dead six or seven hours when brought in, and a warrant is now out for the arrest of the person who removed the body before the Coroner was notified. The idea that an Arizona editor would perpetrate such a bold-faced, but from the hour that the boy understands that his mother's pierogatives end at the garden gate, that she has no voice whatever in the moulding of the nation's laws, that her precepts at the bud. While a private graveyard is not necessarily an adjunct of an Arizona weekly, they should be started, if started at all, on a solid foundation. This riding fourteen miles after sundown to steal the body of a horse-thief weighing only 110 pounds to make a beginning with clearly shows to what straits some editors can be driven in their desire for greatness. Had our e. c. been the right sort of a man and come to us, in the right spirit we would willingly have given him three or four bodies to start a p.g. on, and then gone to the trouble of teaching him how to shoot and the right sort of a man and come to us, in the right sprit we would willingly have given him three or four bodies to start a p.g. on, and then gone to the trouble of teaching him how to shoot and gradually acquire a respectable number of victims. We beg pardon of our readers for referring to him at this length, or even at all, and promise not to do so again outside of the court records if it can possibly be avoided.

ENPLANATORY.—The story telegraphed east by a local scribbler the other day to the effect that we had shot and wounded the manager of the stage line because he refused us a stree pass was another specimen of the canards which have given Arizona a queer standing in the estimation of Eastern people. For three years we have had an annual pass over the raileoads crossing this territory. We understand that New York, Boston and Chicago editors no longer accept free passes, on the ground that it warps their opinion has ever been warped we haven't heard of it. When we are deadhead around to the extent of 5,000 miles a year, and if our opinion has ever been warped we haven't heard of it. When we are deadhead dround to the extent of the contract of the contract from $20 to $30 in cash.

Our annual pass over the stage line having expired, we sent it to the office of Mr. Hooper by our agricultural editor to be renewed. Our agricultural editor and Mr. Hopper met after a pleasant fashion, but soon got into a dispute on the sphiant of grasses. Our assistant on the subject of grasses. Our assistant is from Ohio. He knows grass. He ant fashion, but soon grasses. Our assistant on the subject of grasses. Our assistant is from Ohio. He knows grass. He knows grass grown in the United States and can tell timothy from clover by the feel of things in the darkest night. Mr. Hooper knows how to run a stage line but knows nothing of grasses. Therefore it was inevitable that the women should go from words to blows and almost inevitable that our man should get ficked. No agriculturnan peace. When our man returned with two black eyes and sysulled nose, we took the pass and two guns and went up to see Mr. Hooper and explain things. We might have appeared perturbed, but we were not. We might have appeared perturbed, but we were not. We might have appeared perturbed, but we were not. We might have seemed to be toving with our guns as swed do us up a pass good for five years not returned. When his gun fouled and we could get in a word of explanation, he came our and embraced us and fixed us up a pass good for five years fixed us up a pass good for five years to hold the pass and fixed us up a pass good for five years and hold get fixed. No agriculturnal peace we have the pass and two guns and went up to see and two guns and tion, he came out and embraced us and fixed us up a pass good for five years. An hour after our departure he fell down the back steps of his office and injured his spine, and the scribbler referred to rushed to the telegraph office to inform the outside world that to inform the outside world that we had potted another man. Even while his news was flashing over the wires we were bathing Mr. Hooper's spinal column with a red woolen rag and some choice liniment from our own medicine chest. Even should news be sent out of here that we had shot the postmaster it should be received with many grains of allowance.

Thirty Students Arrested.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 17.—A squad of police last night visited the Technological Institute here, and, proceeding to the dormitories, who had retired. The charge on which the arrests were made is that the students were engaged in a Nihilist conspiracy against the Government. The visit of the police was a complete surprise to the authorities of the institution, as well as to the students.

hung him in the bend of Horse Creek.
Our e. c. somehow learned of the occurrence and went out after the body and cut it down and brought it home after dark and planted it on his lot. Tuesday afternoon he got a headboard and painted a name on it and a "No. 1," and told everybody he had killed a robber who attacked him as he was returning from Lone Pine. It did not take us an hour to unravel the mystery. While we do not wish our e. c. any particular harm, we feel that we also owe a duty to the public. He was not even at Lone Pine that day. The man had been dead six or seven hours when brought in, and a warrant is now out for the arrest of the proson who removed the arrest of the proson who removed the arrest of the proson was notified.
