Inclosed you will find man's crochet tie for Crip-pled Annie, and if she hasn't re-ceived the words to those pieces she requested, i'll send them also. I wonder if anybody would like the reading entitled "Country Eggs." I think it is very good, so I will send it if wanted. Please find mite.

Thank you, Katy, for the numerous nclosures, all of which are very useful in the Mail-Box. Many thanks for the hospital mite.

Dear Friends of the Mail-Box .-

MRS. HOMEBIRD RETURNS.

One of your old correspondents is once more beating her wings gently on the old Mail-Box. If she is bidden to come in, she will gladly chat with you a little while. I remember, in almost my first appearance in your midst, I came asking you to share in the joy of our "Sunshine Baby" that had fallen into our nest. But now I am coming in sorrow, for the "dear Daddy" has been called from us after long illness and suffering. I have my little Sunshine—now a school girl—to comfort me, and give me an interest in life. I had thought to write more, but all the faces are strange after my long silence, and they chill me. Where are you, Faded Lily, Rose of Sharon, Sunflower, March Wind, Polly Bixly, and many others? Did Lonely ever find the right kind of a girl, with the right kind of a face, under the right kind of a hat, I wonder. I beg your par don? Did I vote? Well, did you not notice a slight tremor of the earth about 3 o'clock? That was when my vote dropped into the box MRS. HOMEBIRD.

We are all very pleased to have you ack again, Mrs. Homebird, but we are very sorry that you bring such sorr with you. Come back soon, as we rea
