wooing sweetness.

"Yours?" he asks, with a tender expression on his face.

"Yours?" he saks, with a teinder expression on his face.
"You know you are my beautiful lover, my splendid darling, my lovely boy! You know you are, now don't you?"
"Yes; I do know. And now who is my idol, my queen, my blue eyed, sweet lipped sweetheart?" sweetheart?"
"You know. It's me!" she says, with rapturous effusion.

And thus they murmur on, the world for-And thus they murmur on, the world for-getting and by the world forgot. There are intervals of silence eloquent with the shifting red and white on the cheeks of the girl, the lights and shadows of her eyes, and the wor-shiping expression of the youth as he watches

"There!" she ejaculates as she recovers her-"Inerel" is e jacunites as safe recovers norself, "somebody has come in. See, he is coming this way. He is where he can hear us.
Isn't it horrld that he should come? We will have to leave, all on account of him."

"I'm so sorry, my angel. We will go out and spend the day together, and you'll be hetter."

"But I'm afraid, my own, that we'll be in-

"But I'm afraid, my own, that we'll be interrupted by intruders. There are so many here, and you're so darling that some of these hateful women will take you away from me, and then I'll die!"
"No, my idol, never!"
A troubled look came into the blue eyes of the girl, touching sadness spread over her face, and her chin quivered from uncontrolable emotions. Suddenly her eyes fell on the display of food and dishes, a flash of inspiration lighted up her countenance and she said, as with a swift motion she picked up one of the dishes: the dishes:
"See, darling, here are some onions. Let us both eat them and that will bind us to-gether. To the rest of the world we will be offensive, to each other there will be no change."

They ate the onions, and instead of the in-dulgence of a vulgar taste it was in the na-ture of a sacrament. It was a compact that bound them to each other and which isolated them from the remainder of the world. It was a guarantee that for a long time she would not receive the attentions of some other man and that he would not flirt with

When I lighted on the true meaning of the spectacle it seemed a charming development of the affection which possessed them. It was a pledge of adhesion that could not be vioa pieage of adnesson that could not be vio-lated; it bound them to each other as with chains of steel; it secured isolation for their love and its sweet manifestation. I rever-ently named it not eating onions but the onion sacrament.

It may be thought by old maids, by younger women whose value run, with sold owners.

batsamic; which electric impulses pass and repass, thrill-ing with their rapturous influences; when her head is pillowed on his breast; when her up-turned eyes beam into his with a bewitching gladness; and when the future seems rose hued, caressing, equable in its felicitous prom-ises.

Let no one mock at these revelations. The Let no one mock at these revelations. The opion sacrament has a broad, deep meaning apart from its superficial observance. It was the suggestion, the creation of a love that was willing to undergo the test of suffering. While redolent to others of an unsavory I flavor, it was to them as fragrant as the sweet breath of roses. It was in their estimate an aromatic incense which was most acceptable at the altar of the divinity of love.—Poliuto in Chicago Herald.

Gaslight a Health Agent.

beithing without an opportunity to say
than a hasty, tender good night.

They chatted for a few minutes before they descended to the dining room. Thus ran their converse, true, genuine love talk:

"Good morning, Willie."

"Good morning, little Daisy. How is my dear sweetheart this beautiful morning?"
Then, nobody being in sight, he put his arms
about her, drew her to his breast, and their lips came together in a long, clinging kiss. A lips came together in a long, clinging kiss. A lips came together in a long, clinging kiss. A
lips came together in a long, the put his arms
about her, drew her to his breast, and their
lips came together in a long, the put his arms
about her, drew her to his breast, and their
lips came together in a long, the put his arms
about her, drew her to his breast, and their
lips came together in a long, the put his arms
about her drew her to his breast, and their lips came together to a long, the put his arms about her drew her to his breast this beautiful morning?"
Then, nobody being in sight, he put his arms
about her, drew her to his breast, and their lips came to contribute to ventilation.

Sharts, they establish active currence withdraw the vitiated air. A cubic foot of illuminating gas can be utilized so as to cause the discharge of 1,000 cubic feet of air, and a common gas burner will consume nearly
of contaminated air that would be extracted from an apartment during that time would be contributed to ventilation.

Sharts of the discharge of 1,000 cubic feet of air, and a common gas burner will consume nearly
of contaminated air that would be extracted
from an apartment during that time would be contributed to ventilation. materially to the purification of the air of in-habited apartments.—New Orleans Picayune.

where my soul, dear, dear sweetheart."

"Oh, darling boy, you flatter me. Oh!" and she laid her head on his breast, and willowy, languid, she gazed with a divine light flooding her blue eyes. "Do you love me, darling, do you love me?"

"Yes, yes, a thousand times yes, do I love my little gir!!"

"Yes, yes, a thousand times yes, do I love my little gir!!"

Again their lips meet as he bends down over the flushed and appealing face.

"How much does my boy love his little gir!-ever and ever so much? More'n all the world!"

"Yes, pettie, more'n all the stars and space all put together."

Then they saunter down the stairway. The YOUNG FOLKS COLUMN.

DEVOTED TO THE PLEASURE AND INTERESTS OF YOUNG READERS.

History About the Man That Befriender the Lion and the Lion That Saved the Man's Life.

ANDROCLES AND THE LION.

and gently squeezed out the poisonous blood and matter around it, which probably freed and matter around it, which probably freet the lion from the great pain he was in, for he again gently licked Androcles' hand and then left him. Soon, however, the lion came bounding back and laid at Androcles' feet a freshly killed fawn, and for several days he brought food in the same manner.

But the frightful solitude of the desert and the four that his saver companion might at

But the frightful solitude of the desert and the fear that his savage companion might at any time forget his act of kindness and turn upon and devour him, were more than An-drocles could bear; so he resolved to return and give himself up to his master, and this he did.

Now his master was at that time making a collection of very large and fierce lions to be collection of very large and fierce li sent to Rome to furnish a show for the Ron people, and when the collection was complete he ordered Androcles to be sent to Rome at the same time with the lions, and that for after being all alone it the desert, now found himself in the arena before a multitude of people, looking forward again to the dreadful fate of being torn to pieces by a lion. At length a hugelion bounded out from the place where it had been kept hungry for the show. With great leaps and roars of rage he came toward Androcles, who stood in the cen-ter of the arena with a short, sword in his emperor did, and also gave him the lion for his own.

Androcles kept and treated as a gentle companion the faithful animal that had, in companion the faithful animal that had, in return for a kind act, supplied him with food and saved his life.

Outward Bound. How seldom we dream of the mariners' graves, Far down by the coral strand! How little we think of the winds and waves. When all we love are on land!

THE HURRICANE COMES.

Man's Life.

Wan's Life.

Wan's Life.

We hear wonderful tales of feats performed by modern lion tamers, but none of them surpass in interest the famous story of Androcles and the lion, which has come down to us from another lion to the famous story of Androcles and the lion, which has come down to us from another lion ty out know; who is it?" he responds, as if he had no knowledge on the subject.

"Don't you know? Well, this is my precious darling." And she reaches under the tablecloth and clasps his hand, while from her eyes there flows a melting tenderness as she gazes into his face.

"Am I? Oh, you sweet, sweet, sweets she gazes tho his face.

"Am I? Oh, you sweet, sweet, sweets sure of their clasped hands underneath the end of the table.

Meanwhile the waiter has placed their breakfast before them.

Androcles and the Lion.

Androcles gave himself up for lost, but the lion, instead of attacking him, stopped before him, laid his right paw on Androcles' lap and with a low moan of pain licked his hand.

Androcles recovered a little from his fright, and looking at the lion's paw, saw a large thorn in it. This he immediately pulled out, and cantly squeezed out the poisonous blood his crime he should fight one of the lions in the amphitheatre for the entertainment of ter of the arena with a short sword in his hand. But suddenly the lion stopped, looked wistfully at Androcles, and letting his tail droop, crept quietly toward him and licked and caressed his feet. Androcles, after a mo-ment of great astonishment, recognized his old hearing Androcles' explanation of it, they begged the emperor to pardon him. This the ration.

These are enchanting hours when the youth and the maiden whisper to each other their passionate thoughts in speech unique but fondly expressive; when smiles ripple over the lips; when all the words are honeyed and balsamic; when clasped hands are a line over which electric impulses pass and repass, thrilling the words are different with a birth participation of the purse is being looked over, count out the pennies and spare some tower, count out the purse is being looked over, count out the pennies and spare some tower, count out the purse and spare some tower. ly good one to give somebody who is very fond of you, the money saved is then brought forth. Just try going without a few things —a car fare now and then, some candies, or the very latest in collars, and dedicate the ducats to the box. You will be amazed to see how they accumulate. And best of all, the saving babit will come to you. That does not mean lack of generosity, it means thought for the future. Some masculine philosopher said women only began to save money when they had passed 30, but if that is true it is because the savings box idea was not taught from youth, says a writer in Examiner.

The hurricane comes, and the hurricane goes,

And little the heed we take, Though the tree may snap as the tempest blows.

And the walls of our homestead shake. But the northeast gale tells a different tale, With a voice of fearful sound, With a loved one is under a close reefed sale On the deck of an outward bound.

Constipation,

F not remedied in season, is liable to F not remedied in season, is liable to become hal flual and chronic. Drastic purgatives, by weakening the bowels, confirm, rather than cure, the evil.

Ayer's Pills, being mild, effective, and strengthening in their action, are generally recommended by the faculty as the best of aperients.

best of aperients.

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills. I deem it both a duty and a pleasure to testify that I have derived great benefit from their ase. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night bedraretiring. I would not willingly be without them."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main St., Carlisle, Pa. "I have been taking Ayer's Pills and using them in my family since 1887, and cheerfully recommend them to all in need of a safe but effectual cathartic."

— John M. Boggs, Louisville, Ky.

John M. Boggs, Louisville, M.Y.

"For eight years I was afflicted with constipation, which at last became so had that the doctors could do no more for me. Then I began to take Ayer's Pills, and soon the bowels recovered their natural and regular action, so that now I am in excellent health."—S. L. Loughbridge, Bryan, Texas.

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good

"Having used Ayer's Pills, with good results, I fully indorse them for the pur-poses for which they are recommended." —T. Conners, M. D., Centre Bridge, Pa. Ayer's Pills,

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

SEVERAL YEARS AGO

took a Severe Cold and allowed it tolsettle on my lungs.
My physician recommended

HYDRATED OIL.

It made me a WELL MAN, and its continued use put TWENTY POUNDS of good solid desh on me inside of 6 months. is Unequalled as a Flesh Producer. PALATABLE, TONIC, DIGESTIVE AND NUTRITIVE.

Onsumption, Bronchitis.
olds, and hronic Coughs, Wasting Disease Send 2c stamp for Dr. G. Overend Drewry's raluable treatise, entitled "Consumption and Wasting Diseases," to

BRISTOL'S

THE INFALLIBLE REMEDY

For all Affections of the LIVER & KIDNEYS

HUMPHREYS'

Geedthe sovereign remedies of the World.

List of Penneral Nos. CERS. FRICES,
1 Feveres, Congestion, Inflammation. 25
2 Worms, Worm Fever, Worm Colic. 35
3 Crying Colic or Received Colic. 35
5 Dysentery, Griping, Billous Colic. 25
6 Cholera Morbus, Vomiting. 25
7 Coughs, Cold. Bronchitis. 25
7 Coughs, Cold. Bronchitis. 25
10 Dysentery, Griping, Billous Colic. 25
10 Dysentery, Billous Stomach. 25
11 Suppressed of Paintal Periods. 25
12 Whites, too Profuse Periods
12 Whites, too Profuse Periods
13 Saily Rheum, Erspielas, Eruptions. 25
14 Sail Rheum, Erspielas, Eruptions. 25
15 Rheumatism, Rheumatic Palms. 25
16 Fever and Ague, Chills, Malaria. 26
26 Whooping Cough, Violent Coughs. 30
27 Kidney Disease. 30
28 Nervons Debility, Physical Weakness. 30
27 Kidney Disease. 30
28 Diseases of the Heart, Palpitation 1.00
Sold by Druggists, or sent postpald on receipt

Sold by Druggists, or sent postpaid on receipt of price. Da. HUMPHERYS' MANUAL, (144 pages) richly bound in cloth and gold, malled free. Humphreys' Medicine Co. 109 Fulton St. N.Y. SPECIFICS. WELLS & RICHARDSON CO. Agents,

A certain and speedy cure for Cold in the Head and Catan in all its stages.

SOOTHING, CLEANSING, HEALING. A certain and speedy cure for Cold in the Head and Catarrh in all its stages. HEALING.
Instant Relief, Permanent Cure,
Failure Impossible.

Many so-called diseases are simply symptoms of Catarrh, such as headache, partial deafness, losing sense of swell, foul breath, havking and spitting, nausea, general feeling of debility, etc. If you are troubled with any of these or kindred symptoms, you have Catarrh, and should lose no time in procuring a bottle of NASAL BALM. Be warned in time, neglected cold in head results in Catarrh, followed by consumption and death. NASAL BALM is sold by all druggists, or will be sent, post paid, or receipt of price (so cents and $1.00) by addressing FULFORD & CO., BROOKVILLE, ONF.
Beware of imitations similar in name,

COLD WEATHER IS HERE If you want a nice winter robe, lap rug, set of harness, horse clothing, blanket, trunk valise or bag, at the lowest possible price, cal TACKABERRY & LOUGHREYS

SPECIAL MONTREAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

THOMAS FIRTH & SONS.

NORFOLK WORKS, SHEFFIELD,

CRUCIBLE CAST STEEL For Axes, Tools, Taps, Dies.

SPRING STEEL, LOCOMOTIVE TIRES Mild Cast Steel Castings.

Is a GUARANTEE of the GENUINENESS of our Manufactures. Please see that this EXACT MARK is

JAMES HUTTON & CO., MONTREAL,

OAK TANNED

The J. C. McLaren Belting Co.

MONTREAL and TORONTO.

Send for Illustrated List and Discounts.

R.C.MACFIE & CO LONDON, ONT. Stock Now Complete In All the Latest Styles of LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S

> WATERPROOF: CIRCULARS WITH CAPES.

Send for Price List.

RAW FURS WANTED

FURNITURE BUYERS, ATTENTION!

JOHN FERGUSON & SONS, WHOLESALE AND RETAIL FURNITURE MANUFACTURERS, Offer their large and elegant stock of Parlor, Dining-room and Bedroom Suites cheap for cash. All the latest styles and finishes in Walnut, Oak, Cherry, Maple and Mahogany Woods.

SEE OUR LINES OF DINING CHAIRS IN LEATHER, CANE AND PERFORATED SEATS.

THE GREAT TONIC OF THE WEST.

THE GREATEST BLOOD PURIFIER IN THE WORLD. If you use TURNER'S TONIC BITTERS pure add no mixture. You will enjoy good health and have a good appetite. If your wife or daughter is delicate procure a bottle for them. Let them take it as directed and it will bring health and happiness to your household. If you or any of your family are troubled with billiousness, indigestion, costiveness, pimples or eruptions of the skin, Turner's Tonic Bitters will thoroughly cure you. It is a purely vegetable Tonic. No drugs, minerals, extracts or coloring are used in its composition. TRY IT. In traveling ask for it. Take no other Bitters and you will be wise. Turner's Tonic Bitters are manufactured by ROBERT TURNER, No. 3 Temerance street, Toronto (late of Brantford.)

Confederation Life

REMEMBER-AFTER THREE YEARS POLICIES ARE INCONTESTABLE

Free from all restrictions as to residence, travel or occupation. Paid-up polic and cash surrender value GUARANTEED in each policy. THE NEW ANNUITY ENDOWMENT POLICY AFFORDS ABSOLUTE PROTECTION AGAINST EARLY DEATH: Provides an INCOME in old age, and is a good INVESTMENT.

Policies are non-forfeitable after the payment of two full annual premiums.

Profits, which are unexcelled by any company doing business in Camada, are allocated every five years from the issue of the policy, or at longitudes to any be-selected by the insured.

PROFITS so ALLOCATED, or at longitude and not liable to be reduced or research and a superior of the policy should be already future time of the profits earned in their class, and for the past seven are entitled to not less than per cent. of the profits earned in their class, and for the past seven years have actually received 55 per cent. Of the Profits of armed.

W. C. MACDONALD, Actuary. LONDON AGENT - G. F. ROBERTSON, 169 DUNDAS STREET

TACKABERRY & LOUGHREY S
Wholesale and Retail, 356 Richmond street,
Sign of the Big Whip.