189 Dundas St. 429 Hamilton Road DARING RUBBERY NEAR CHATHAM

Peddler Assaulted and Robbed of His Money and Jewelry.

Chatham, Oct. 15-A daring dayligh? obbery was perpetrated about three o'clock this afternoon in the suburbs of the town, when antonio Enion, an Assyrian peddler, who lives on Fourth street, was assaulted and robbed by an inknown negro. It appears that the negro met the peddler in the morning and bought some trivial articles from him. Then he told Enion that he could find a good customer for him near the cemetery. The Assyrian started for the cemetery accompanied by the negro at 3 o'clock. When they reached a lonely spot on the road about a quarter of a mile from the city limits, the negro suddenly turned and struck the peddler on the head with a billy, and robbed him of $25 and a quantity of jewelry that he carried in his pack.
