ABOUT HAIR

Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Sir.—I have, as you know, for some time advertised in Canada and the States a prescription for the hair called "Dr. Dorenwends Hair Magic." I have received some thousands of flatiering testimonials from those who have used it as to its merits as a restorative of gray or flated hair; also as a promoter of the growth and the state of the state of the care of the growth and the state of the sta but the first mentioned are the main and mose common.

Dr. Dorenwend, an eminent German physician, has given to the world after years of toil and experiment his now famous "Hair-Magic.' The object of this preparation is to assist nature in the production of this oily substance absolutely necessary to the growth of the hair. It is now sold by all reliable druggists at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $3, or will be sent on receipt of price to any address. See that each wrapper bears the seal and signature of the manufacturer.

A case of infanticide was brought to light in a second-class car on the C. P. R. western express on Saturday at Montreal. It was discovered by the bad odor issuing from a trunk, the property of a young moman on the train. An examination showed that the child had been strangled and a verdict to that effect was brought in, while the woman was committed to jail. She stated that her name was Enwright, and that she came from Araprior, Ont. She claimed to have been employed as a domesclaimed to have been employed as a do tic by a Mrs. Shaw, of Montreal.

GOING RIGHT AHEAD.

The Steady Growth of a Well-Known lishment.

The magnificent new front just put in by Mr. T. F. Kingsmill is a credit to the city, surpassing, it is claimed, anything outside the metropolis of the Province. The advancement of this firm has been phenomenal. Starting business about twenty years ago in a small store, Mr. Kingsmill struck out from the beaten track at once by advertising "The Store Without Doors or Windows." This attracted visitors who were soon transformed into steady customers by the formed into steady customers by the reliable dealing and courteous treatment they received. So quickly did their number increase that in about six years he number increase that in about six years he became the purchaser of one of the finest Dundas street stores, which he rebuilt and extended to the other side of the block, opening on Carling street. A few more years saw the firm again crowded for room to show their ever-increasing stock and accommodate their ever-increasing customers, and their carpet warehouse, one of the largest showrooms in Canada, was built. Now they have secured the lease of the store adjoining their original place of business and made one magnificent emporium of the two. The plate glass windows are each sixteen feet wide, and all the departments have been rearranged with a view to convenience and efficiency regardless of expense. The millinery and mantle showrooms are placed on the first floor of the new store, communicating by an archway with the dressmaking department, and will always prove a fascinating place for the ladies. A few of Mr. Kingsmill's strong points as a business man are that he neither incurs expense unnecessarily not beginned to the green of the green of the reconstruction of the content of the place of the ladies. became the purchaser of one of the finest that he neither incurs expense unnecessarily nor hesitates about it when the growth of his business demands it; that he has always been a judicious advertiser, being careful to promise nothing that he is not prepared to perform; that the customens thus gained he has been careful to retain, and that he possesses both taste and tact in purchasing, choosing the best as well as the cheapes
