It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces an sightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing bilindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors." It is a more formidable enamy than consumption or cancer alone, for serofula combines the worst possible features of both. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it. How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparills, which, by the cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. For all affections of the blood Hood's Sarsaparilla is upequalled, and some of the cures it has effected are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula in any of its various forms, be sure to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. IS IT? ine is a compound extracted nal barks, roots and herbs. STRATFORD, May 18.—The case of Wanless vs. Wanless for alimony was tried in the Chancery Court Saturday before defendant, is a sewing machine dealer in the town of Waterloo. His wife, the plaint life, is decidedly a prepossessing young woman, who was married to him on Jan, 5, 1857. The honeymoon was scarcely spent when the husband began to illtreat his young wife and commenced a course of persecution which finally drove her to the courts for protection and support. Her cidence, which was given in a straightforward, candid manner, drew forth a compliment from the bench. It was shown that the husband not only subjected the wife to personal violence on several occasions but had applied to her at various time epithets of the most insulting character. He continually found fault with the way in which she performed her household to leave him, but the signed a promise to amend, and she therefore decided to give him another trial. He, however, din on show any genuine reformation. The defense endeavored to show that the wife was as bad tempered as the husband. In this they failed, and the judge decided in favor of plaintiff, with full coats, the amount of alimony to be fixed by the master in chancery at Berlin.
