NEWS FROM CIRCLES.

POPLAR HILL.—On the 7th inst., our Circle held a public meeting, when we had the delightful privilege of listening to an address by the Rev. J. E. Davis, B.A., on "The Gospel in Conflict with Heathenism." The meeting had been well advertised, and had the weather been favorable a large audience would have greeted Mr. Davis, many having a personal acquaintance with him, as he spent four months with this church previous to his departure for India. But the weather was very inclement, and, as a consequence, the audience and the collection for missions were much smaller than otherwise they would have been. However, we who had the privilege of hearing Mr. Davis, as he vividly portrayed the sad condition of those poor people to whom he has been telling the sweet "Old, old Story," our hearts were stirred as never before. We trust our brother's visit to us may awaken a deeper interest in missions, both in our Circle and among the church members generally.
