Progressives Name a Committee to Help Along the Movement.

At the regular meeting of the East End Progressive Association Thurslay night, Rev. E. Appleyard, of St. Matthew's Church, spoke on behalf of the playgrounds movement, inauguratin favor of establishing a playground for the children of the East End in The playgrounds fund has reached Queen's Park. The object of the asists sociation is to improve East London, and to his mind no better improvement could be undertaken than to provide a playground for the children. A committee, composed of Messrs.
