A MASONIC SERMON.

The text upon which Dr. Sims founded his sermon was II Peter, i. 5-7; "And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue, knowledge; and to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness; and to godliness, brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness, charity." He pointed out that the Christian Church is an organization that is intended to make for godliness and righteousness. Yet man had become awakened to the importance of some special work or duty which should be performed, and they have shown a disposition to organize around that work, hence the various organizations which have sprung up within and in connection with the churches to perform duties which the churches has
