POSITION OF WOMEN IN DENMARK

Mr. LARSEN writes in a paper in the Morning News entitled 'The Woman and her Freedom, gives a very pleasant picture of the position of women in the Kingdom of Denmark.

The woman takes her place worthily on an equal footing with man. She fills and gladdens the public as well as private life.

She is charming and happy. It might even be said that she is a more prominent feature of Danes life than the man.

She is a delightful creature, not too pretty to be able to be able to neglect the things of necessity of charming with eyes and clear complexion, and black hair.
