MORE MILITIA FOR CALIFORNIA

The War Department Request That Sixteen Companies Be Organized

COAST DEFENCE SCHEDULE

Authorities Deny That It Has to Do With Anti-Japanese Measures

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 6.—The War Department at Washington has received from the War Department a request for sixteen militia companies to be held in reserve for coast defense, according to reliable information obtained today. Some time ago Adjutant-General Lauck was requested by the federal authorities to sign that many men of three companies of state militia to the defense, but Lauck declined to do so. It is understood that Governor Lett, who left for San Francisco today, will begin the organization of the companies at once.

State Adjutant-General Lauck, in a statement today, said that the renewed activities in his department at the request of the War Department for the organization of sixteen militia companies for coast defense were not a result of the passage by the assembly of the anti-Japanese school bill. Lauck declared that neither Governor Lett nor himself had any opinion as to the wisdom of the measure, and he was glad to accede if possible to the demands of the war department that he establish an adequate coast defense.

Washington Statement. Washington, Feb. 6.—Robert Oliver, Assistant Secretary of Defense, said today that the war department request to Governor Lett to organize sixteen militia companies for coast defense is merely part of the scheme for national coast defense in California, he said. The plan states which have not their full complement of militia, the idea being to organize twelve companies of regulars and every company of regulars local the artillery posts.

HIYU WAWA Suffragettes Plan Great International Congress to Be Held in London in April

London, Feb. 6.—A great women suffragist is to be held in London during the last week in February. It is predicted that this will be the largest and most influential gathering in the history of the movement. The congress will be held in London, and will be held in the city of London. Besides visits will be paid to Cambridge and a determined campaign carried on there.

Idaho Following Suit. Boise, Idaho, Feb. 5.—In the case of representatives an anti-race gambling bill and a bill to repeal Sunday rest law were introduced today.

Winnipeg Teamster Killed. Winnipeg, Feb. 5.—Wm. Mitchell, well known teamster, fell from a horse and was dragged along the street some distance. He died from his injuries.

Texas Stays "Wet." Austin, Tex., Feb. 5.—The house today by a vote of 85 to 44 defeated a resolution to submit a state-wide prohibition law. The prohibitionists lacked two votes of the necessary three majority.

Toronto Board of Education. Toronto, Feb. 5.—By a vote of 1, two members refusing to vote on a resolution to limit the school representation to one in compliance with the trustees' motion. Trustee Houston's vote only dissenting voice, while H. A. Kent and W. J. Kolland, rate school representatives, sat out.

Reporters in Trouble. New York, Feb. 5.—Frederick Hall and James J. Boyle, local reporters, accused of assaulting Oscar Bernstein, the impresario, in the Knickerbocker theatre, were on $200 bail for referring to a letter written by the commission regarding the reporters. "Any with a drop of red blood in his veins," the judge said, "would not have sent such a letter. There are gentlemen in this town who think that they can insult a man with impunity, and who have the idea that anything bad they do is good, but have stated, two wrongs do not make a right, and I therefore hold the dants for special session."

Sovereign Bank Case. Montreal, Feb. 5.—The preliminary in the case of the Sovereign bank, and for a time general manager, charged with making false statements to the government today. The only examination was Wm. Fisher, chief accountant of the bank. Fisher testified that the statement question were not correct, the chief discrepancy being the balance report a loan of about a million to the Canadian Improvement company of the $500. This was on both sides of the statement. Fisher's examination was not completed when the court adjourned Monday.
