Income Tax Department Is Checking Up Some Sarnia

SARNIA, Aug. 8 .- A number of local businessmen received a rude shock today when they were officially informed from the income tax headquarters in Death List in Pacific Tragedy London that they must pay their taxes that are in arrears, and that those who have failed to pay 1919 and 1920 taxes ill face court prosecution. Sarnia, according to an income tax official who recently visited the city, as many offenders, and some business men, according to this official, have alled to make the proper returns to the Government. A man is expected from the department to shortly check up a number of businessmen who are suspected of having failed to make proper returns since the tax was enforced. NEW MODERN MILTON RUG BRICK

REPORTERS BARRED. TORONTO, Aug. 8.—Following the formal speeches of welcome given by provincial and local officials this morn-provincial and local officials this morning to the brotherhood of railway carmen, the delegates swung into business this afternoon with all doors of Massey Hall most carefully tyled. Newspapermen who effected an entrance had just time to glance around before they were politely ushered outside. It is against the rules to smoke in the hall and, as railwaymen are heavy smokers, the sidewalks on Victoria and Shuter streets were crowded all afternoon with delegates out for the odd puff. From these it was learned that the early part of the afternoon was spent in calling the roll.

Abitibi was unchanged at 30; Brompton weakened a point to 21; Dominion Stel was quiet at its opening figure of 26½; Laurentide was ½ point to 71½; Riordon did not vary from its opening quotation of 3, which is a new low.

Have Grown Rapidly.

In his speech, President Ryan recalled that when he was in Toronto in 1909 his organization was fighting to get into the International American Federation of Labor. "We were a small organization then, but now we are inside Have Grown Rapidly tion of Labor. "We were a small organization then, but now we are inside and are the fourth largest in America presenting 250,000 railwaymen."

T. C. Cashen, president of the switchmen, in his remarks referring to wage cuts, said: "I am fearful, if something is not done to compose the situation, that something is going to happen." He told of meeting the heads of the eastern roads in New York. "We received no satisfaction," Mr. Cashen stated. "We are going to Chicago soon to meet the heads of the western roads."
