Trouble Between Rickey and Star Revives Old Rumor.

New York, Sept. 11.—Reports of ouble between Rogers Hornsby and ranch Rickey, his manager, have vived the old rumors that the St. ouls slugger was likely to come to ew York. McGraw has always been illing to add Hornsby to his team, ad now that Groh is showing signs slipping he could use Hornsby view icely at second base, shifting Frisch third.

The addition of Hornsby to the The addition of Hornsby to the lants would very likely mean a four years championship for the New York club, something the other clubs would do almost anything to prevent. The Yankees look good enough to go out and win again next year, and with rivalry as keen as it is in the big city, the Giants will put forth every energy to get a winner. ery energy to get a winner. Hold Secret Meeting.

News has leaked out of a secret eting held here recently to discuss Stoneham case. It is said that he session was attended by Commis-lioner Landis, who happened to be in the city at the time. Although all bresent agreed to give out nothing for publication, it is learned that it was decided that nothing could be done.

"There will be no forced change of ownership of the Giants." That is the statement made by one of the stockholders who is close to Charles Stoneham, whose indictment recently made it somewhat embarrassing the National League "There is nothing that the National eague can do, and there is nothing hat any authority can do, to bring out a condition of proprietorship fering from that existing now," he stinued. "The club cannot be sold Stoneham without consent of one his partners, and right now there I his partners, and right now there a no reason to believe that he has my inclination to sell. He is not in he mood to be driven from the game, and all talk of action to take over the Hants is bunk, pure and simple. The National League has made no such fort because the league knows very rell it can't do a thing."

Would Resent It. If prize-fight interest should buy control of the Giants, the conserative element of the fans would rent it. On the other hand, if they d buy the control conditions would be much different than they are w, as the grounds are given over fights which promise big receipts. ture so far, the deficit being esti ited in the neighborhood of 30,000. QASEBALL| ST. KITTS PAIR DEFEAT FORSTER AND FAIRFUL

Special to The Advertiser.

Guelph, Sept. 11.—Harry Hodgins and Ed. Burgess of St. Catharines were the winners of the Cooke Trophy in the Scotch doubles tournament here this afternoon, defeating Rev. Father Forster and Bob Fairful of London in the final game. The score was 20 to 8, but this hardly indicates the play, as every end was very keenly contested, with the St. Kitts pair getting almost every break in the game, and this had a great deal to do with their winning the game, although Burgess played lovely bowls all the time, while Fairful did not play up to the form he had displayed in his previous games. Burgess took the lead at the beginning of the game and were never headed. At the conclusion the winners were presented with the trophy and the handsome prizes which went with it. In the association they are down to the final, but it will be early in the morning before the final result will be known. R. Logan, Hespeler, and Geo. McPherson, Guelph, are the opposing skips in this event. The consolation is well along, but it will be even later when the final game in this event is played. Hume, Hamilton, R. Mahoney and R. H. Brydon, Guelph, Warren. Queen City, Toronto, and N. MacDonald, Guelph, are still in this competition; Following is the final score in the Cooke Trophy competition:

Associated Press Despatch.

Syracuse, Sept. 11.—Taureda. Alonzo McDonaid's fleet little bay mare, won the 2:08 Empire State $10,000 trotting stake here this afternoon, the Grand Circuit feature, from a speedy field of six trotters, beating out Clyde the Great and Fanovian, the favorites. Taureda trotted the fastest competitive mile of her career in the second heat, when she was clocked in 2:04½.

Just prior to the start of the Empire State trotting stake Fayette National ran away and orashed into the fence, upsetting McKay and breaking the sulky into fragments. Police, in an attempt to stop the gelding, crashed into Tommy Murphy, piloting Clyde the Great, upsetting the sulky and dumping Murphy to the track. Clyde the Great was captured after a short run when forced into the fence by a trooper. His flank was scraped and Murphy's shoulder was injured, but the pair went to the stables for repairs, and reappeared to race in the $10,000 event.

Jack and Firpo Let Beards Grow

Special to The Advertiser.

New York Sept. 11.—Jack Dempsey and Luis Firpo began today what each regards as the really serious business of preparing for their heavyweight title bout next Friday night.

Champion and challenger both started to let their beards grow. Each has shaved for the last time before the fight, and two of the hairiest men in captivity will be led into the ring at the Polo Grounds when Joe Humphries, veteran announcer, begins his: "Wh-ohohoh-rls, Hea.v-v-y we-gh-h-t ch-a-ampion bout, etc."

Both Jack and Luis are great believers in the theory that a lot of hirsute padding keeps the doctor away and cuts down the bills for smelling salts, and each believes firmly in looking his worst on the occasion of an important fight.

Experts at both camps concede that Jack, who usually outscowls his opponents and succeeds in looking more disreputable may have met his match.
