IWO NEW FIREMEN

Fire Chief Aitken Explains

Holiday Season Reason For Delay in Change.

COUNCIL INDIGNANT

Declaring that if the fire chief did not put into effect the council's order oday regarding the changing about of the firemen on fire prevention inspections, he would suspend Fire

Chief Aitken, Mayor Wenige promised

'action" on the matter tomorrow.

However, the first chief, following telephonic instructions from City

Cerlk Baker, has acceded to the order passed by No. 1 committee last night and placed two new men on the job at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

"The city clerk called me up at 12:15," said Chief Aitken, "and I am prepared to carry out the orders that have been given me."

"When will you carry them out?" asked The Advertiser.
"Right away," replied the chief. "I will place the men on the job at 1

"You had orders from the council regarding the changing of the men wo weeks ago, didn't you?"

"The reason I did not make any hange right away was because the

ON INSPECTION

ON ROUTE IN CITY

-Other Services As Yet Undecided

TWO MORE READY

Two buses, each with a capacity of 30 passengers, started operation early East London to the Wharncliffe road n West London. Two other buses, wned by the Metropolitan Bus combany, commenced on the Hamilton road, run later on in the day, but may possibly be switched to the South London bus line.

The buses caused much favorable omment on the street, and Dr. Dougin bringing the bus company to London, feels sure that the people will patronize this method of travel at the 5-cent fare and transfer system that has been put into effect by the

No Action Likely Over City's Equity

Would Receive But $5,000 Insurance If County Court House Destroyed.

of the city in the court house is nearly equal to that of the county, there is a $45,000 difference in the amount of insurance carried by the two corporations, it was made known today.

The building is valued at over $100,000, and the county carries $50,-000 insurance. The city carries but $5,000. In event of the destruction of the building the county would obtain nearly sufficient to replace the structure, while the city would receive only $5,000.

As far as can be learned no actio. is contemplated by the city to remedy

OFFICERS TO CARRY OUT INSPECTION OF DISTRICT

Militia to Practice Tactical Schemes

Officers representing the various militia units and members of the headquarters' staff of military district No. 1 will hold a staff tour in the vicinity of London on Nov. 16 and 17, according to Col. F. Gilman. It is expected that tactical schemes will the county of the staff tour in the vicinity of London on Nov. 16 and 17, according to Col. F. Gilman. the vicinity of London on Nov. 16 and 17, according to Col. F. Gilman.

It is expected that tactical schemes will be carried out without troops on the ground. Representatives of cavalry regiments, artillery, infantry and machine gun sections will be present. It is likely that two officers. He could not speak. And Patenaude, if he spoke at all, spoke only in riddles. He was a sphinx. And riddles. He was a sphinx. And against such a live wire as Calder he could not resurgent Quebec youth.

It is likely that two officers are the could not speak. And Patenaude, if he spoke at all, spoke only in riddles. He was a sphinx. And against such a live wire as Calder he could not speak.

sentation from the other arms of the service.

The officers will be divided into on posing groups. They will cover ter-ritory according to plans land as in warfare and carry out measures of defence and attack.

EVANGELIST DECLARES SALVATION AIM OF CHURCH the French vote. The English vote

Services are being held every night this week at the Church of Jesus Christ (Latter Day Saints) on Maitland street, near York, conducted by French paper for him, except rected a political ghost who goes Evangelist William Fligg of Kansas | Evenement, the Globe of Quebec around saying 'I am Bourassa's

Last night Mr. Fligg spoke on the of the Church of Christ, declaring the church should be represented as fully today as in apostolic three. said that if the church in the primition for an existence today unless its organization were identical with Christ's church, and that it should meet the purposes for which it was created—the salvation of the world.

BUSINESS CARDS

Lumber for all building purposes; sash, doors, frames and interior trim; full line of Bird & Sons roll roofings, asphait, shingles and wall board. L. H. MARTYN & CO.

TENDERS will be received for washing and kalsomining or murescoing the ceiling of Melrose United Church. Tenders received up to Oct. 24, 1825. Apply to Mr. J. Carling Gray, Komoka, Ont. R. R. No. 4, con. 7, lot 30, London Township.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Mice Marion McGinley of the City of ondon, in the County of Middlesex, and Province of Ontario, married woman, will Province of Ontario, married woman, will apply to the Parliament of Canada at the next session thereof for a bill of divorce from her husband, Alfred Emison McGinley of the said City of London journalist, now residing in the City of Montreal, in the Province of Quebec, on the ground of adultery and desertion.

on the ground of adultery and desertion.

Dated at London, Province of Ontario, the 29th day of September, A. D. 1925.
FRANK H. CURRAN,
Bank of Montreal Chambers, Talbot
St. and Market Square, London, Ont 95i-w Solicitor for the Applicant.

Mortgage Sale of City Property

UNDER and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage, hich will be produced at the time of sale there will be offered for sale on Monday, Oct. 19, 1925, at the hour of three o'clock in the afternoon, on the premises, by George R. Gardner, Auctioneer, the following property:

Parts of lots nine and ten, Block "B" plan No. 343, commencing at southeast angle of lot ten, on west limit of Cathcart street, thence running north thirty of-way over the horth three feet six inches north of above land, subject to a right-of-way over the north three feet six inches and land, the rights-of-way running seventy-five feet back. The said land, the rights-of-way running seventy-five feet back. The said land, the premises a two-story wick veneer house.

The financial pages of the Montreal Star and Gazette, with their prosperity arguments, do him more harm than the editorial pages do him good with their blue ruin arguments.

At the "Conservative" headquarters in the Home Bank on St. James street, resplendent with the tricolor and the picture of Mr. Patenaude.

"He is of no assistance to Patenaude His very appearance on a Pataenaude platform forcibly reminds or beak on the great betrayal of 1911 and is convincing proof of the essential, underlying cynicism of the Patenaude pose.

"Quebec of the great betrayal of 1911 and is convincing proof of the essential, underlying cynicism of the Patenaude pose.

"Quebec of the great betrayal of 1911 and is convincing proof of the essential, underlying cynicism of the Patenaude pose.

"Quebec of the great betrayal of 1911 and is convincing proof of the essential, underlying cynicism of the Patenaude pose.

"Quebec of the great betrayal of 1911 and is convincing proof of the essential, underlying cynicism of the Patenaude pose.

"Quebec was trapped once. It won't be trapped again. Hermenber.'"

He is of no assistance to Patenaude wantage if some protibly reminds on the path of a bank or the great betrayal of 1911 and is convincing proof of the essential, underlying cynicism

TERMS.—Ten per cent of the pur-hase money to be paid at the time of ale and the balance within thirty days sale and the balance thereafter.

For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to GEORGE R. GARDNER, ESQ., Auctioneer, 389 Clarence St., London, Ont., or to T. W. SCANDRETT, ESQ., Solicitor for Mortgagee. 98 Fundas St., London, Ont. 0.10,15

TWO BUSES START PATENAUDE'S FINISH SEEN JANISSE TELLS AS CAMPAIGN WARMS UP

Operate Now on Dundas Street Quebec Anti-Liberal Leader Carries Heavy Handicap in Own Political Record and in That of Such Followers as Lavergne and Other Old Companions.

from Taschereau in 1923.

progress in Quebec.
"We should repeat 1923 in 1925, for

"In 1923 there was no great reason

Even if it were not forgotten, Mr. Patenaude would not suffer, they

"In 1917, as he had no mandate for onscription, he went home. He represented the true sentiment of Que bec. He does not inherit any of the hatred for Meighen."

He also represented the true Que damentally a protectionist, and he would like protection all the better when it was served up under the label of Cartier and Macdonald and not of

There was this further argument for Patenaude. He represented the party of the young, of Armand La-vergne and youthful Quebec-loving Quebec The Liberals had all the old fogies. The Patenaudes had all the enterprising young lawyers, the budding political orators weary of sit-ting on the side lines and waiting for one chance out of a hundred to break

"It is, in fact, Cardin, the son of a carpenter and once a carpenter himself, 'le gars de Sorel,' who is the country committee rooms for his pic-

He was a young Laurier, the great-

Lavergne's Star Waning.

Montreal portrait painter, "was twenty years ago an 'enfant terrible,'

"Armand Lavergne," said this precocious political infant.

"But he has lived at least four political lives, Nationalist, Liberal, In-dependent, Agriculturalist and Conservative. He is a very old man politically, as ancient as the pyra-mids. Young Quebec laughs at his wrinkles and prefers the boisterous stand why he is opposed to any re

the senate, the cynical unreformed

In short, he could see no possibility of 1911 history repeating itself.

MEETING AT "Y" MONDAY.

"All Lavergne has achieved is a bec sentiment in the matter of pro-tection. Even the habitant was funerals have come over to us by a Staff Reporter.

Montreal, Oct. 14.—In 1911 the Nationalists won 27 seats in Quebec and thought the conservation is making from the conservation in Conse ended the Laurier regime. Are there this afternoon on the Dundas street any signs that Patenaude is going to the Liberals who revolted against run from the McCormick factory in have the same success in 1925 and Taschereau and supported us are still overthrow Mackenzie King? The Advertiser put this question to Alfred Legault, who is the chief Lib- for the financial interests to support eral organizer for the 42 seats in the Sauve. They were well satisfied with Montreal end of the province. His reply was as follows:

"The same attempt is being made today as in 1911. But it is a clumsy historical parody which is more likely to be a success of laughter than a success of politics.

"The factors are not the same. Then the air was electric and everyone could see a storm coming. Now, there are no storm clouds in the sky. There is only Mr. Patenaude, a nebulous genie, manufactured by the Montreal Star and Gazette."

"Now, we can logically expect aid from Liberal financiers. The province is now not prosperous."

It was felt that it was absurd to say that Patenaude is not an outstanding figure in Quebec.

Sauve was the man behind in 1923. He had charge of the organization the Island of Montreal. That success has given him prestige in the rural districts.

"We had on our side the cities and montreal Star and Gazette."

Mr. Legault added, "I am open to conviction. Show me the seat he is certain to carry. It is not his own.

He will be beaten in Jacques Car tler"

"We had on our side the cities and labor in the provincial fight. There is no conflict between town and country in Quebec. The country will now follow the example of the cities. Conscription is not the issue. That Mr. Legault is alderman of Ahontsic ward. He has an intimate knowledge of local conditions.

"Lafortune," said he, "got a 3,000 majority in Jacques Cartier in 1921. It then included Notre Dame de Grace, which gave Meighen 2,500 votes. The redistribution has struck out Notre Dame de Grace."

Mr. Legault is alderman of Ahontsic forgotten."

Even if it Patenaude w claimed, "In 1917, as conscription, in 1921. It then included Notre Dame de Grace," he does hatred for Mr. Legault's oninion that Paten-

Mr. Legault's opinion that Patenaude will be beaten in his own riding by Theodule Rheaume, a popular and witty orator, is the prevailing opin-ion in Quebec.

Patenaude Policy Vague.

Would Sir George Perley, with the prestige of his high commissionership would Sir George a composition of his high commissionership and the lure of his high protection, win in Argenteuil?

"No, sir," said Mr. Legault. "Perley won't get it. The Liberal, K. L. L. Legault, is a very popular man in Argenteuil."

Caban with his pression of the composition of the compositio tige as defender of Father Delorme, twelve in Quebec. Don't forget that men's standard-Searer, beat the Hon. Herbert Marler in St. we are starting federally from At noon tomorrow beat the Hon, Herbert Marler in St. we are starting federally from Lawrence-St. George in the heart of nothing."

Montreal?

"No, sir. Marler will have a majority greater than in 1921 when he beat Ballantyne by 2,500, although the latter had over 1,800 paid workers."

riddles. He was a sphinx. And he "For success in Mount Royal Quebec was not Egypt. It had no admiration for sphinxes. defiration for sphinxes.

Patenaude would not get the Engtional reverence for age. Patenaude would not get the English vote. The English remembered him as a 1911 Nationalist—a pale imitation of Mr. Bourassa—and then later a remorse-stricken, panic-stricken bolter from the Borden cabinet on the subject of conscription.

His anti-Borden, anti-Meighen record was being played up to eatch.

His anti-Borden, anti-Meighen record was heing played up to eatch.

was a minor objective. Journalistic Support Restricted.
"But two English newspapers are his chief press support. He has no graveyard. They have merely resurcity."

"Those two papers," said Mr. Lethey alienate Mr. Monty's out of desperation, accepted the worst of all political offers of mar-

Never once has Mr. Patenaude tive age were formed to meet the given Mr. Monty a word of thanks. Patenaude is older than purposes of God, it had no justifica- After all Mr. Monty had done for the Lapointe or Cardin. Conservative cause, one month before the election he had rudely been pushed aside to make room for Mr. Patenaude, who had sat in the shade on spokesman for the Quebec youth of the veranda of his golf club at today. This campaign is a great Laval-sur-le-Lac while Mr. Monty, personal triumph for Cardin, wherwho has somewhat the build of Mr. ever he goes he gets an ovation. We Taft, had risked sun-stroke by de-livering 5-hour open-air orations on behalf of Mr. Meighen. This was ture." rank ingratitude, and Quebec hated gratitude.

"It is," said the Liberal organizer r Montreal, "significant that Fafor Montreal, "significant that Fa-patriarchs, an old livery stable teux, Belly and Normand, once parade Cardin was what young prominent Meighen campaigners, are men and young women admire-a not candidates

"As a matter of fact, many men who once worked for Meighen have Patenaude's commander of the Que ome over to us. Mr. Patenaude has bec citadel, the finest example of ir and to resurrect some archaic porpressible Quebec youth? itical figures to serve as his candi-

Vainly Sought Gouin Blessing.
The interviewer recalled the maxim of the Hon. Bob Rogers that elections were not won by prayers. It was said everywhere that the Patenaude party was exceptionally well supplied with the sinews of war. supplied with the sinews

Might not victory be on the side of the big bank rolls? The Hon. Bob Rogers has been in Montreal, and is reported to have sledge-hammer invective of Lucien been in conference with Mr. Patenaude," remarked Mr. Legault. "But money is not the dominant influence devastating cynicism, and cynicism in Quebec elections. in Quebec elections "They have spent a lot of money stand why he is opposed to an advertising. They organize big meet form of the senate. His place ings. They have a clique as a nucleus of applause. Bands of students rush in to root for Mr. Patenaude. "He is rush in to root for Mr. Patenaude.

"But it would be more to his advantage if some president of a bank or big corporation would speak on big hebalf. He has angled for some and is convincing proof of the essential underlying cynicism of the Patenaude.

He is of the sound and is convincing proof of the essential underlying cynicism of the Patenaude.

street, resplendent with the tricolor and the picture of Mr. Patenaude—not Mr. Meighen—a battalion of French-speaking clerks were busy mailing out blue ruin pamphlets with such titles as "Leur Oeuvre de Mort"—"Their Work of Death".

"Their Work of Death." After all, there is no place like the lome Bank for financial depression. But to balance this, St. James treet Patenaudists were politically Street Patenaudists were politically hopeful.

A meeting of the members of the senior section of the Y. M. C. A. will be held on Monday to plan for the thanksgiving supper, which will be based on the 21 seats won by Sauve held in association building Nov 10.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Above is Commissioner and Mrs. Lamh of the Salvation visiting in the city while on a world tour. Commissioner the emigration department of the Army in Great Britain.

SORDID STORY

Woman Facing Trial For Life Collapses After Evidence of Husband Is Heard.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Windsor, Oct. 15 .- At the conclusion of this morning's evidence in the murder trial of Ruth Janisse, the prisoner collapsed as she was led from the box and had to be carried with us, and many protectionist Libhusband, who is to stand trial on the same charge when this case is fin-ished, was still on the stand at noon, following an entire morning spent in telling of the tragic love triangle which resulted in the death of Clay-ton McMullin, the "other man," by a bullet fired by Mrs. Janisse two nonths ago.

Janisse's story was the old one of unfaithfulness to marriage vows, complicated in this case by trans-mission of physical infections. While Mrs. Janisse lay in the prisoners' box with her head pillowed on the side rail apparently too weak to sit up. the widow of the murdered man sob bed aloud in the court room as the story of her husband's infidelity was unfolded, and McMullin's aged father sat by her side, his gray features fixed in stony immobility.

LABOR MEN APPEAL

Colbert and Thomson Explain Platform to Patients, Urging Them To Vote.

London's Labor campaign to place its Thomson, platform speaker, gave the patients noon addresses.

Each speaker was given an attentive brokers.

hearing as he explained the Labor party's platform, which contains twenty planks, and urged the men to exercise their franchise in favor of the working At noon tomorrow Mr. Colbert will address the employees of the McClary Manufacturing Company in the down town plant at 12:30.

BLAZE AT WOLSELEY.

When a fuse blew in a box at Wolseley barracks yesterday, fire

AFFECTING DATE SUPPLIES Impudence Brings Threat candidate, John Colbert, at the head of the federal polls in this riding on Oct. Immediate shortage of dates, which 29, was carried to Byron Sanatorium a widespread rumay would lead them today, when the candidate and J. F. to believe is imminent, according to one of the city's prominent fruit However, if the war in the near east is prolonged, the supply is in danger, he said. Most of the dates consumed in London and Western Ontario are imported from Bessarabia, now in state of rebellion military operations being continued against the French. In the event of on into the winter it is more than probable that this situation will be reflected in the local fruit market.

WARFARE IN NEAR EAST

CLAIMS MORTGAGE UNPAID. as a witness in a hectic husband and which resulted $15 damage was caused to woodwork. The fire department was in the supreme court against Bertha wife case in police court this mornnot called. The caretaker noticed the Campbell of London township, claimblaze and quickly applied the exing the amount due on allegedly un-

LAMB CONDEMNS SYSTEM OF SELECTIVE IMMIGRATION

pire by British stock. right here in the flesh to refute him.

"Patenaude is a political spinster who, long on the shelf, has at last,

"During the ten-year period dat-ing from the beginning of the war, from England and Scotland was retarded naturally. As a result Britain riage, a contract of union with Lord Atholstan. Patenaude is older than Lapointe or Cardin.

has a surplus population of over a want them, but maintains a very superior attitude as to the class of people increased every day by 1,000, which sent out. figure is the British birth rate" said speedy, six-cylinder roadster.

But was not Armand Lavergne, Mr.

A population greater by a million tralia took advantage of this scheme is there anything youthful about C.
H. Cahan, who was leader of the opposition in Nova Scotia against Fielding in a past now so remote that everyone has forgotne it?"

Patenaude Political Spinster.

"Take Patenaude himself," he wend on, "They have brought him out of political lavender. When he left Borden he went into a political graveyard, They have brought him out of spirits when there is the live Bourassa's spirit' when there is the live Bourassa's pire by Eritish stock.

The patenaude for the problem confronting England in general and the Salvation Army to the steamship companies. New Zealand went farther than this and assisted boys to pay their passage to that colony. As a result it costs only $25 to send a boy to New Zealand went farther than this and assisted boys to pay their passage to that colony. As a result it costs only $25 to send a boy to New Zealand, $50 is the cost of sending a boy to Australia, while for the emity of the social service department of the army and director of its emigration assistance, is in Longraveyard, They have merely result costs only $25 to send a boy to New Zealand, $50 is the cost of sending a boy to Australia, while for the emity of the social service department in particular, and assisted boys to pay their passage to that colony. As a result it costs only $25 to send a boy to New Zealand, $50 is the cost of sending a boy to Australia, while for the emity of the social service department in particular, and the colony. As a result it costs only $25 to send a boy to New Zealand, $50 is the cost of sending a boy to Australia, while for the emity of the court. "You and the other winesses must understand that a series witnesses must understand the court of its emigration assistance, is in London branch for the court. The apology is not controlled to the court. The apology is not controlled to the court. The apology is migrants, and so are prepared to assist 1914, to the year 1924, emigration them. Canada, with immense natural resources, needs a large population to develop them, and indeed claims to

> Will Train Men. esirable type of settler if she so de-

"At the same time Great Britain as more men employed in her fachas more men employed in her fac-tories than she had at any time be-bimself since the war. He is unwillling fore the war. The fact is there is to be a recipient of the dole, and with no employment for such a vast num-ber of men, and no system of assist-secure some permanent situation in the ance for the unemployed can ever colonies. The Salvation Army is openafford permanent relief when there is in ga small farm in England to teach no prospect of work for the men so this type of man the care of stock and aided.

"The British government voted the sum of fifteen million doMars annual-reaches his new home. Canada may ly for a period of five years for the have any number of these men if she Above is Commissioner and Mrs. Lamh of the Salvation Army, who is visiting in the city while on a world tour. Commissioner Lamb is head of

Initiated Beneath Fiery Cross

THOUSANDS WITNESS CEREMONY.

initiated into the Ku Klux Klan of and marching between lines of klans- They marched to the tune of sacred Kanada last night, in an open-air men from all parts of the province. "naturalization" demonstration held at Dorchester. It was the first ceremony of its kind ever to be held in the dominion. Above can be seen the new members filing behind a King in the dominion and the dominion in the dominion in the dominion in the dominion. Above can be seen the new members filing behind a King in the dominion in t

Mrs. Jessie Kapps Tells Court

To Speak To Her Civilly If

He Wants Answer.

RELENTS OF WORDS

For contempt of court in an impertinent answer, Magistrate A. H.

M. Graydon threatened to jail Mrs.

Kapps, of Sarnia, unless an apology was forthcoming after she appeared

"There is no law here." Mrs. Kapps efiantly stated after being cross-uestioned and "humiliated" by J. M.

McEvoy, counsel for Mrs. James

Arnold, of Sarnia, who charged her husband with failure to provide the necessities of life for herself and

"What was that you said?" the magistrate asked. Mrs. Kapps failed to answer, and the court repeated the question.

Do I have to answer the questions

Called to Order.

Mrs. Ellen Chivers, in giving evidence for Arnold, declared that she had seen Mrs. Arnold on the night of the Sarnia Old Boys' Reunion walking down the street arm in arm with opinion that it was unseemly conduct brought exception from Mr.

McEvoy, and in another cross-examination the court room spectators were called to order.

night you saw Mrs. Arnold at the re-union," Mr. McEvoy asked. "No sir," Mrs. Chivers replied. "But you saw Mrs. Arnold?"

sir," she answered hastily.

"Yes, sir; no, sir; yes, sir; thank ou, goodbye," Mr. McEvoy con-

DRINKING LESS-WATER

Londoners have not been imbibing as much water this month as they did in October 1924, according to reports

Buchanan of the Public Utilities this morning.

Water consumption during the months of June, July and August was higher than in the corresponding months of 1924, while September figures were about the same. The warmer summer of 1925 over and cooling fluid.

Figures Show More Consumed October of Last Year.

"Were you with your husband the man. Her expression of family of four enildren.

the cross examination.

iail." she was told.

hesitation.

parents.

Of Jail From Magistrate

hymns, played by a Klan band, and holiday season is not over yet, and when the men all got back to work would be the proper time to have them start out with the inspectors. eclared the chief.

The city councillors decided that every fireman on the department should be given a chance to do some fire inspection and prevention work, and thereby become familiar with the different buildings in the downtown sections of the city, and passed an order to that effect. The deputy fire marshal, in a let-er to the city, stated that it would be most unwise to change the two present men who knew their business and were trained in the work.

This caused a storm at last night's gathering of No. 1 committee, the members deciding to ignore the fire marshal in the matter, and order the chief to carry out the instructions chief to carry out the instructions

The mayor threatened to take individual action in the matter if the chief did not obey orders and declared today that "individual action," as far as he was concerned meant suspension of the head of London's

PROSPECTIVE OFFICERS STUDYING AT WOLSELEY

Prospective lieutenents who will ater be taken into the Canadian militia are now studying at the Royal school of infantry, which is being operated in Wolseley Barracks here. The term comes to a close November

The following officers are enrolled: Prov.-Lieut. W. H. Lymn, Galt; Prov. W. D. Court, Southampton; D. Southampton; J. E. Mc-

GILLESPIE TO KITCHENER. Lieut.-Col. George H. Gillespie, strict cadet officer of military dis-ict No. 1, left for Guelph and Kitchener today to take up the work of organizing the cadets in those places for the coming rifle competiof this man?" she asked alluding to Bowmanville and other eastern On tario p oints on Saturday. "You have to apologize or go to London has been the scene of som il," she was told.

"I'll apologize then, she said after which momentous announcements The outcome of the Arnold case, have been made. It will be remem one in which more than a dozen witnesses were heard and one Meighen announced the dissolution witnesses were heard and one featured by battles between witnesses of the defence and Mr. McEvoy was an order made out by the court for Arnold to pay his wife $4 per week.

Mrs. Arnold charged that her husband had sworn at her and beaten her on repeated occasions and his her on repeated occasions and his conduct was such that she was unconduct was such that she was unconducted was such that she was unconducted the dissolution of the was such that she was unconducted that the was unconducted to the was such that she was unconducted to the was uncondu able to live with him. In defence, through his counsel, Ed. Spencer, from a tour of Western Canada, and Arnold claimed that his wife was this and the Strathroy meetings make guilty of immoral conduct. Only the his first appearance in Western Or evidence of their 8-year-old daughter tario since returning. bore out the charge, however, and Mr. Graydon ruled it out, declaring from the west, which should be a that there was no doubt in his mind that the girl had been prompted and stating his reluctance to allow a child accompanied by other speakers of the charge of the ch

we evidence against either of its don have an opportunity of hearing the premier discuss the affairs without any infringement of The enthusiasm of London Libera so manifest at the convention and the meeting of workers held this week will be increased by the visit of the Premirer. Despite his heavy work of deliver-ing at least one address a day, the premier is still in good voice and vigorous as ever. STRATHROY'S PLANS.

Special to The Advertiser. Strathroy, Oct. 15 .- Plans are being completed to give Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, prime minister of Canada, a grand welcome when he After the civic reception the

After the civic reception the premier will be escorfed to the rink by a parade led by the 26th regimental band and several pipers.

The speaking will start at 2:30 and will probably be confined to the prime minister and J. C. Elliott, K.C., the Liberal candidate in West Middlesex. Mrs. Murroe will sing at the meeting. Mrs. Munroe will sing at the meeting, at which a huge crowd is expected if the weather be favorable.

MOTORIST SPEEDS AWAY AFTER HITTING BICYCLIST

that of 1924, is responsible for the in-creased demand for the city's pure Alfred Williams, 254 Talbot street was cut and bruised last night when PRESENT SKIT TONIGHT.
Following gymnasium class at the Y. M. C. A. tonight a skit will be put on by the members of the young men's section. Les Gray is in charge.
Spencer Fielding is handling the program. Following the entertainment refreshments will be served.

was cut and bruised last night when knocked off his wheel by a motor car stop, but put on speed and got away.
A lady and a gentleman who were siowed up, but when he saw that he slowed up, but when he saw that he had hit the man he speeded away ment refreshments will be served.

fire-fighting force. Connell, Walkerton.

who last night was re-elected president of the London branch of the

MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY

Made of Nature's Herbs. New Preparation, Miller's Canadian Herb Juice, Wins Fame and Popular Approval in Surprisingly Short Time, Hundreds Thankful for Having Heard of Such Wonderful Medicine.

made for the popular remedy, Miller's Herb Juice, and the wide-spread sensation created all over this part of the country, surpasses anything of restoring powers found in this great of such a marvelous medicine. The almost incredible way in which "stomach troubles" and allied ailments are being overcome and stamped out by this remarkable preparation proves beyond a doubt nedicines ever formulated for such nervousness, gassy stomach, liver and kidney disorders. Miller's Herb of nature ingredients of of nature ingredients of nearing juices taken from nature's herbs and properly blended by chemists into a mild, yet very effective medicine, gives it healing and restoring powers seldom found in any other preparation. Miller's Herb Juice tests from the bounds. ects free on the bowels, relieving igorates the digestive organs, and assists nature in the perfect assimilation of food, thereby aiding the manufacture of pure, rich blood, eliminating all impurities from the general system. Miller's Herb Juice Canada, a grand welcome when he arrives in this town tomorrow. There will be a civic reception to him as prime minister at the station when prime minister at the station when the prime comes in. Mayor George great medicine. Every bottle sold in the prime will be a civic reception to him as prime minister at the station when the income will be a civic reception to him as prime minister at the station when the prime minister at the station when the civic reception to him as prime minister at the station when the prime min or money refunded. If you are a sufferer of stomach trouble in any way, phone your druggist to send you a bottle of Miller's Canadian Herb Juice. One bottle will convince you of its health-restoring powers. The representative from the Herb Juice laboratories has established headquarters at Strong's Drug Store. the hours of 9 a.m. and 12 noon, and 2 p.m. and 5 p.m., for the purpose of explaining the merits of Herb Juice and how to get the best possible

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

REMEDY