When the team struck here it was raining, and at 19 o'clock it was officially anonunced that the game was called off. An hour later the rain stopped and the sun came out, but a cold wind followed. MELVILLE SHEPPARD Despite the weather drawbacks, Manager Dick Cooley of the Topeka team, insisted that the game be played.

The weather was anything but ideal, and the players wore double wraps on the diamond. About 75 people shivered in the stands. The Tigers had little ambition to work, and were fortunate to the the gard and were fortunate to the the game. Detroit used three pitchers, Summers, Stroud and Pernoll Assingle, followed by a triple off Summers, and an infield out gave Topeka two runs. In the fourth Stroud made a wild followed, and another infield out netted two more runs.

ORAL BETTING IN NEW YORK WILL SOON BE ILLEGAL

Agnew-Perkins Bill Advanced for th Third and Final Reading at Albany Yesterday.

[By Associated Press.] Albany, N. Y.. April 5.—The Agnew-Perkins bills prohibiting oral bookmaking and repealing the exemption from personal responsibility which members of racing associations now enjoy under the the Percy-Gray law, were advanced to the order of final passage in the Assembly today, after a vigorous effort to have them recommitted for a hearing. This course was combatted by Assemblyman Perkins, backed by Chairman Fowler, of the codes committee, both of whom declared that during the two months the bills were in committee not a single request for a hearing was received. Mr. Clarke, of Brooklyn, who represents Topeka, Kan., April 5.—Hughie Jennings' Tigers played a tie game today, the score being 4 to 4.

At the end of the ninth time was called in order to permit the visitors to catch a train for Kansas City.

Mr. Clarke, of Brooklyn, who represents a district in which race track interests are prominent, insisted that his constituents were entitled to hearing.

Assemblymen Hoey and Foley, of New York, took the same view, but suggested that the proper reference was to the judiciary committee. The attempt to recommit the bills failed.

ote being 45 to 70, and another 37 Minority Leader Frisbe was one of few Democrats who opposed recomnittal on the final vote.

The only car in Canada of the kind. For years there has been a call for a real sevenpassenger touring car which would give all the accommodation and comfort necessary, but which would cost much less to buy and maintain than the regular seven-passenger type.

Do you realize that at last such a car has come? Do you know that today you can buy a Russell model specially designed for seven-passenger service at this low figure? Here is an automobile that is strictly highgrade in every respect. A long car, 120 inches wheel base, large wheels, 36 inches all around and economical.

No man who has needed capacity in his car for sevenpassengers, can fail to appreciate the importance of this splendid model.
