Rescue Crew.

Associated Press Despatch. Boston, Feb. 19.—The five-masted schooner Santino, bound from Nor-folk to Bost in with a crew of 12 men, today reported herself as sinking, 38 miles northeast of Nantucket lightship. A radio message relayed to this port said that the schooner had 14 feet of water in her hold and ported to be standing by, and the that she was on her way to aid the distressed schooner and would probably be alongside by 7 o'clock to-

RUB RHEUMATISM

PAIN FROM SORE

What is rheumatism? Pain only. St.

Not one case in fifty requires inter-

Jacobs Oil will stop any pain, so quit nal treatment. Rub soothing, pene-trating St. Jacobs Oil directly upon the tender spot and relief comes instantly. St. Jacobs Oil is a harmless rheumatism and sciatica limment, which never disappoints and cannot free from rheumatic and sciatic pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don' backache, sprains and swellings .-

Facial

Blemishes

Sallow, muddy, roughened or ally due to constipation.

When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating suffer! Relief awaits you.

drugging.

burn the skin.

for sciatica,

Advt.

ACHING JOINTS

District Markets

Baported for The Advertiser by Staff Correspondents

Brantford, Feb. 18. — That zero weather is no time to open root cellars was evident by the very slack offerings of vegetables in the open market on Saturday morning. It was the smallest market of the season. Some eggs were offered and quite a number of chickens, alive and dressed. The inside market was brisk, 'ard just as plentifully stocked as usual, with crushing crowds passing and repassing. About 30c a pound was asked for poultry weighing from four pounds up, while eggs still four pounds up, while eggs still irm at from 50c to 60c a dozen.

CHATHAM.

Chatham, Feb. 18. — Market quotations Saturday were as follows:

Potatoes, No. 1 grade, $1.25 per bag;
No. 2 grade, $1.10 per bag; onions, 25c per peck; green onlons (hothouse grown), 10c bunch; turnips, 75c bushel; beets, 75c bushel; carriots, 75c bag; parsnips, 40c peck; pumpinks, 5c to 15c each; cabbage, 5c to 10c each; lettuce (hothouse grown) 30c pound; cauliflower, 5c to 10c each; celery, 8c to 10c bunch; red cabbage, 10c to 15c each; CHATHAM. bunch; red cabbage, 10c to 15c each; beans, 12c to 15c quart; maple syrup, 90c quart; honey, in comb, 20c to 25c each; hickory nuts and walnuts, 15c quart Quart.
Egg, 40c to 45c dozen; butter, 38c to 40c pound; cream, 30c to 35c pint.
Chickens, 85c to $1.25 each; ducks, $1 to $1.35 each; rabbits, 35c to 50c

Pork, fronts 16c, hinds 18c; hogs' heads, 40c to 75c each; headcheese, 20c pound; dressed hogs, $17 cwt.; dressed mutton, 10c to 12c pound; beef, fronts 10c, hinds 12c to 14c pound; beef tongue, 40c each; baby beef, 12c to 15c pound. New hay, $12 to $13 ton. Live hogs—No deliveries this week owing to extreme cold weather. Grain market — Corn, 70c bushel; beans, $2 to $3 bushel; wheat, $1.10 to $1.15 bushel; oats, 40c to 45c bushel; barley, $1.0 cwt; bran, $28; shorts, $30. Hides and Wool—Cow hiles, &c pound; horse hides $2 to 3; calf skins, 15c to 20c pound; wool, washed, 15c to 20c pound; wool, washed, 15c to 20c pound; 20c pound; wool, washed, 15c to pound; unwashed, 12c to 15c pound

EXETER. Exeter, Feb. 18.—Market quotations: Wheat, $1.12: Manitoba flour, $3.95; pastry flour, $3.45; model flour, $2.70; feed flour, $2. oats 50c; barley, 60c; bran, $1.45; shorts, $1.50.

Daily butter, 36c to 39c; creamery, 47c; eggs, 36c; lard, 17c to 20c.

Hogs, $10.

GALT. Galt, Feb. 18.—There were slight advances in market prices here Saturday, which were: Butter, 43c to 45c; eggs, 50c to 55c; potatoes, $1 bag; onlons, 55c basket; apples, 70c to 75c basket; chickens, 30c pound.

Guelph, Feb. 18.—Prices at the local market on Saturday, with a plentiful supply of produce to be had, were: Eggs, 60c dozen; butter 38c to 40c pound; chicken, 30c to 35c pound. Potatoes, 80c bag; apples, 45c to 75c basket. Beef, 11c to 15c pound; pork, 14c to INGERSQLL.

Ingersoil, Feb. 13.—The severity of the weather and the bad state of the roads were the conditions responsible for a small attendance at the market on Saturday. Fresh eggs, which were offered in limited quantities, ranged in price from 42c to 45c dozen, and butter sold at 38c to 45c pound.

PETROLEA Petarolea, Feb. 18.—The following are the market quotation for Petrolea: The market is somewhat slow, owing to the cold weather, the farmers being unable cold weather, the farmers being unable to bring produce to town.

Wheat ranged from $1.10 to $1.12; parts, 45c; barley, 55c to 60c; corn. 84c. Hay is very plentiful in this district, selling at $10 to $12.

Butter sold from 40c to 45c; eggs, 35c to 40c dozen; chickens, 25c; fowl, 29c; ducks, 30c; geese, 20c.
Beef, per carcass, 9c to 11c pound; fronts, 7c to 7c; hinds, 9c to 13c; veal, five. 8c to 11c; dressed, 18c to 20c; hogs, $9.50 cwt; dressed, 15c; lamb, 9c to 12c live; dressed, 18c to 24c.

vindle.

Vegetables were scarce, and confined or cabbage, 10c upwards; turnips, 20c peck; carrots, 25c peck; beets, 25c for quart basket; celery, 3 for 25c; pumpidns, 150 up.

There was a fair display of home saking.

Hay was $13 a ton.

Potatoes brought $1.25 bag, cabbage 10c up.

The butchers' section was busy at the following prices: Boiling beef, 10c ppund; steak, 25c; roasting beef, shourder, 15c; rib roast, 18c; sirloin, 20c to 22c; pork roast, 25c.

DEGRADING TO GIRLS

Speaker Declares Parents Should Exert Greater Control Over

St. Marys. Feb. 17.—Market quotations for this week vary only slightly from last week. Trade was brisk, in spite of the bad weather, as Friday and Saturday were held as Dollar Days.

This week's quotations are as follows: Wheat, per bushel, $1.10; barley, from 55c to 60c; oats, 40c to 45c; shorts, per ton, bulk, $22; bran, per ton, bulk, $27; feed flour, $15; flour, $2.85 to $4; apples, barrel, $3.50; esss. dozen, 38c; butter, pound, 25c; hogs, cwt., $10; hides, 7c; No. 1 timothy hay, $3 to $10.

ST. THOMAS. St. Thomas, Feb. 18.—Owing to the continued cold weather, Saturday's offerings in general were small, and a poor attendance was in showing. Prices ranged as follows: Butter, 45c pound; ranged as follows: Butter, 45c pound; eggs, 48c to 50c dozen; honey, in comb, chickens, $1.25 to $1.50 each; ducks, $1.25 to St. Thomas, Feb. 18.-Owing to the TILLSONBURG. Tillsonburg, Feb. 18.—Although some f the roads were still blocked after the of the roads were still blocked after the severe storm, the attendance at the market on Saturday was much better than a week ago. While the amount of wood offered was much larger, it was disposed of quickly at prices ranging from $4.50 to $6 per cord. The following prices ruled today:

Potatoes, $1.10 bag; onlons, $1 per bushel.

bushel.

Live togs, $10 per cwt.

Cheese, 30c to 35c; dairy butter, 40c to 42c; creamery butter, 45c to 48c; eggs, 40c to 45c dozen.

Flour, $4.25; feed flour, $2.25; shorts, $28 per ton.

Barley, 60c bushel; oats, 55c bushel; wheat, $1,10 bushel. There was a large offering of excel-lent meats, with practically no change in prices from last week.

WATFORD

Watford, Feb. 18 .- Market prices were as follows:

Grains—Wheat, $1.10 bushel; oats, 45c bushel; barley, 55c bushel; corn, $1.55 cwt.; bran, $26 ton; shorts, $28 ton; middlings, $32 ton, $1.65 cwt; feed flour, $40 ton; $2 cwt.

Vegeables—Potatoes, 20c peck, $1 bag; carrots, 18c peck, 70c bushel; parsnips, 18c peck, 70c bushel; onlons, 45c peck; lettuce, 45c pound.

The speaker pointed things that were don of the law in dance 1 done openly, and for the not easy of detection.

"The proprietors of may not know that the wilfully broken in their may not directly same of the O. T. A. but of the county of the propriet of the proprietors of e pound. Eggs, 38c to 39c dozen; butter, 30c to Eggs, 38c to 39c dozen; butter, 30c to 36c uonnd; cheese, wholesale 24½c to 27c, retail 32c to 38c pound.

Poultry — No. 1 quality: Spring chickens, 6 pounds and over, 15c to 20c; 5 to 6 pounds, 13c to 18c; 4 to 5 pounds, 10c to 15c; under 4 pounds, 8c to 13c. Old hens—5 pounds and over, 18c to 21c; 4 to 5 pounds, 14c to 17c; under 4 pounds, 10c to 13c; old spurs, 7c to 12c. Young ducks—Over 5 pounds, 15c to 19c; under 5 pounds, 12c to 17c. Geese—10c to 15c.
Old tom turkeys, 16c to 22c; old hen

Geese-10c to 15c. Old tom turkeys, 16c to 22c; old hen turkeys, 18c to 25c; young turkeys, over 9 pounds, 22c to 28c. Wood, dry, cord, $6; green, $5. WINDSOR.

Spot cotton closed quiet. Middling uplands, 28.50c.

A few apples sold at 45c to 50c for per ton, $11.

New York, Feb. 17.—Cotton futures closed steady. Closing bids: March, 28.40c to 28.41c; May, 28.78c to 28.80c; July, 28.30c to 28.31c; Dec., 25.91c to 25.95c.

Charles Walmsley & Company

LIMITED (CANADA) 6% First Mortgage 20-Year Bonds Price 971/4, Yield 61/4% .

JOHNSTON AND WARD

Dominion Savings and Loan Building, London Members: Montreal Stock Exchange Toronto Stock Exchange

Our New Bond List

We have just completed a new Bond list describing fully a wide selection of high-grade bonds, embracing Provincial, City and Town Bonds, as well as bonds guaranteed by Canadian Provinces.

The list includes complete details of a number of bonds of Canadian Cities yielding from 5.75% to 5 7-8%. These should appeal strongly to investors who desire the highest interest returns compatible with the safety afforded by bonds of substantial muni-

> Write for a copy of this list. It will interest you.

Wood, Gundy & Company

Toronto, Winnipeg London, Ont. Royal Bank Chambers London, Ont

Montreal New York London, Eng.

NEW AND USED

WARNS AGAINST EVIL OF CITY DANCE HALLS

Rev. Dr. Green Tells Congregation of Dangers of the Amusement Houses.

Declaring that he had been inluenced by the experience of a member of his own congregation, Rev. Dr. Green, of Talbot Street Baptist Church, discussed on Sunday night the influence of the dance halls on the lives of the young people of Lon-

"The father came to me only short time ago and told me that his ing rather late. As he went to kiss her good-night, he smelt whiskey on her breath, and asked her where she had been, and what she had been Dr. Green said, with the informa-tion he had at hand, he was not going nore information, he would not hesitate to name the places he meant.

"My address tonight is not intended to be an indictment against the dance halls, but rather as a warning, not so much an attack on the enemy, but an alarm that the enemy is at hand and we cannot afford to be sleeping," Dr. Green said in introducing "The Dance "Do not go away with the Danger.' idea that all young men are bad, or Some young men are bad and some young women are frivolous. And do not run away with the idea that the young men and women of this congregation attend the dance hall. I could not point my finger at young man or young woman of this church and say: 'You go to those damnable places—the dance halls.'

Not Done Openly.

The speaker pointed out that the things that were done in violation of the law in dance halls were not done openly, and for that reason were

"The proprietors of these places may not know that the law is being wilfully broken in their places; they may not directly sanction a breach things that have come to my attention are true, they are sanctioning outrages of common decency. We

"Thirty years ago, in the city of Derby, there was only one ball given in a year, but since then there has been a regular flood of dance halls and theatres sweeping over the coun-There is a modern madness for pleasure. Some of our young people ount that day lost that bring to them some wild pleasure. realize the need for social good thing if the young people of (mayor), and seconded by William A. Wilson (ex-chairman of the board of works, and father of the start of the second of th to me to be in a position where, in five or ten years from now, you, young woman, could come to me and say: Why did you not tell me that the dance hall was the very ante-room to hell.' I do not want you to go down the primrose path to ruin, and then say to me, you never said a word about it. It might have been different if you had warned me, but different if you had warned me, but before I knew it the grip was on.' I am not referring to any particular dance hall. They are all tarred with the same brush. The dance hall lo2½ yesterday and sold at par today, "I fully believe that the company. "I fully believe that the company with our requests."

whom he wants as the mother of is children from the frequenters of dance halls. Would you want the type of girl who lives for that sort of thing? Girls, if you attend the dance halls, and meet the men there, it never enters their head to propose marriage to you. Dancing is not all, because many men don't go there just to dance; that is simply the first step. Many men go there with the basest motives that ever found place in a human breast. They will give you whiskey to gain their ends. wind does it mean when a vulture wind come along and coax a girl to take whiskey that he may gain his suming country in the world. Re-

These four strangers went into the dance hall and picked up four young their business—Advt. girls whom they had never seen before, and danced with them. One by one, these men would slip out from the dance hall and get a drink from a bottle concealed in the car, and back to the dance floor again, and it might have been your daughter that any one of them was holding the his arms at the time. in his arms at the time. A plain collateral 6 per cen clothesman of London was around this amount $3,250,00 and saw the performance—and right the market shortly.

All the Theatres

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday "The Ruling Passion," featuring George Arliss. Thursday, Friday, Saturday— "The Dangerous Age."

GRAND

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, evenings, 8:15; special matinee, 2:15—Robert B. Mantell, Genevieve Hamper in Shakespearean repertoire. Monday night, "The Merchant of Venice": Tuesday night, "Macbeth": Wednesday matinee, "As You Like It." Wednesday night, "Julius Caesar. Thursday, Friday, Saturday-"In the Name of the Law."

PATRICIA

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday -Tom Mix in "Arabia." Thursday, Friday, Saturday— Harry Carey in "Good Men and

LOEW'S

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday -Adolph Zukor presents Bebe Daniels, Conrad Nagel in "Singed Wings." Vaudeville Thursday, Friday, Saturday Louis B. Mayer presents Reginald Barber's production, "Hearts with Anna Q. Nilsson, Frank Keenan. Vaudevile.

here I will tip my hat to the police

One Safe Way. "There is only one refuge, there is only one safe way, to keep clear of all these pitfalls and that is through the Lord Jesus Christ. I might plead with you to be careful for the sake of your father and mother, but want to put the plea on higher ground, and in the name of him who that all young women are frivolous, is lost. I never knew a man or a woman who had a new vision of serfor the Master who had from the dance hall." The pastor closed his address with an appeal to come out and make a clean-cut deci-

City Hall Briefs

"Count that day lost whose descending sun not seen another investigation

Which precipitates the casual comment that nothing has been heard recently concerning the inauguration of the O. T. A., but if some of the of the "city officials' union," predicted three weeks ago by the Free Press. The initial gathering was to be staged on the Federal Square beare told that this is a peculiar age; hind the signboards, but it snowed that night. 'Nuff said.

Speaking about the Federal Square, it may be mentioned in passing that John T. May, an alderman residing Hood." I expected the figure named on Ridout street, near King street, still insists that an admirable location for the new city hall would be Ridout street, near King street.

shoulders. But there is a mad rush, venomous and deadly, fonight and tomorrow night.

Almost Unpardonable.

"To ask some of the young people of the city to remain home two nights in succession is almost unpardonable. It would be a mights."

But there is a mad rush, the inner circle along about July of August, when the warm weather yarns take precedence. Not in 1922. This is the year for action, and three councillers have already been picked as likely possibilities. This is not for publication, however.

To not in 1922.

This is the year for action, and three councillers have already been picked as likely possibilities. This is not for publication, however.

To not in 1922.

The inner circle along about July of August, when the warm weather yarns take precedence. Not in 1922.

This is the year for action, and three councillers have already been picked as likely possibilities. This is not for publication, however.

To not in 1922.

To not in 1923, but indeed we was assembled, but under my picked as likely possibilities. This is not for publication, however.

To not in 1923.

To not in 1923, and immense amount of work was done on "Robin Hood" before the cast was assembled, but under my picked as likely possibilities. This is not for publication, however. It is moved by George Wenige control of father and mother until they were 21 years of age. There is a danger of throwing off parental control too early.

"My reason tonight for speaking on the dance hall vice—and I want you to put that word vice in great big letters—is that I want to be to you a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. It would be a heart break to me to be in a position where, in that stellar attraction—the annual debate over estimates. It is just possible that an expression of public opinion will be sought this year, in order to determine who is right the school trustees or aldermen.

is reported to be the result of buying will comply with our requests," Mayor

If I were a young man who wanted to get looked upon as respectable and upright, I would not want to be seen coming out of a dance hall. They are places where moral standards are lowered. Do you mean to tell me you can bear the name of Christ and be found in a place like that! You cannot serve God and mammon.

Would He Choose Girl?

"I would ask any young man," stated Dr. Green, "if he would choose"

"I would ask any young man," stated Dr. Green, "if he would choose"

"I would be only fair," he reasonits cheaper fare, is the vigorous conten-tion, however, by Ald. Judd. "It would be only fair," he reason-CANADA'S TRADE ADVANCED ed, "if the company now introduced

DURING PAST TEN MONTHS a new scale, say 24 tickets for a dollar, with 28 workingmen's tickets for tinued to grow during the ten months corporated in the contemplated agreetremember this, they flatter you, but of the fiscal year closing with the end ment. It never enters their head to propose of January. Canadian trade totalled May

ENGLAND DRINKING MORE TEA. 25 cents. There are some girls, too, cently her annual requirements have

Will not be able to resume institutions of the will not be able to resume institutions of the shareholders of the will be asked to ratify an issue of 20-year general mortgage and collateral 6 per cent bonds of a total aggregate par value of $5,000,000. Of this amount $3,250,000 will be placed on the market shortly.

will not be able to resume institutions in the London yards for some time.

G. T. R. EARNINGS DECREASE.

Montreal, Feb. 18. — Grand Trunk Rallway system traffic receipts for the seven days ended Feb. 14, 1923, as compared with the same period of 1922, were: 1922, $1,907,722; 1922, $1,941,096; a decrease of $33,363, or 1.72 per cent. SPECIAL MEETING CALLED.

Fairbanks' New Principle of Preparation Means Much | BURNS, LOSS $750,000

Mary and Her "Efficient" Husband Have Interesting Plans For Future, Including a World Tour.

BY HALLETT ABEND. Special to The Advertiser.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 16 .- "I'm for showing three days after the last not an actress. I'm just a personality-a sort of an institution. That's all the public will let me be." This picture industry financially, was the plaint Mary Pickford made to me today during the lunch hour I spent with her in her bungalow on the Fairbanks-Pickford lot in Hollywood. We sat on either side of the fireplaces in the large pastel-timed living room, and the heat from the large oak log was comfortable, for large oak log was comfortable, for the gusty wind that came in from the Pacific was cold, and the sunshine which alternated with sh owers every half-hour was bright but lacking in

It was while we sat there talking that Miss Pickford admitted for the first time that the plans for filming 'Faust" have been abandoned. There she made her first announceme publication that Ernest Lubisch will remain permanently as her director She also touched frankly on the plans which she and Doug have for the next year and a half, and on Charlie Chaplin's plans too.

"The transcript as Mr. Lubitsch and Edward Knoblach worked it out of London as far as I know them—with the result that the young man was fined $200 for breach of the O.

T. A., and he paid it.

and Edward Knoblach worked it out was wonderful, simple and moving and strong," she said, with a wistful look in her face. "But Marguerite is too different from the kind of parts I've been doing for so long. The break from the girlish roles must come gradually—just as Douglas broke away from his old lighter nodern roles only by degrees. "Douglas laughs at me when I assure him he's a great actor, but I know he is one just the same. And the public would not have accepted him in 'Robin Hood' if he had not one first 'The Mark of Zorro' and then 'The Three Musketeers.' Soon prospects for him will come through and he will justly rank as a great At this point Douglas Fairbanks himself came strolling in from the pantry—munching something that sounded like celery or unbuttered toast. They made a striking looking pair as they stood there on the hearth—Mary, small and blonde, clad in an afternoon gown of black velver richly ornamented with a deep color red; Fairbanks in a suit of dove gray with hair stripes of white, and he thought he'd better shoot himself or something because everyone told him he'd never equal it in the future his wife with real pride and indigna-Without thought of turning up a "story," but merely because of interest, I asked how many feet of had been "shot" for "Robin would be enormous, for Griffith took 130,000 feet for "Way Down East": Von Stroheim 190,000 feet for "Merry portion of the county grounds on Go Round," and there is, as a rule, scene was photographed." What this method of preparation will mean to stabilizing the motion what it will mean artistically, not be overestimated. In a business sense it means building a film from hand. Incidentally, the cutting was all finished, and the film was ready a carefully-estimatted amount of material—as a competent contractor builds a house. Artistically, it makes for a close-knit production with real supervision, in contrast to the queer hodge-podges which the outters for the studios often turn out after fumbling for weeks and months with tens of thousands of feet of inconsequential shot on chance.

We talked, of course, of the success of 'Robin Hood,' and Doug said Due to Preparation.

Fairbanks left us alone after we had talked for a time of "Robin Hood," and then Miss Pickford admitted one of the reasons she has given up making "Faust" at this ime is because she could not find good Mephisto. I suggest that her husband would have done well the part-and I meant it. too.

"In the light of scenes-yes." conceded. "I urged him to take the part, and so did Mr. Lubitsch, but he always countered with: 'Can you imagine anyone taking me seriously as the devil?'

"Well, now, I am going ahead with my plan. Within two weeks I think I'll be in front of the camera again. And Douglas is busy on his pirate picture. After that I'll probably do 'Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall.' ity. Can you imagine anything finer than a jaunt of that kind? We will and sail on and on. New York finally, then down the Gulf of Mexico and home by the Panama Canal. We will have about 50 of our friends as guests—Let's hope we are all on speaking terms when we get home

"Douglas would like to go as soon as we finish one more picture, but I say no. Our public and our release obligations must be considered. The theatre-owners have their rights, you both get two pictures ahead we can have our trip. That will take well into the fall, and by the September Charlie Chaplin will have directing, with Edna Purviance as a star. Then we can all go."

Lubitsch to Stay. "So we've decided that when w

I was curious about the rumors that Lubitsch would not remain on the Pickford lot. Gossip is always plentiful in Hollywood, and gossip has been to the effect that Lubitsch. with his decisive ways and his habit of making stars, rather than meeting half way the wishes of stars already world-renowned, had found Mary Pickford too unyielding, or had him self not been yielding enough to suit wind declared the specified of the specified and the specified of the spec

TO DRAFT AGREEMENT

FOR STREET RAILWAY Civic Committee Will Outline Obligation of Company in Respect to New Cars. It is intended that the London branch of the city department.

A special committee, comprising chairman of the finance committee. IN ST. MAURICE PAPER and Ald. Leonard Douglass, chair-term at least. man of the board of works, will confer with City Solicitor T. G. Meredith, and draft a suitable agreement them set a price of six tickets for by falling between two freight cars and striking his head on the icy ground, is reported as favorable. Mr. Ogilvie is still confined to his bed and will not be able to the still confined to his bed and

Kingston Convict Sends Tax Return

Though Wearing Stripes, He Observes Civic Regulation.

pression that you can successfully dodge the civic income tax assessor, just consult Sam Glass, chief of that Street Railway Corporation know In the morning mail he encountered today just what its obligations shall an income tax return from a former In the morning mail he encountered be in order to permit the operation of Londoner now sojourning in the Kingston Penitentiary. The party in Mayor Wenige, Ald. Albert Judd, question submits his earnings as "nil" which exempts him for this

If you are laboring under the im-

Assessment Commissioner Bennett explains that this results as a misundertanding. The notice was directed to the last place of employment, under the natural supposition that the person involved was still at his daily duties. The employers forwarded the document to Kingston, doubtlessly in

Obituaries

MRS. MARGARET ANN WALKER Mrs. Margaret Ann Waiker, widow of the late Jos. S. Walker, died at her home, 181 Maple street last night, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Walker, who was 57 years of age, is survived by two sons, A. l. Walker, chief clerk of the C. P. R., Ottawa, Feb. 17.—Canada's trade coninued to grow during the ten months corporated in the contemplated or the Bank of Toronto. Mrs. Walker was a daughter of John Ferguson The funeral will be held from her late residence to Mount Pleasant Cemetery on Wednesday.

> TRAIL RANGER MENTORS IN CHARGE OF SERVICE

The Trail Ranger Group was in The effire transportation problem at King Street Presbyterian Church ends. There are some girls, too, who think a young man is quite a hero if he can break the O. T. A. and give a girl a drink. There are places where young men meet in the day time and glory over these things of the night before."

"On New Year's night four young men drove to London from a neighboring city to have a night of it, and they drew up their car beside one of London's far-famed dance halls.

"An and greatly increased due to a largely increased consumption. This stronger in the council, however, when the mayor's 62-bus scheme will be subjected to a vigorous discussion.

"I will have more information to submit in that connection," he promised.

"Every boy is a dreamer, but the counting in the condition of W. H. Ogilvie, yardmaster of the Grand Trunk in the continent, has recently been forced to a vigorous discussion.

"I will have more info is skated for early consideration by Sunday. The mentors, Walter Skinthe council, however, when the ner. Marshall Wilson and Kenneth must have, charm, fort, originality, optimism, modesty, sympathy and loyalty. He also stated that we have had a perfect example of man, and should make Him our ideal, and not

MOTION PICTURE STUDIO SCHOONER SANTING

Cosmopolitan Productions Suf- Coast Guard Cutter and British fers Heavy Loss in Satur-Freighter Stand by To day Blaze.

Special to The Advertiser. New York, Feb. 19.-The motion picture studio of Cosmopolitan Productions was destroyed by fire on Saturday.

The loss was estimated at $750, 000. The entire contents of the studio, which covered a whole block, her pumps were broken down. The were ruined either by fire or water.

British freighter Egremont was restar, lost her entire wardrobe, valued at $10,000. All the scenery and sets for a new picture, "Little Old New York," a picture only two-thirds finished, were destroyed. The fire, which been caused by a cigarette butt.

footage was discovered by Richard Glaud, a Firemen were handicapped in fighting the flames because of the zero

BRITISH WILL ALLOW FRENCH RAILWAY

Enable Troops to Move Supplies Into Occupied District of Ruhr.

Associated Press Despatch Paris, Feb. 19 .- The British have "And then? Oh, then this much-talked-of trip around the world in a late the railroads between Neuss, gist, and in just a moment you'll be southwest of Dusseldorf and Duren, 20 miles due west of Cologne, in the head a party from here to the Orient British zone, for the purpose of assuring the operation of supply ser- lions of rheumatism sufferers in the vices for the forces of occupation in last half century, and is just as good the Ruhr, the French cabinet was officially informed Saturday by M. Letrocquer, minister of public works. ccepted the French proposals effect in principle. be discussed on the spot

> NEW ACT WILL PROTECT HURON & ERIE FROM LOSS

British area, and General De military governor of the Ruhr.

commanding

General Dudley,

savings company.

The application that The Huron & September Charlie Chaplin will have Erie Mortgage Corporation are to make to the Canadian Parliament at the next session "for an act approing, accepting and ratifying a certain agreement made between the cor-poration and the Dominion Savings and Investment Society, providing for the purchase by the corporation the assets of the society and transactions contemplated thereby, s not, according to solicitors for Huron & Erie, Cronyn, Betts & Black actually a necessity under prevailing legislation. Mr. Betts stated to The Advertiser that this procedure precautionary measure company may adequately their clients and shareholders The act asked for makes valid all deeds or titles of any assets that the

MOTHER, CLEAN CHILD'S BOWELS WITH "CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP"

Even Cross, Feverish, Sick Children Love its Taste and it Never Fails to Empty Little Bowels be disappointed in our dreams.

An appeal was made by Jag. Lindsay, on behalf of the Trail Rangers asking for support.

Thirty boys of the club were present, and a delightful feature of the service was a violin duet given by Raymond Turner and Fred Lee.

Hurry, mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If your child is constipated, billious, for babies and children of all ages are printed on each bottle. Say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—Advt.