CEYLON NATURAL GREEN Tea composed only of fresh, fragrant tea leaves. It is to the Japan Tea drinker what "SAL-ADA" Black is to the Black Tea drinker. Sealed lead packets only. 25c and 40c per lb. By all Grocers.

CHAPTER VIII.

"Lord Hurstley's" says Paula, "why, that is near here-well, about twenty miles off

"Is it?" he says. "How dreadful. had hoped that it was at the other end of England." "About twenty miles," says Paula. "It is an awfully grand place-outside, I mean. Of course, I've never been in-

He nods "I hope he's comfortable," he says, "and that he'll stop there. At any rate he doesn't know where I am, so that I am safe.

Unless he should happen to meet "Don't please!" he says, with mock alarm. "Let's change the subject. You want a fresh fly put on," and he takes out his book, but Paula shakes her

"I mustn't stay any longer," she says. "There will be quite enough hot water ready now. I forgot, you don't know my sister Alice." 'Is she as bad as an uncle?" he says. "Can you not stay a little while longwistfully. "It is the best part of the afternoon, and look at the fish!" But Paula has suddenly roused to a sense of duty. "No," she says, "not a moment. I must go; but you need not come, you know. If you go straight up the stream He begins to pull his rod to pieces. "Is that likely?" he says calmly.

"But--" says Paula. He shakes his head. 'Of course I will see you home," he Paula says no more, but stands watching him as he packs the fish in the basket, and puts the rods in their cases; all which he does in his slow, not-to-be-hurried manner, a manner which Stancy de Palmer would give all his dearly-loved trinkets to acquire; and passed into a strange land. then he looks up.

"I'm ready; but it's an awful pity." we hadn't met our friend the proprietor; we should have had those lost

"But the trout weren't rising then," says Paula, simply. He looked at her

"I wasn't thinking of the trout." he responds, gently. Then, after a pause, What a jolly day this has been! I Tom words "I wasn't thinking of the weather," he says, "I was thinking-but I shall offend you, and that would be a poor sort of return for your graciousness." 'I am not easily offended," she says, carelessly, but with a little touch of color in her face, and a little uncertainty in her upward glance.

"I was going to say," he begins, "Not at all easily," she says, with a laugh, "but if you think that you are likely to offend me, perhaps you had "I'll risk it," he says, striding beside her. "I was going to say that fifty times today I have been blessing the chance matter?" that took me trespassing on the Court grounds last night-Paula's step grows a little hurried and her face suddenly takes to itself the hue of the poppy. "I want to forget last night, please," she says, quickly, catching her red under-lip with her teeth. "I do not," he says. "Why should you? After all, there was no harm. Forget it! Why, if I had not gone, perhaps I should never have seen you. 'Very likely not," she says, trying to speak carelessly. rowly-escaped calamity; "and so missed and take your share."

"It was the best waltz I ever had in my life," he says. "I sat up at the inn thinking of it for hours, and wonder ing whether I dared avail myself of and call upon your brother this morn-don't think you could be unforgiving i "Wait until I am thrown off the drag tle, soft sigh. "I shall have tomorrow, at least, I owe this to Mr. Palmer—I

"Thanks!" he exclaims, in a low ship of the trophy, no matter which one voice, as humbly grateful as if she wins. had given him a fortune. "Thanks! bye," and he holds out his hand.

her again, and her eyes, usually so two-minute trotters, ready with their frank regard, fall Mr. Smathers believed again, downcast, and heavy. pointing to the stream, alive with With an effort she raises her eyes and hopes of winning the event. For that not come in?'

open door, then shakes his head. not to intrude again so soon." But he walks to the door with her, says, with quiet decision; "that is, if a minute or two, watching the tall, given at the summer meeting, while boundary dividing a familiar country He had gone; his voice had died PROWESS OF SYSONBY away some minutes ago, and vet it "I'm ready; but it's an awful pity," and he looks at the stream. "I wish we hadn't met our friend the proprie still remained with her: the very touch on her face, entered the house shall look back upon this as a day marked with a white stone in my calmarked with a white stone in my caldrew herself upwight and reached her cars, and with a laugh she stalls that otherwise the provess of Sysonmarked with a white stone in my caldrew herself upwight and reached her cars, and with a laugh she stalls that otherwise the provess of SysonMichaelmag handicap13 whistling gravely between the puffs of G. Greener's ch. c. Oiseau; D. Gideon's Steeplechase Association. G. A. Sais old brier.

"Hello, Paula!" he exclaimed, lookHot Shot; Sidney Paget's b. f. Tradiwill Col. Sewell, of Quebec. In short, ing up! We!l, you are in for it, young tion and ch. c. Jonquil; National Sta- the prospects favor a rattling good "Am I?" says Paula, smiling brave- Schorr's br. c. Jack Lory.

ly, not to say defiantly. "What's the "Murder—bigamy — arson! There's the deuce to pay. Young women who walk about with strange young men alone and unattended are lost to all sense of decency—at least, so Alice says, and she should know." "I like that! Didn't you send me yourself? "True, my child, but I didn't tell Paula flushed. "We've been up to the Court, Bob." "All right, don't plead to me, I'm no use. The judge is sitting in the next "I might have gone away—very like-ly should—today," he continues, with had it warm enough, now you can go ou have really not forgiven me. You will come, will you not?"

[To be Continued.]

They Surpass Other Na-Big Prize at Memphis in tional League Clubs. October.

They have reached the gate by this time and he stands with his hand up time and he stands with his hand up-am half afraid that you do not mean it. Say, 'I will come,' Miss Paula."

Paula looks up—her eyes feel as Lord Derby. C. K. G. Billings, owner of Lord Derby. C. K. G. Billings, owner of the cup, which he won with looks up—her eyes feel as Lord Derby. C. K. G. Billings, owner of the cup, which he won with looks up—her eyes feel as Lord Derby. C. K. G. Billings, owner of the cup, as the content of the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with looks up—her eyes feel as Lord Derby. C. K. G. Billings, owner of the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with looks up—her eyes feel as leg on the cup, which he won with leg on the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with leg on the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with leg on the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with leg on the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with leg on the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which he was already one leg on the cup, which heavy as lead, her heart beats; why, Lou Dillon, captured the event last

The winner will certainly decide the Now I can go and be happy! Good- amateur trotting championship, as well Paula gives him her hand, and as his world, for in Major Delmar and Lou own closes over it with a firm warm Dillon two of the fastest trotters of clasp, the novel shyness comes upon the world will clash-in fact, the only Mr. Smathers believes that Major reason he intends to save the gelding, "Good-bye!" she says. "But will you and he will not receive too much fast He hestitates, looks wistfully at the the turf of Lou Dillon, owing to a cold, to hunch them along. is only temporary. he says; "I feel that I ought AUTUMN MEETING AT WINDSOR. The Windsor Driving Club has decided to hold a fall meeting, Sept. 20 to 22, and puts down the fishing basket and immediately after the conclusion of the red rod. Then, raising his hat, he says Michigan Circuit. The programme will Wagner... be announced in a few days. classes will be much the same as those McGann...

her dark eyes; a look almost of fear, couple of the fastest horses will be Hemphill. as one who had suddenly crossed a seen in a matched race.

KEEPS ENTRIES DOWN

unconsciously; then with an effort famous Futurity stakes. Last year it roused herself, and with the flush still fell to the swift filly, Hamburg Belle, and was worth $36,600 net to the win- as the following figures show: drew herself upright and prepared for stalls that otherwise would probably Tossing her hat on the umbrella- forecast. Owners like to take their ble's b. f. Belle Strome, and J. W. TO BE CONSIDERED the American League Race.

In the race for the American all these happy hours. Of course it was nothing to you."

"Oh, nonserse!" with a toss of the head, but with a comically apprehensive look, for if there is one thing now to be considered. For a time it such to defeat one of the tail-end again. "Oh, nonserse!" with a toss of the League championship four clubs are covered themselves with glory yestersays Fatha, significantly. I am not one of Alice's softly, sweetly-uttered americans, but of late the Athletics gregations twice in one day. have been playing a strong, steady game and they are now within strik-Napoleon is an unusual, if not un-precedented, Christian name to be ladder, eight points ahead of the Bean-borne by the presiding officer of a eaters, who stepped up from third by umn, had suffered a very hard rub or whether I dared avail myself of invitation I had drawn from you, decall upon your brother this mornage."

Belcourt, speaker of the Canadian House of Commons, can address meeting or court in fluent and excellent Highlanders, and the Athletics are leave to the Beaneaters atomed for these years. The speaker of the Canadian to the Boston grounds. But the Beaneaters atomed for these years and the Athletics are leave. The Beaneaters atomed for these years and the Athletics are leave. The Beaneaters atomed for these years and the Athletics are leave. The Beaneaters atomed for these years and the Athletics are leave. The Beaneaters atomed for these years and the Athletics are leave. The Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves. The Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for the St. Louis the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters atomed for these years are leaves at the Beaneaters a the law of health imposes a sentence of perpetual banishment on pain, and Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was originated to the good, with very little prospect of its being rulled down to any noticeable extent. Pittsburg is coming that the last inning. In the Eastern League there were two games of eleven innings each and another of ten innings. Rochecter's dub team took part in one of the longest of the matches and, to the surprise, a Transvaal census. They consider it an intrusion into their private affairs.

Description of the surprise, the matches, and, to the surprise, doubtless, of themselves and their opening four the matches, and th Reds, who started the season so ponents, they won out, making four strongly and galloped along at a lively runs in the eleventh. Toronto pulled

Buffalo still manages to hang on to a score of 11 to 2. first place in the Eastern, with Balti-

THE	AMERICA	N.

New York	4.1	40
Doston	co	42
Cilicago	co	43
Atmetics	70	41
Cieveland	5.6	45
Detroit		57
ot, Louis	40
Washington	40	59
myre-	22	79
THE	NATIONA	L.
	Won.	Lost.
New York	79	- 30
Unicago	C.F.	40
rittsburg	eo.	42
Cincinnati	69	46
St. Louis	58	50
Boston	41	68
Brookivn	97	70
Philadelphia	28	79
	EASTER
Buffalo	Won.	Lost.
Baltimore	58	36
Baltimore	56	37
Jersey City	52	43
Newark	51	43
Montreal	47	45
Toronto	49	51
Providence	39	53

complished horsemen believe that the look like included of the ice wagon gelding will do much better in the league. Individually, and collectively Providence at least. I owe this to Mr. Palmer—I like Mr. Palmer; I could find it in my heart even to like Mr.—Mr. Stancy. Yes, I shall have tomorrow! You will come? You will not back out?"

Paula shakes her head.

"Do not?" he says eagerly, imploringly, "If you do, I shall think that you have really not forgiven me. You have really not forgiven me. You will come will you not?"

Medding will do much better in the near future, when he finds the conditions more favorable.

When the finds the conditions more favorable.

While it is possible that Major Delawar is capable of trotting a mile in two minutes without a pacemaker, his owner, E. E. Smathers, has his eye on a more coveted trophy even than the championship. The New York millionaire horseman, owner of McChesney, will come will you not?"

The McGraw hustlers gum-shoe act. The McGraw hustlers while the other fellows are thinking about it. They are rungetters par excellence, and as it is the little dots that count, the Giants in base crime with Chicago and Brook-attendance. Individually, and collectively the Glants are away ahead in the gum-shoe act. The McGraw hustlers make runs while the other fellows are thinking about it. They are rungetters par excellence, and as it is the little dots that count, the Giants in base crime with Chicago and Brook-atteries—Eason and Vandergrift; La-roy and McManus.

St. Louis is second to the Giants in base crime with Chicago and Brook-atteries—Eason and Vandergrift; La-roy and McManus.

At Jersey City (second game)—

At Jersey City (second game)—

> NATIONAL.124 Philadelphia AMERICAN.126 Washington 80 109 Detroit 97 Philadelphia 90 Boston The Chicagos are well up in the base running has had much to do with their gaining their high position. goes to show that Manager also

The following list gives the ten best individual league: NATIONAL. AMERICAN Flick..... 26 Callahan

TORONTO STAKES ARE WELL FILLED

. 21 Dougherty 17

of his strong white hand lingered in a subtle kind of way upon her arm.

She raised it, and looked at it half cided at Sheepshead Bay, the world-stake has filled uncommonly well, betstake has filled uncommonly well, better, in fact, than in any previous year, As she did so, the sound of "Poor ner. This year it will hardly be worth Toronto Autumn cup (handicap)....24

Michaelmas handicap36

Tossing her hat on the umbrellastand, and making a futile attempt to smooth the ruffled hair, she opened the door of a small room which was known as Bob's den, and in which he generally sought refuge when the aforesaid "kick-up" occurred.

The den was full of smoke, amidst which Bob sat, cleaning his gun and whistling gravely between the puffs of the constant of the majority of the "old guard," as Secretary Fraser aptly sought refuge when the figibles and those deemed likely to start are: J. R. Keene's b. c. Sysonby and b. or br. c. Blucher; H. B. Duryea's ch. f. Tanya, b. c. Pioneer, and br. f. Artful; L. V. Bell's ch. c. Clorifier: J. A. Drake's br. c. Britisher: J. G. Greener's ch. c. Oiseau: D. Gideon's Steeplechase Association. G. A: Sa-meeting, with big fields and keen rac-THE BEANEATERS HAD A GOOD DAY you to stay out all day," retorted Bob, The Athletics Are Well Up in Shut St. Louis Out Twicehighlanders Also Down the White Sox.

> 'Jimmie Collins' Boston Americans ing distance of the leaders. The High- taken out of the feat, for the Bostons,

"Bob was very glad to see you," says Paula, weakly.

"And when I came," he goes on, disregarding her interruption, "and you were so silent, I feared that you had not forgiven me."

"I don't know that I have now," says, with an attempt at a smile.
"I think you have," he says, not perpetual banishment on pain, and Dr. in the pace, lays hands upon it and says, as sentence of pain, and like a guardian of the pace, lays hands upon it and says, in the law of health imposes a sentence of uninterestingly, New York still having a margin of nearly a hundred point.

I thomas' Eclectric Oil was originated to to the good with a guardian of the pace, lays hands upon it and says, in the law of health imposes a sentence of uninterestingly, New York still having a margin of nearly a hundred point. rate for a time, now find themselves trailing at the end of the first section.

Providence, and in the second game had a walk-over, winning in five innings by In all of the big leagues, it was a be: more as the only dangerous opponent. day of good fielding, seven clubs playing without an error, seven having only comers. The winner will be called on one error each, and only three of the to play Ralph Burns, the present holdremainder having more than four. The scores: IN THE NATIONAL At Chicago-

Rain at Pittsburg.

Batteries—Gibson and Farrell; Howell and O'Connor. Umpire, O'Loughlin. Attendance, 14,630. Famous Gelding To Go After Individually and Collectively

The Collectively

Famous Gelding To Go After Individually and Collectively

The Collectively

IN THE EASTERN.

They have reached the gate by this time, and he stands with his hand upon it—his handsome head bent, so that he may look into her eyes, half-shaded from his ardent gaze by the old straw hat.

The third race for the trophy takes place in October over the Memphis track. If Mr. Smathers can win the slowest of the slow. Even the Straw hat.

"Give me your promise," he says. "I am half afraid that you do not mean er of the cup, as he has already one it Say 'I will come.' Miss Paula."

The third race for the trophy takes place in October over the Memphis track. If Mr. Smathers can win the event this year he will become the own er of the cup, as he has already one leg on the cup, which he won with the Memphis $5,000 and the champion Bostons, in the American, as strange as it may appear, are the slowest of the slow. Even the Phillies have the Hubbites skinned. In fact, the champions have a horrible record. In total bases, stolen up to Wednesday the clubs stand as follister. Umpire, Kelly. Attendance, Allister. Umpire, Kelly. Attendance, and Hearn: Kissinger, Greene and Mc-Allister, Umpire, Kelly, Attendance,

Second game called at the end of the third inning, on account of rain, with the score: Baltimore 0, Buffalo 0.

YOUNG HAS BRAINS AND BRAWN, AND MIXED THEM

Patrons of baseball who have been American race, It can be seen that for years and years following Cy Young through the papers, and read-Delmar is a much improved horse over McGraw's idea of having a fast lot the diamond, marvel at the wonderful ing of the great pitcher's exploits on It is only for a moment, however. his form of last year, and he has bright of players is the correct and proper manner in which the big fellow sticks is not the heaviest bating to his work and apparently improves TURF. team that gallops home ahead, but with age. However, when the facts the boys who can get around the in Young's case are considered there work. Fortunately, the retirement from bases without the help of a home run is nothing so wonderful about it. Cy has been pitching professionally about elle, 3 to 1; St. Bellane, 12 to 5; Deresixteen years, and he is considered syke, 3 to 2; Dazzle, even; Conkling, BASEBALL. base runners in each better at present than at any time in 6 to 1. his career. Young is a man of great At Highland Park-Sam Craig, 5 to physique and excellent habits. He in- 2; Jungle Im?, 6 to 1; Easy Trade, 8 Waterloo yesterday. In the first the dulges in no excesses, and takes the to 1; Jade, 4 to 5; Chamblee, 2 to 5; Ferlin Shamrocks defeated the Waterbest of care of his pitching arm dur- Pretension, 4 to 5. ing the ball season. He does not pitch At St. Louis—Sweet Swara, 20 to 1; second was a Canadian League game more than two or three games each Irironshandy, 7 to 1; Yada, 9 to 10; and was won by Waterloo from Berlin, week during the season, and as the Harmakis, 6 to 5; Boodler, 6 to 1; by a score of 11 to 0. season lasts less than six months of Pierce J., 4 to 1. the year the great twirler has the remaining six or seven months to rest 13 to 2; Sweetie, 17 to 10; Flaxman, 11

THE LEAGUE IS TIED.

As a result of St. Thomas winning in and enjoy himself in any manner that to 10; Stroller, 3 to 5; Careless, 9 to 5. a W. O. B. L. game against Woodstock strikes his fancy. At home on his farm at Tuscarora, O., "Big Cy" finds much recreation and beneficial pastime in splitting rails during the winter months. He also puts in some time at hunting and games they defeated two rinks from when the sleighing is good he takes the old gray mare out for a spin over the snow. Cy is a pleasant, wholesouled fellow, and always has a warm Ed. Masuret, welcome for any of the boys who J. K. Spry, visit him on the farm. The big fellow is not over 31 years old now, and living such a careful life as he does, he is good for fifteen years more on the diamond. He never suffers with sore- Dr. English, ness and his erm never feels tired. Cy J. McDougal, Young is indisputably America's game down to a nicety, and being THE OAR. familiar with the various batsmen he knows just how to fool them. Young's pitching is the result of mixing brains with brawn, and he has plenty of both. BRUISER TALKS ABOUT A TEN-ROUND FIGHT

San Francisco, Aug. 22. - Although Jeffries is very reticent and seldom talks about his plans, the night before he left Harbin the champion relaxed, and said: "Well, I think I'm in good in shape for it." counted on to take the agressive. Jeffries and Munroe are now putting on the finishing touches. Today Munroe did a big day's work. Kid McCoy giving him all the boxing he could stand. He will quit work tomorrow, after which he will taper of Jeffries also put in a good day with the punching bag, and weights, followed boxing and a row on Lake Merritt.

fries opened a 10 to 4 favorite. No large wagers have yet been placed. STRATHROY WINS THE W. O. L. CHAMPIONSHIP tario Lacrosse League was played yes- the corporation. terday at Strathroy between the home phy presented by the league. The Sarnia, Parkhill and Strathroy.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

3 and following days. The events will ship.

singles, men's doubles, ladies' singles, ladies' handicap singles, mix-ed doubles. Entries close at 6 p.m. tournament—the open singles for the intimates his belief that the British almost as many. The tournament is open to all, and the It is this action which the friends of CHILD, SOFTENS the GUMS, ALLAYS low railway rates during exhibition Mrs. Maybrick used as a means of per- all PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is ela Africa to 17th, 1904.

WESTERN FAIR September 9th LONDON.

Entries Close September 8th. BRIGHT PROSPECTS FOR SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITION.

Entries coming in rapidly-ahead of previous years. New Buildings. New Exhibits. New Attractions. Special attractions the best ever offered (see official programmes now ready.)

FIREWORKS DISPLAYS will be on grand scale, magnificent spectacular representation of

"BOMBARDMENT OF PORT ARTHUR" FIVE EVENINGS.

For Prize Lists, Programmes and particulars address LT.-COL. W. M. GARTSHORE. President.

J. A. NELLES, Secretary.

OPENING OF THE MEET AT READVILLE, MASS

The Grand Circuit meeting at the Readville, Mass., track opened yesterday with good races. The summaries: 2:06 pace, purse $1,000; 2 heats: John M., blk. g., by Harris...... Nathan Strauss, b. g.. Sufret, blk. m..... Pan Michael, ch. h.... ascade, br. g.

Fuzzy, b. Time—2:08¼, 2:07¾.

The Blue Hill, 2:30 trot, $5,000; 3 in Alexander, b. m., by Star Duroc. 1 John Caldwell, b. g. Ruth C., g. m... A. Penn, b. h... Time—2:09¾, 2:09½, 2:10¼, 2:20 trot, purse $1,000: Bonnie Russell, b. h., by Coniter... Hydrastine, ch. m. Delmar Gregor Kyril'ye, ch. h.

YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS. At Saratoga-Ishlana, 6 to 1; Roy-

BOWLING. ASYLUM RINKS WON. The Asylum rinks were again victorious yesterday, when in two good the London Rowing Club. The score: London Rowing. Asylum. Dr. C. A. Sippi, Dr. J. Gunn. Geo. Thurling, Wm. Lind.

H. Harvey, skip......12 skip19 A. Topping, J. Hazard. C. B. Edwards. Dr. Harris, L. Graham Dr. McNaughton. skip..... skip12

Majority for Asylum, 5 shots.

ARGOS WERE CENSURED. Toronto, Aug. 22. - At the meeting of the executive of the C. A. A. O. here today a resolution was passed censuring the Argonaut Rowing Club and the Auto's captain, F. H. Thomp- to St. Marys tomorrow afternoon to Handed to Lou Scholes.

London, Aug. 23. - A letter to the condition to go ten fast rounds, and if Referee, signed "A Tideway Veteran," Roques and her agents and representathe fight lasts to twenty I ought to be on "Hero-Worship at Home and Over- tives. The answer upon its face appears His expression said certainly that he sea," says: "Because colonials make to give rise to two principal questions, didn't think it would go beyond ten. national heroes of boat-rowers does of Mrs. Maybrick, of which so much From what Jeff has let drop to his not appeal to me as a reason for our has been heard in connection with the trainers it is evident that he is mad going and doing likewise. All that sort agitation for her release, is a myth; clean through against Munroe, but of thing seems to me to show a sad and, second, as to whether, Exart from want of sense and proportion and a what the facts may be as to Mrs. Maywhen Jeff had a sore knee that the had a sore knee that the Then, too, all of Jeffries' backers are mass of colonials and Americans are Roques were characterized by any should constitute a national hero. The tween Armstrong and Mme. betting that the fight will not last be- distinctly behind English opinion as semblance of fraud. regards what is tactful and natural in the matter of social amenities. This. in part, no doubt, arises from their provincial touchiness about their dignity and prestige of one sort and ar other, and their overwhelming anxiety London Combination Which Will to assert the superiority of their people and institutions over those of the oid country. Betting on the fight has begun. Jef-

Fooled Government.

championship of Ontario-should pro- Government was tricked into giving defeated at the association's recent regatta at St. Catherines. Allen was of intermediate standing.

> TOWNS BROKE EVEN. Two games of ball were played in > on Saturday, all the teams are now

PLAYERS FOR 1905.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Aug. 22.—Secretary Bruce, of the National baseball commission, today gave out a list of players purchased by the major leagues for the season of 1905, including the following-National League-Chicago from Syracuse, Frank Schuitze; Brooklyn, from Albany, McGamwell, Cargo, Pastorius; Brooklyn from Gloversville, C. Malay. PLAYERS EXCHANGED. Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 23. - During the past week the Cleveland club made an important trade, Hickman being given to Detroit for Charlie Carr. Of late Hickman had not been playing his game, and as Carr for some reason had become unpopular in Detroit, it was

thing for the players, as well as the clubs, so the deal was made. TO PLAY AT ST. MARYS. The team of Scandrett Bros, will go thought an exchange would be the best son, for rowing an illegible man, Al- play the Stone Town nine. CANADIAN HERO-WORSHIP the British Government allowed her to eave prison on a ticket of leave. In his answer Armstrong maintains An Englishman Objects to Reception The answer is voluminous, consisting of fifty typewritten pages and goes minutely into the details of Armstrong's transactions with Mme. Von national heroes of boat-rowers does the first being as to whether the estate of Mrs. Maybrick, of which so much

WORLD'S LARGEST BANK

Far Outstrip Any Others. "Take, for instance, Scholes, who as- Monthly announces that in London a serted his Canadian independence during practice at Henley by sailing about in a seedy, old blue sweater with a ragged collar, for all the world like ragged collar, for all the world like myself on any winter Sunday morning at Hammersmith, which is not exactly Henley. When this gentleman returns to Toronto he is met by the list, or the Lloyds Bank, Limited, and returns to Toronto he is met by the military and paraded about streets in trict Banking Company, Limited, The The final match in the Western OnThe final match "Here, prizes at Henley are given the world, and will overshadow even the big Government banks, like the team and Parkhill. Strathroy won by a away in a great hurry just before go-score of 8 to 2. The team wins the tro-ing to dinner, the services of the mili-Banking laws here and in England Banking laws here and in England tary and civic authorities being disteams in the league were Petrolea, pensed with, and the winners, as a of English banks to have branches rule, not showing up, but having their pots sent round to their lodgings with this is a vital influence in bringing bob to the porter. There certainly is about mammoth banks abroad, while no marked improvement of the crews it restricts the similar growth of FIXED FOR SEPTEMBER at the regatta over the sixties and American institutions. State banks seventies when the eyes of Europe and in New York and most of the other the world were not invoked upon for- states have this privilege, but the eign entries at Henley." The Tideway charters of these are not so liberal The Ontario lawn tennis champion- Veteran does not think we do any good and are not regarded with the same ships will be held on the courts of the to the best ideals of English rowing by favor as those of national banks, Toronto Law: Tennis Club, on Sept. importing colonial notions of hero-wor- which also have the valuable and profitable privilege to issue notes Championship singles, open to all MRS. MAYBRICK IN A RUSE Many of the state banks have a number of branches, and trust companies locally and in other sections are developing on the same lines er. Handicap singles, men's novice Document Hints That Her Friends largest number of branches of any of our state banks is very small compared to those maintained by the At Chicago—
R. H. E. Chicago — R