Minister in German East Africa Not Heard From Since July.

Some anxiety is being felt here concerning the safety of Rev. T. B. R. Westgate, D.D., who is stationed at Kongwa, German East Africa, and from whom no word has come since last July. His territory, it is pointed out, is situated in the country of the enemy, and his friends are wondering how he is far-

Fresh From Mexican War, a Youthful Fighter Goes to Valcartier.

Fred Knight, soldier of fortune, and the veteran of so many battles that if he had a bar for each engagement in which he has taken part he would be able to make a suit of mail from them, landed in London yesterday and ap-MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED BY proached Capt. E. V. Buchanan, of the W. G. R. Bartram, 59 Dundas street. signed on for the overseas contingent. Of course it was impossible to accede to his request as recruiting for the first contingent has been closed, but as Knight was very insistent, he was sent to Valcartier in charge of one of the cars of remounts last night, and will take his chance of being able to enlist with one or other of the Canadian units. Failing this, he says he will cross to the old country and enlist there. Although only 25 years old Knight has had a career of adventure such as few RTHUR E. NUTTER, ARCHITECT- older men have had. He was born i Scotland of good family, his father being colonel of the Highland Light Infantry, but he left home as a lad of 12 and managed to get across to America
