Bridal Flowers

The wedding bouquet, together with the other flowers incidental to a complete setting, is no longer considered a detail, but is indeed the representation of the entire wedding program.

The flowers should stand the ordeal of heat and congestion, and such flowers must be carefully selected and professionally handled.

We have a corps of experienced florists, whose bouquets never leave their fingers in a jaded condition, because they are accustomed to the requirements of their work, and take pleasure in meeting them adequately.

Elaborate settings of flower screens, pagodas, canonies for home or church weddings. Simple weddings carefully set.
